EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order.)

This Order, which supersedes the Potatoes (Protection of Guarantees) Order 1959, supports the new guarantee arrangements for home-produced potatoes having effect under Part I of the Agriculture Act 1957, and commencing with the 1985 crop.

In Great Britain the Order—

(1) requires grower-salesmen and merchants dealing in potatoes to keep records relating to their trade in potatoes and if required by a notice in writing by the Minister to furnish information relating to such a request;

(2) enables authorised officers to enter on land used for the production, storage or sale of potatoes and to require the production of books, accounts and records relating to the purchase and sale of potatoes; and

(3) prohibits the sale or use of stockfeed potatoes for unauthorised purposes.

Similar provisions apply in Northern Ireland and in addition grower-salesmen and merchants are required to register with the Department of Agriculture for Northern Ireland before undertaking sales or purchases of potatoes.

Penalties for contraventions of this Order are provided for in section 7 of the Agriculture Act 1957.
