- (i) the inclusion in the order (by way of an addition to the provisions of any existing order or orders) of an exemption of the same kind as is mentioned in the Local Authorities' Traffic Orders (Exemptions for Disabled Persons) (Scotland) Regulations 1971(e), in respect of a disabled person's vehicle, or of a provision conferring

“the local roads authority” has the meaning given by paragraph (a) of the definition of “roads authority” in section 151(1) of the Roads (Scotland) Act 1984(a);

“the notice of proposals” and “the notice of making”, in relation to an order, mean respectively the notices required to be published under regulations 5 and 12;

(4) Nothing in these Regulations shall apply to any order made before the coming into force of these Regulations.

PART II

(2) The consultation referred to in paragraph (1) is additional to any consultation required by the Act.

(3) This regulation has effect subject to regulation 13 below.

Publication of proposals

5.—(1) Before making the order the Secretary of State shall—

- (a) publish once at least in a local newspaper circulating in the area in which any road or other place to which the order relates is situated a notice of proposals containing the particulars specified in Part 1 of Schedule 1 to these Regulations;

- (e) comply with the relevant requirements of Schedule 3 as to the availability of documents for inspection.

(2) Where the order is one which relates to a road, or to roads, situated in more than one locality, it shall be sufficient for the purposes of this regulation if the notice published in each local newspaper states the general nature and effect of the order so far as it affects the road or roads situated in the locality in which that newspaper circulates and names or otherwise describes only the road or roads so affected in that locality, but the notice in the Edinburgh Gazette shall state the general nature and effect of the entire order and name or otherwise describe the whole road, or all the roads, to which the order relates.

(3) This regulation has effect subject to regulations 13 and 14 below.

Objections

6.—(1) The period during which objections to the order can be made shall begin not earlier than the date on which the Secretary of State has complied with the requirements of paragraph (1)(a), (b) and (c) of regulation 5 and (where such display is required) has begun to display the notices required by paragraph 1(d) of that regulation, and shall continue, in the case of orders under section 83 or 84 of the Act, for not less than 28 days, and in the case of all other orders, for not less than 21 days.

(2) Any person desiring to object to the Secretary of State's proposals to make the order shall send within the period, and to the address, specified in the notice of proposals published as required by regulation 5 a written statement of his objection and of the grounds thereof.

(3) This regulation has effect subject to regulations 13 and 14 below.

Notice of public inquiry

7.—(1) Where the Secretary of State decides, before publishing the notice of proposals under regulation 5 above, that a public inquiry shall be held, the notice of proposals shall contain, in addition to the particulars required by that regulation, the particulars specified in Part II of Schedule 1.

(2) In any case where the Secretary of State decides that a public inquiry shall be held in connection with an order to which these Regulations apply but the published notice of proposals has not contained the particulars specified in Part II of Schedule 1 aforesaid, the Secretary of State shall—

- (a) publish once at least in a local newspaper circulating in the area in which any road or other place to which the order relates is situated a notice of the inquiry containing the particulars specified in Part III of Schedule 1;
- (b) publish a similar notice in the Edinburgh Gazette;
- (c) serve upon the relevant authority a copy of the notice of inquiry containing the particulars aforesaid;

- (e) comply with the relevant requirements of Schedule 3 as to the availability of documents for inspection;
- (f) not later than the date of the first publication of the notice required by sub-paragraph (a) of this paragraph, inform in writing any person who has objected to the order in accordance with regulation 6 and who has not withdrawn the objection, of the date, time and place of the inquiry.

(3) The provisions of paragraph (2) of regulation 5 shall apply in relation to the publication of a notice under paragraph (2) of this regulation as they apply in relation to the publication of a notice of proposals under regulation 5.

(4) Where the notice of proposals announces the holding of a public inquiry, there shall be at least 42 days between the date on which the publication of that notice in the local newspaper and the Edinburgh Gazette under the foregoing provisions of these Regulations is completed and the date on which the inquiry is due to begin, and in all other cases there shall be at least 21 days between the date on which the publication as aforesaid of the notice announcing the holding of the public inquiry is completed or the date of the expiration of the objection period (whichever is later) and the date on which the inquiry is due to begin.

Procedure at public inquiry

8.—(1) Any person interested in the subject matter of a public inquiry may appear at the inquiry in person or may be represented by counsel, solicitor or other representative.

(2) Any person so interested may, whether or not he proposes to appear at the inquiry, send to the address given in the notice of proposals for the receipt of objections, such written representations as he may wish to make in relation to the subject matter of the inquiry with a view to their transmission to and consideration by the person appointed to hold the inquiry.

(3) The person holding the inquiry may refuse to hear any person, or to consider any objection or representation made by any person, if he is satisfied that the views of that person or the objection or representation are frivolous or that such views have already been adequately stated by some other person at the inquiry.

(4) Subject as aforesaid, the procedure at the inquiry shall be in the discretion of the person holding it.

Consideration of objections

9. Before making the order the Secretary of State shall consider all objections duly made in accordance with regulation 6 above and not withdrawn and also the report and recommendations (if any) of the person holding any public inquiry in connection with the order.

Modifications

10. The Secretary of State may make the order with modifications (whether in consequence of any objections or otherwise), but where the modifications which the Secretary of State proposes to make appear to him substantially to affect the character of the order as drafted, then, before making the order, he shall take such steps as appear to him to be appropriate for informing the persons likely to be concerned of the effect of the proposed modifications and for giving to those persons an opportunity to make representations in connection therewith, and shall consider any such representations which are made to him.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations lay down the procedure to be followed by the Secretary of State in connection with the making of various types of traffic orders under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984, and under Section 36B of the Road Traffic Act 1972.

Regulation 3 specifies the orders to which the Regulations apply. These include traffic regulation orders, experimental traffic orders, speed limit orders and orders for exempting roads from the prohibition of the parking of vehicles on verges, central reservations and footways in respect of trunk roads, and orders being made in respect of non-trunk roads whether under sections 22 or 132 of the 1984 Act or under the reserve powers of the Secretary of State by virtue of paragraph 3 or under paragraph 7 of Schedule 9 to that Act.

Regulations 4 to 10 lay down the procedure to be followed before the order is made. They provide for preliminary consultations with the police (regulation 4), publication of the proposals (regulation 5), objections to the order (regulations 6 and 9), public inquiries (regulations 7 and 8) and the modification of proposals (regulation 10).

Provisions as to the making of the order and the subsequent procedure, including the publication of a notice of its making, the notification of the police, the local roads authority and objectors, and the provision of traffic signs, are contained in regulations 11 and 12.

Certain of the above-mentioned requirements are modified in relation to certain classes of order by virtue of regulations 13 and 14.

Schedules 1 to 3 contain particulars of the details to be included in the press notice of an order, of the requirements as to the display of notices of an order in the road itself, and of the requirements about making documents relating to an order available for public inspection. Schedule 4 relates specific unladen weight of vehicles to the corresponding maximum gross weight.
