Reviews of payments of net revenue costs

- (c) article 6(6) of and paragraph 4 of Schedule 1 to the 1981 No. 2 order.

(2) A case falls within this sub-paragraph if, but for the abolition of the Council and the provisions of this order, the payment referred to in sub-paragraph (1) would have fallen to increase, or as the case may be to reduce, the amount of loan debt outstanding and due to the Council's consolidated loans fund with respect to which the transferee authority would have been liable to make payments to the Council under the provisions of the transfer orders referred to in paragraph 3(1) of Part I of this Schedule.

1. The rights of the Council to nominate tenants for housing accommodation which are transferred to the Secretary of State by article 4(3) are those such rights—

EXPLANATORY NOTE

Eleven orders have been made under section 23 of the London Government Act 1963 transferring housing accommodation and housing land from the Greater London Council to London borough councils and district councils. The transfer orders contain provisions which confer rights and liabilities on the parties in relation to the transferred property. This order revokes such provisions to the extent mentioned in Schedule 1, with the savings set out in Part II of Schedule 2. It amends others (as provided in Part I of Schedule 2) with respect to the occupation of property by employees of the Council in connection with their employment (paragraph 1), the sharing of transferred and other property (paragraph 2), and the making of payments to the London Residuary Body with respect to the outstanding loan debt of the Council due to its consolidated loans fund on the abolition date (paragraph 3).

The order also transfers to transferee authorities rights and liabilities under contracts and other agreements relating to the transferred property, and makes relevant financial provision in relation to those contracts (Schedule 2, Part II, paragraph 3). The power to enforce certain restrictive covenants relating to transferred property is transferred to the transferee authorities (Schedule 2, Part II, paragraph 6).

The order confers on the Secretary of State rights to nominate tenants to transferred housing corresponding (with modifications) to the rights conferred on the Greater London Council by the transfer orders (article 4 and Schedule 3, Part I). The modifications concern the matters to be taken into account by the Secretary of State in the exercise of the rights. It also transfers to the Secretary of State other rights of the Council to nominate tenants to housing accommodation belonging to London borough councils, district councils and housing associations, including accommodation provided under town development schemes undertaken to relieve overpopulation in Greater London (article 4 and Schedule 3, Part II).

(7) section 4 was applied by the Housing Act 1961 (c.65), section 34(2); sections 4(1) and 10(3) were applied or amended by the London Government Act 1963 (c.33), section 61(1) and (3), by the Local Government Act 1972 (c.70), section 185 and Schedule 8, paragraphs 2 and 5, and by the Local Government, Planning and Land Act 1980 (c.65), Schedule 34, Part XIV; section 19 was repealed by the London Government Act 1963 Schedule 18, Part II.

The order makes provision for the transfer to the London Residuary Body of any residuary rights and liabilities of the Council under the transfer orders (article 5).
