EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order.)

This Order consolidates the Consumer Credit (Exempt Agreements) Order 1980 as amended, which provides that certain consumer credit and consumer hire agreements shall be exempt agreements for the purposes of the Consumer Credit Act 1974.

The Order provides that the following consumer credit agreements are exempt agreements—

- (a) certain agreements secured on land where the creditor is a body specified in the Schedule to the Order (Article 2);
- (b) certain agreements where the number of payments to be made by the debtor does not exceed the number specified (Article 3);
- (c) certain agreements where the rate of the total charge for credit is a rate which does not exceed the highest of the London and Scottish Clearing Banks' base rates plus one per cent or 13 per cent, whichever is the higher (Article 4); and
- (d) certain agreements having a connection with a country outside the United Kingdom or made between a U.S. Federal credit union and defined persons having a connection with the U.S. armed forces (Article 5).

The Order also provides that consumer hire agreements are exempt agreements where the owner is a statutory corporation supplying electricity, gas or water and the subject of the agreement is a meter or metering equipment used in connection with that supply (Article 6).

The limits of £5,000 are increased to £15,000 in Articles 3 and 4 to take account of the increase on 20th May 1985 by the Consumer Credit (Increase of Monetary Limits) Order 1983 (S.I. 1983/1878) in the monetary limit from £5,000 to £15,000 set out in section 8(2) of the Consumer Credit Act 1974 relating to the definition of a consumer credit agreement.

Five further bodies are included in the Schedule, 18 are deleted and the names of 33 are amended.

The text of the Federal Credit Union Act referred to in Article 5 of the Order is available for inspection by prior arrangement at the Department of Trade and Industry (Overseas Trade Division 2), 1, Victoria Street, London SW1H 0ET.
