CONTAMINATION OF FOOD

The Food Protection (Emergency Prohibitions) (Wales)
(No.5) Amendment Order 1988

Made - - - -	7th January 1988
Laid before Parliament	8th January 1988
Coming into force	11th January 1988

Whereas the Secretary of State is of the opinion, as mentioned in section 1(1)(a) of the Food and Environment Protection Act 1985(a), that there has been or may have been an escape of substances of such descriptions and in such quantities and such circumstances as are likely to create a hazard to human health through human consumption of food;

And whereas the Secretary of State is of the opinion, as mentioned in section 1(1)(b) of the said Act, that in consequence of the said escape of substances food which is or may be in the future in the areas described in the Schedule to the Food Protection (Emergency Prohibitions) (Wales) (No.5) Order 1987(b), or which is derived or may be in the future derived from anything in those areas, is, or may be, or may become, unsuitable for human consumption;

Now, therefore, the Secretary of State, in exercise of the powers conferred on him by the said section 1(1) and (2) and section 24(1) and (3) of the said Act, and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, hereby makes the following Order:-

Title and commencement

1. This Order may be cited as the Food Protection (Emergency Prohibitions) (Wales) (No.5) Amendment Order 1988 and shall come into force on 11th January 1988.

Partial revocation and amendment

2. The Food Protection (Emergency Prohibitions) (Wales) (No.5) Order 1987 is revoked to the extent that it imposes prohibitions on-

- (a) the slaughter of a sheep which was moved from any place in accordance with a consent given under section 2(1) of the Food and Environment Protection Act 1985 on or before 27th September 1987 which consent was subject to the condition that the sheep to which it applies should be marked with a green mark; and
- (b) the slaughter of a sheep which-

(a) 1985 c. 48.
(b) S.I. 1987/1894.

- (i) is moved from a place in accordance with such a consent given on or after 11th January 1988 which consent is subject to the condition that the sheep to which it applies should be marked with an apricot mark; and
 - (ii) has been examined and marked with an ear-tag by a person authorised in that behalf by one of the Ministers; and
 - (c) in either case, the supply or having in possession for supply of meat, or food containing meat, derived from such a sheep,
- and accordingly that Order is amended in accordance with the following provisions of this Order.

3. In article 6, for paragraph (2) there shall be substituted the following paragraph—

“(2) Paragraph (1) above shall not apply in the case of—

- (a) any sheep which was moved to a market in accordance with a consent given under section 2(1) of the Act which consent did not require that the sheep to which it applies should be marked in a manner specified therein;
- (b) any sheep which was moved from any place in accordance with a consent given under the said section 2(1) on or before 21st December 1986 which consent was subject to the condition that the sheep to which it applies should be marked with a blue mark;
- (c) any sheep which was moved from any place in accordance with a consent given under the said section 2(1) on or before 26th July 1987 which consent was subject to the condition that the sheep to which it applies should be marked with an apricot mark;
- (d) any sheep which was moved from any place in accordance with a consent given under the said section 2(1) on or before 27th September 1987 which consent was subject to the condition that the sheep to which it applies should be marked with a green mark; or
- (e) any sheep which—
 - (i) was moved from any place in accordance with a consent given under the said section 2(1) which consent was subject to the condition that the sheep to which it applies should be marked with a red mark;
 - (ii) was moved from any place in accordance with such a consent given on or after 28th September 1987 which consent was subject to the condition that the sheep to which it applies should be marked with a blue mark; or
 - (iii) is moved from any place in accordance with such a consent given on or after 11th January 1988 which consent is subject to the condition that the sheep to which it applies should be marked with an apricot mark, and which, in each case, has been examined and marked with an ear-tag by a person authorised in that behalf by one of the Ministers.”

Signed by authority of the Secretary of State for Wales

7th January 1988

Ian Grist
Parliamentary Under-Secretary of State, Welsh Office

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

The Food Protection (Emergency Prohibitions) (Wales) (No.5) Order 1987 contains emergency prohibitions restricting various activities in order to prevent human consumption of food which has been or which may have been rendered unsuitable for that purpose in consequence of the escape of radioactive substances from a nuclear reactor situated at Chernobyl in the USSR.

This Order excepts from the prohibition on slaughter throughout the United Kingdom any sheep, and from the prohibition on supply throughout the United Kingdom any meat derived from such a sheep,

- (a) identified by a green paint mark and which has been moved in accordance with a Ministerial consent given on or before 27th September 1987; or
- (b) identified by an apricot paint mark and which is moved in accordance with a Ministerial consent given on or after 11th January 1988 and which has been examined and marked with an ear-tag by a person authorised by the Minister of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food, the Secretary of State for Scotland, the Secretary of State for Wales or the Department of Agriculture for Northern Ireland.
