The Secretary of State for Transport, in exercise of the powers conferred by section 1(4) of the London Regional Transport Act 1984(a), and all other enabling powers, hereby makes the following Order:—

1. This Order may be cited as the London Regional Transport (Appointed Day) Order 1984.

2. 29th June 1984 is appointed for the purposes of section 1 of the London Regional Transport Act 1984.

Nicholas Ridley,
Secretary of State for Transport.

27th June 1984.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order.)

This Order appoints 29th June 1984 as the appointed day for the purposes of section 1 of the London Regional Transport Act 1984. Under section 1 of that Act Parts I and II of the Transport (London) Act 1969 (c. 35), which established the London Transport Executive to run London Transport services subject to the overall control of the Greater London Council, cease to have effect on the appointed day; the London Transport Executive will, however, continue to exist and will be known, as from the appointed day, as London Regional Transport. By virtue of section 72 of the London Regional Transport Act 1984 the whole of the Act except for the provisions specified in section 72(3) to (6) comes into force on the appointed day.
