EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Rules.)

These Rules further amend the Rules of Procedure (Air Force) Rules 1972. They are for the most part consequential upon the passing of the Armed Forces Act 1986 (c.21).

Rule 60 of the Principal Rules is amended so as to follow the practice adopted in civil courts since the provisions of the Police and Criminal Evidence Act 1984 (c.60) came into effect, whereby if an accused person is to give evidence on his own behalf, and to call witnesses as to fact, he must give his evidence first.

Rule 71 and Schedule 4(6) of the Principal Rules are amended to allow documentary evidence of service records to be admitted in evidence where such records are maintained in more modern systems than “service books”.

Rule 100 of the Principal Rules is amended to delete reference to section 114 of the Air Force Act 1955 which is repealed by the Armed Forces Act 1986.

Schedules 2(2) and (3) of the Principal Rules are amended to include statements of offences created or amended by the Armed Forces Act 1986.

Schedule 9 of the Principal Rules is amended to provide for the extension of punishments which may be awarded to civilians provided for in the Armed Forces Act 1986.

The remaining provisions are minor and technical corrective amendments to the Principal Rules.
