15.—(1) This section applies to any person accused of an offence under the law of Anguilla who is returned to Anguilla as mentioned in section 14(1) of this Act.

Restoration of persons not tried or acquitted.

(2) If in the case of a person to whom this section applies, either—

- (a) proceedings against him for the offence for which he was returned are not begun within the period of six months beginning with the day of his arrival in Anguilla on being returned; or
- (b) on his trial for that offence, he is acquitted or discharged absolutely or conditionally, the Governor may, if he thinks fit, on the request of that person, arrange for him to be sent back free of charge and with as little delay as possible to the country from which he was returned.

SUPPLEMENTAL

19.—(1) In this Act the following expressions have the meanings hereby assigned to them, that is to say:—

Interpretation.

“Act” means, in relation to the United Kingdom, the Fugitive Offenders Act 1967 and, in relation to Anguilla or to any other United Kingdom dependency, that Act as extended to Anguilla or, as the case may be, to that other dependency;

“application for habeas corpus” means an application for a writ of habeas corpus ad subjiciendum;

“country” includes any territory;

“Court of Appeal” and “High Court” mean the Court of Appeal and the High Court established by the West Indies Associated States Supreme Court Order 1967(a);

“dealt with” means tried or returned or surrendered to any country or detained with a view to trial or with a view to such return or surrender;

“designated Commonwealth country” and “United Kingdom dependency” have the meanings assigned by section 2 of this Act;

“Governor”, in relation to Anguilla, means the Governor of Anguilla and includes any person or persons administering the government of Anguilla;

“Governor”, in relation to any country other than Anguilla, means the person or persons administering the government of that country;

“imprisonment” includes detention of any description;

“race” includes tribe;

“United Kingdom” includes the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man.

(2) For the purposes of this Act a person convicted of an offence in his absence shall be treated as a person accused of that offence.

20. Any power to make an order under this Act includes power to revoke or vary such an order by a subsequent order.

Power to revoke or vary orders.

21.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this section, the Fugitive Offenders Act, 1969 of Saint Christopher, Nevis and Anguilla(b) shall cease to have effect as part of the law of Anguilla.

Repeals and transitional provisions.

(2) The repeal effected by subsection (1) of this section shall not affect the operation of the said Act of 1969 in any case where, before the date on which that subsection comes into force, a warrant or provisional warrant issued under section 9 of that Act has been executed in Anguilla.

(3) Without prejudice to subsection (2) of this section, this Act applies to offences committed before as well as after the coming into force of this Act.

(a) S.I. 1967/223, applied to Anguilla by section 3(1) of the Anguilla Constitution Order 1982 (S.I. 1982/334).
(b) No. 1 of 1969.
