 - (b) Council Regulation (EEC) No. 435/80(a) (which contains arrangements applicable to agricultural products and certain other goods originating in the states, countries and territories listed in the Annexes to the Regulation) during the period from 1st March 1980 to 31st December 1980, or
 - (c) the Second Lomé Convention during the period from 1st January 1981 to 31st October 1982.

Any such allocation shall be made subject to such conditions as appear to the Minister to be expedient to secure the object or prevent abuse of the relief.

4. Any entitlement to relief under the United Kingdom's share of the quota shall be subject to—

- (a) the production of the licence in respect of the goods on which relief is sought appropriately endorsed by the Board with a statement that the amount of frozen beef or veal appearing in the licence may be imported free of levy under the quota; and
- (b) the observance by the importer of any conditions subject to which the allocation was made.

5. A licence endorsed with the statement referred to in article 4(a) of this order shall not be issued to an importer unless the Board is satisfied, after taking into account any levy-free imports of beef or veal authorised under previous licences issued to that importer, that the amount of levy-free beef or veal allocated to him in pursuance of this order will not be exceeded by the import of beef or veal under that licence.

6. Goods shall be treated as forming part of the quota when they are entered for home use under the authority of a licence endorsed with the statement referred to in article 4(a) of this order.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order.)

This order, which applies throughout the United Kingdom, requires the Minister of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food to allocate the United Kingdom's share of a quota for the levy-free import of frozen beef and veal under the provisions of Council Regulation (EEC) No. 3225/82.

The order provides that not more than one third of the United Kingdom's share of the quota shall be allocated to Government Departments and local authorities and that the remainder shall be allocated to importers of frozen beef and veal by reference to the amounts of frozen beef and veal which they have imported from outside the European Economic Community into the United Kingdom during the period 1st November 1979 to 31st October 1982, other than amounts imported free of duty pursuant to the Lomé Convention or the Second Lomé Convention (or pursuant to similar arrangements under Council Regulation (EEC) No. 435/80) during that period.

The order comes into operation on 1st January 1983.
