Laid before Parliament	2nd April 1984
Coming into Operation	23rd April 1984

In exercise of the powers conferred on me by sections 73(a) and (c) and 74(1) of the Education (Scotland) Act 1980(a), and all other powers enabling me in that behalf, I hereby make the following regulations:—

Citation, commencement and interpretation

1.—(1) These regulations may be cited as the Education (Grants for Further Training of Teachers) (Scotland) Regulations 1984 and shall come into operation on 23rd April 1984.

(2) In these regulations “grant-aided special schools” means schools in respect of which annual maintenance grants are paid in terms of regulation 2 of the Residential Special Schools and Orphanages (Scotland) Grant Regulations 1948(b).

Grants by the Secretary of State

2. The Secretary of State may, subject to the provisions of these regulations, pay to education authorities and managers of grant-aided special schools grants of such amount as he thinks necessary or expedient in respect of teachers in their employment undergoing further training.

Training in respect of which grants may be paid

3. A grant shall be paid only in respect of a teacher attending a one-year full-time course leading to the Diploma in Special Educational Needs (Recorded Pupils).

Applications for and payment of grants

4.—(1) Applications for grants shall be made in writing to the Secretary of State by education authorities and by the managers of grant-aided special schools and the Secretary of State shall in any year advise education authorities and the managers of grant-aided special schools by circular of the procedure

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations.)

Under section 73 of the Education (Scotland) Act 1980 the Secretary of State may in accordance with regulations made by him make payment of such sums as he thinks necessary and expedient for various purposes. Section 74(1) of the Act enables the Secretary of State to prescribe in regulations conditions with which the recipients of grant are required to comply. These regulations provide for the payment to education authorities and managers of educational establishments of grants in respect of teachers attending a one year full-time course leading to the Diploma in Special Educational Needs (Recorded Pupils).
