EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations provide for the remission and repayment of certain charges which would otherwise be payable under the National Health Service Act 1977 and for the payment by the Secretary of State of travelling expenses incurred by a person attending a hospital or disablement services centre for treatment under the National Health Service.

Regulations 3 to 5 provide entitlement to full remission of charges and full payment of travelling expenses for persons who are in receipt of income support or family credit under the Social Security Act 1986. They also provide entitlement to full or partial remission, and full or part payment of travelling expenses, depending on the result of a calculation of a person's resources and requirements, and those of his immediate family, in accordance with regulation 6 of these Regulations and Schedule 1.

Regulation 3 provides that the relevant charges for entitlement to full remission are those made for pharmaceutical services under Part II of the Act, for the supply of drugs, medicines or appliances (such as wigs, fabric supports, surgical brassieres and elastic hosiery), and for dental treatment and dental appliances. It provides that the relevant travelling expenses are those incurred by a person attending a hospital or disablement services centre for treatment, and by a companion where it is necessary on medical grounds for that person to be accompanied.

Regulation 5 provides for partial remission of certain of the relevant charges (excluding, in particular, prescription charges for pharmaceutical services) and part payment of travelling expenses even though the person's weekly income resources, including those of his family, exceed his requirements, so long as his capital resources do not exceed the capital limit (£6,000). Under this regulation a person is entitled to the remission of any amount by which the charge exceeds 3 times his net resources (after deducting the amount of his requirements), and payment of the amount by which the travelling expenses incurred in any week exceed his net resources.

Regulation 6 provides for the calculation of resources and requirements to be made in accordance with Schedule 1, which applies, with specified modifications, the provisions of the Income Support (General) Regulations 1987 relating to income and capital and to applicable amounts in respect of a claimant and any member of his family.

Regulation 7 provides for a claim to be made to the Secretary of State, and for the Secretary of State to determine entitlement and to issue a notice of entitlement. It provides that the notice of entitlement is effective in respect of the claimant and any member of his family, for any remission of the relevant charges and any payment of travelling expenses to which they are entitled during the period of validity of the notice (6 months).

Regulation 8 makes provision for a person to claim the repayment of any relevant charge or travelling expenses which he has already paid, by applying for repayment within one month after making that payment.

Regulation 9 makes transitional provisions relating to applications and remissions under previous Regulations.

Regulation 10 provides for the revocation, in accordance with Schedule 2, of Regulations which are superseded by these Regulations.
