JUSTICES OF THE PEACE, ENGLAND AND WALES

The Petty Sessional Divisions (Northamptonshire) Order 1987

Made - - - - 10th February 1987

Coming into force in accordance with Article 1

Whereas the magistrates' courts committee for the county of Northamptonshire has, in pursuance of subsection (1) of section 23 of the Justices of the Peace Act 1979⁽¹⁾, submitted to the Secretary of State a draft order making provision about the division of part of the said county into petty sessional divisions:

And whereas by subsections (3)(a) and (5) of the said section it is provided that the Secretary of State may by statutory instrument make the Order either in the terms of the said draft or with such modifications as he thinks fit and that the said Order may contain transitional and other consequential provisions:

And whereas the provisions of subsections (1), (2) and (3) of section 24 of the Act of 1979 have been complied with: Now, therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred upon me by subsections (3) and (5) of the said section 23, I hereby make the following Order:—

1. This Order may be cited as the Petty Sessional Divisions (Northamptonshire) Order 1987 and shall come into force on 1st April 1987, except that for the purposes of paragraph 2 of Schedule 3 to this Order, this Order shall come into force forthwith.

2. In this Order, except where the context otherwise requires, the expression “division” means petty sessional division and any reference to a justice for a division shall be construed as a reference to a justice of the peace who ordinarily acts, or, as the case may be, will on or after 1st April 1987 ordinarily act, in and for that division.

3.—(1) The eight divisions of Brackley, Corby, Daventry, Kettering, Mid-Northants, Oundle and Thrapston, Towcester and Wellingborough shall be abolished and—

- (a) from the area comprised in the division of Corby together with the parishes set out in Part I of Schedule 1 to this Order there shall be constituted a new division to be known as the Corby division;

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

- (b) from the area comprised in the division of Daventry together with the parishes set out in Part II of Schedule 1 to this Order there shall be constituted a new division to be known as the Daventry division;
- (c) from the area comprised in the division of Kettering together with the parishes set out in Part III of Schedule 1 to this Order there shall be constituted a new division to be known as the Kettering division;
- (d) from the area comprised in the division of Towcester together with the parishes set out in Part IV of Schedule 1 to this Order there shall be constituted a new division to be known as the Towcester division;
- (e) from the area comprised in the division of Wellingborough together with the parish of Great Addington there shall be constituted a new division to be known as the Wellingborough division.

(2) The divisions specified in column (1) of Schedule 2 to this Order shall, in consequence of the foregoing paragraph of this Article, comprise the areas specified opposite to those divisions in column (2) of the said Schedule.

4. The transitional and other consequential provisions set out in Schedule 3 to this Order shall have effect in connection with the provisions of Article 3 of this Order.

(7) 1975 c. 72.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

2.—(1) The justices for a new division shall appoint in the prescribed manner, so far as may be applicable, and for the prescribed term, to take office on 1st April 1987—

- (a) a chairman and one or more deputy chairmen;
- (b) a juvenile court panel;
- (c) one or more probation liaison committees;
- (d) a justice or justices to serve as a member or members of the magistrates' courts committee for the county of Northamptonshire;
- (e) a divisional licensing committee;
- (f) a betting licensing committee;
- (g) a domestic court panel.

(2) In the foregoing sub-paragraph, the expressions “the prescribed manner” and “the prescribed term” mean respectively—

- (a) in relation to the election of a chairman or deputy chairman, the manner prescribed by rules made, or having effect as if made, under section 18 of the Justices of the Peace Act 1979 and a term ending at the expiration of the month of December 1987;
- (b) in relation to the appointment of a juvenile court panel, the manner prescribed by rules made, or having effect as if made, under section 144 of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980⁽⁸⁾, as extended by section 146 of that Act, and a term ending at the expiration of the month of December 1988;
- (c) in relation to the appointment of a probation liaison committee, the manner prescribed by rules made, or having effect as if made, under Schedule 3 to the Powers of Criminal Courts Act 1973 and a term ending at the expiration of the month of December 1987;
- (d) in relation to the appointment of a member of the magistrates' courts committee, the manner prescribed by regulations made, or having effect as if made, under section 21 of the Justices of the Peace Act 1979 and a term ending at the expiration of the month of November 1987;
- (e) in relation to the appointment of the divisional licensing committee, the manner prescribed in Part I of Schedule 1 to the Licensing Act 1964⁽⁹⁾ and a term ending at the expiration of the month of December 1987;
- (f) in relation to the appointment of the betting licensing committee, the manner prescribed by the Betting (Licensing) Regulations 1960⁽¹⁰⁾ and a term ending at the expiration of the month of December 1987;
- (g) in relation to the appointment of a domestic court panel, the manner prescribed by rules made, or having effect as if made under section 144 of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980, as extended by section 67 of that Act, and a term ending at the expiration of the month of December 1989.

3. The permitted hours under Part III of the Licensing Act 1964 in force immediately before 1st April 1987 in an abolished division shall continue in force there until the coming into operation of an order under the said Part III, fixing permitted hours, made in the year 1987 at the general annual licensing meeting of the justices for the respective new division.

4. Anything required by virtue of the foregoing provision of this Schedule to be done on or after 1st April 1987 by, or in relation to, the clerk to the justices for an abolished division shall be done by, or in relation to, the clerk to the justices for the respective new division.

⁽¹⁰⁾ S.I.1960/1701

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

5. Subject to the foregoing provisions of this Schedule, any process issued, order made, sentence passed, appeal brought, case stated, licence granted, recognizance entered into, proceedings begun, appointment made or other thing done before 1st April 1987 by, from, to or before any justices for an abolished division or their clerk shall, on and after that date, be deemed to have been issued, made, passed, brought, stated, granted, entered into, begun or done by, from, to or before those justices as justices for the respective new division or their clerk, as the case may be.

6. Any order made by a magistrates' court directing the payment of money to the clerk or any other officer of a magistrates' court acting for an abolished division shall have effect as if it had directed payment to be made to the clerk to the justices for the respective new division.

7.—(1) Any process, records or other documents in the custody, by virtue of his office as such, of the clerk to the justices for an abolished division shall be retained by that clerk in his capacity as clerk to the justices for the respective new division.

(2) Copies of, and extracts from, any such record or other document as aforesaid made or certified by the clerk to the justices for the respective new division shall be of the same effect as if they had been made or certified by the clerk to the justices for the abolished division.

8. Where an abolished division is named in a community service order, probation order or supervision order, the powers and functions of the justices for that division in relation to the order shall vest in and be discharged by the justices for the respective new division and the order, unless amended in regard to the division named, shall have effect in all respects as if the respective new division was named therein.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.
