SCHEDULE TO THE ORDER

Article 2

1.—(1) This section applies to any offence of which a person is accused or has been convicted outside the Territory if the act constituting the offence, or the equivalent act, would, if it took place in the Territory or, in the case of an extraterritorial offence, in corresponding circumstances outside the Territory, constitute one of the offences listed in Schedule 1 to this Act.

(2) For the purposes mentioned in subsection (3) below—

- (a) no offence to which this section applies shall be regarded as an offence of a political character; and
- (b) no proceedings in respect of an offence to which this section applies shall be regarded as a criminal matter of a political character or as criminal proceedings of a political character.

(3) Those purposes are—

- (a) the purposes of the Extradition Act 1870 in relation to any requisition for the surrender of a fugitive criminal made on behalf of a convention country after the coming into force of this paragraph;
- (b) the purposes of the Fugitive Offenders Act 1967 as extended to the Territory in relation to any request for the return of a person under that Act made on behalf of a convention country after the coming into force of this paragraph; and
- (c) the purposes of section 5 of the Extradition Act 1873 (evidence for foreign criminal matters) and section 5 of the Evidence (Proceedings in Other Jurisdictions) Act 1975 (evidence for criminal proceedings outside the Territory) as extended to the Territory (or the equivalent provision in the law of the Territory) in relation to any criminal proceedings instituted in a convention country (not being the Republic of Ireland) after the coming into force of this paragraph.

2. In relation to any requisition for surrender of a fugitive criminal made as mentioned in section 1(3)(a) above in respect of an offence to which section 1 above applies, the Extradition Act 1870 shall have effect as if at the end of paragraph (1) of section 3 (which prohibits the surrender of a criminal if he proves as there mentioned that the requisition of his surrender has in fact been made with a view to try or punish him for an offence of a political character) there were added the words “or with a view to try or punish him on account of his race, religion, nationality, or political opinions, or that he might, if surrendered, be prejudiced at his trial or punished, detained or restricted in his personal liberty by reason of his race, religion, nationality or political opinions”.

3.—(1) There shall be deemed to be included in the list of extradition crimes contained in Schedule 1 to the Extradition Act 1870—

- (a) any offence under the Explosive Substances Act 1883;
- (b) any indictable offence under the Firearms Act 1968; and
- (c) any attempt to commit any of the crimes in that list (including crimes added to it after the coming into force of this subsection), to the extent that any such attempt is not already an extradition crime under the law of the Territory.

(2) There shall be deemed to be included among the description of offences set out in Schedule 1 to the Fugitive Offenders Act 1967 as extended to the Territory—

- (a) any indictable offence under the Offences against the Person Act 1861;
- (b) any offence under the Explosive Substances Act 1883; and
- (c) any indictable offence under the Firearms Act 1968.

4.—(1) If a person, whether a United Kingdom national or not, does in a convention country any act which, if he had done it in the Territory, would have made him guilty in the Territory of—

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

- (a) an offence mentioned in paragraph 1, 2, 4, 5, 10, 11, 12, 13 or 14 of Schedule 1 to this Act; or
- (b) an offence of attempting to commit any offence so mentioned,

he shall, in the Territory, be guilty of the offence or offences aforesaid of which the act would have made him guilty if he had done it there.

(2) If a person, whether a United Kingdom national or not, does in a convention country any act to or in relation to a protected person which, if he had done it in the Territory, would have made him guilty in the Territory of—

- (a) an offence mentioned in paragraph 3, 6, 8 or 9 of Schedule 1 to this Act; or
- (b) an offence of attempting to commit any offence so mentioned,

he shall, in the Territory, be guilty of the offence or offences aforesaid of which the act would have made him guilty if he had done it there.

For the purposes of this subsection it is immaterial whether a person knows that another person is a protected person.

(3) If a person who is a national of a convention country but not a United Kingdom national does outside the Territory and that convention country any act which makes him in that convention country guilty of an offence and which, if he had been a United Kingdom national would have made him in the Territory guilty of an offence mentioned in paragraph 1, 2, or 13 of Schedule 1 to this Act, he shall, in the Territory, be guilty of the offence or offences aforesaid of which the act would have made him guilty if he had been a United Kingdom national.

(4) Proceedings for an offence which would not be an offence apart from this section shall not be instituted except by or with the consent of the Attorney General of the Territory.

(5) In this section the expression “Attorney General” includes the Solicitor-General.

(6) In this section “a protected person” means, in relation to any such act as is mentioned in subsection (2) above, any of the following, namely—

- (c) a person who at the time of the act is a member of the family of another person mentioned in either of the preceding paragraphs and—
 - (i) if the other person is mentioned in paragraph (a) above, is accompanying him, or
 - (ii) if the other person is mentioned in paragraph (b) above, is a member of his household; and if in any proceedings a question arises as to whether a person is or was a protected person, a certificate issued by or under the authority of the Governor and stating any fact relating to the question shall be conclusive evidence of that fact.

(7) For the purposes of this section any act done—

- (a) on board a ship registered in a convention country, being an act which, if the ship had been registered in the United Kingdom or the Territory, would have constituted an offence within the jurisdiction of the Admiralty; or

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

- (c) on board a hovercraft registered in a convention country while the hovercraft is in journey elsewhere than in or over that country, shall be treated as done in that convention country; and section 7(2) of the Tokyo Convention Act 1967 (meaning of “in flight” or, as applied to hovercraft, “in journey”) as extended to the Territory shall apply for the purposes of this subsection as it applies for the purposes of section 1 of that Act.

5. In the case of any country which, not being a convention country, is either—
- (a) a designated Commonwealth country within the meaning of the Fugitive Offenders Act 1967 as extended to the Territory; or
 - (b) a foreign state with which there is in force an arrangement of the kind described in section 2 of the Extradition Act 1870 with respect to the surrender to that state of fugitive criminals; or
 - (c) a United Kingdom dependency within the meaning of the Fugitive Offenders Act 1967, as extended to the Territory, where the Secretary of State has by an order made under section 5(1) of this Act as it applies in the United Kingdom directed

- (i) in the case of a country within paragraph (a) or (b) above, that all or any of the provisions of this Act which would, apart from this section, apply only in relation to convention countries shall apply in relation to that country (subject to such exceptions, if any, as may be specified in the order) as they apply in relation to a convention country; or
- (ii) in the case of a country within paragraph (c) above, that the provisions of section 4 above shall so apply in relation to that country;

and while such an order is in force in the case of any such country, the provisions in question shall apply in relation to it accordingly, whether this Act has come into force in the Territory for the purposes of arrangements between the Territory and a convention country or not.

9.—(1) This Act may be cited as the Suppression of Terrorism Act 1978.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

(3) This Act shall come into force on 1st January 1988 save that, in relation to a convention country, it shall come into force on such day as the Governor may by order appoint and different days may be so appointed for different purposes.
