EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order increases the maximum amounts of candidates' election expenses at parliamentary elections in the United Kingdom (articles 2 and 3), local government elections in Great Britain (articles 4 and 5) and ward elections (article 6) and elections by liverymen in common hall (article 7) in the City of London.

The increases are such as are justified by the change in the value of money since the last occasions on which those maximum amounts were changed or fixed. In the case of elections to the Inner London Education Authority and elections by liverymen in common hall, that last occasion was 16th July 1985 when the Local Government Act 1985 and the Representation of the People Act 1985 (which Acts respectively established and amended the maximum amounts of election expenses for those elections) were enacted. As respects the other elections to which this Order relates, the last occasion was 1st March 1986 when the Representation of the People (Variation of Limits of Candidates' Election Expenses) Order 1986 was made. That Order is revoked by article 8 of this Order.

Except in the case of the election by liverymen in common hall, the maximum amount of a candidate's election expenses is made up of a fixed sum (expressed in pounds) plus a sum expressed in pence (and fractions of pence) for, in the case of parliamentary and local government elections, each entry in the register of electors or, in the case of ward elections in the City of London, each elector. The maximum amount of a candidate's election expenses at the election by liverymen in common hall is calculated by allowing an amount in pence (and fractions of pence) for every elector on the common hall register to be used at the election.
