EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations.)

The administration of general betting duty has been centralised by stages at a national Betting Duty Control Centre (BDCC) at Manchester. The present Regulations introduce new arrangements which enable this programme to be completed, at the same time simplifying some of the procedures to be followed by those responsible for payment of the duty. The main changes are as follows:

- (a) On-course bookmakers (Part II). In place of betting duty cards valid for one week, betting duty sheets to be completed in respect of each meeting and weekly summaries to accompany duty payments, on-course bookmakers will be required to hold an authority valid for up to two years, to sign a track attendance register and to make returns to the BDCC, together with duty payments, on a monthly basis (Regulations 4 and 9).
- (b) Off-course bookmakers (Part III). Off-course bookmakers will continue to make returns and duty payments on either a weekly or monthly basis, but monthly returns and payments will cease to be handled by local offices and will be sent (as weekly returns and payments already are) to the BDCC (Regulation 13).
- (c) Totalisator operators (Part IV). Returns and payments, hitherto made weekly to local offices, will be sent to the BDCC on a monthly basis (Regulation 16).
- (d) Track occupiers (Part V). Track occupiers will no longer be required to collect and forward to the BDCC duplicate betting sheets for each bookmaker attending a meeting, but will instead maintain a simple form of register (Regulation 19).

Subject to these changes, and some revision of documentary requirements to reflect the new procedures, the Regulations consolidate the existing provisions in the General Betting Duty Regulations 1973, the General Betting Duty Regulations 1983 and the General Betting Duty Regulations 1973 (Amendment) Regulations 1984, all of which are revoked. The Regulations come into force from 30 March 1986 when the BDCC assumes wider responsibilities under the new arrangements.
