IMMIGRATION

The Immigration (Variation of Leave) (Amendment) Order 1989

Made - - - - - 14th June 1989

Coming into force - - - - - 8th July 1989

In exercise of the powers conferred upon me by sections 3(3)(a), 4(1) and 32(1) of the Immigration Act 1971(1), I hereby make the following Order:

1. This Order may be cited as the Immigration (Variation of Leave) (Amendment) Order 1989 and shall come into force on 8th July 1989.
2. The Immigration (Variation of Leave) Order 1976(2) shall be varied as follows:
 - (a) in article 3(1), for the words after “twenty-eighth day after”, there shall be substituted the words “either the date of the decision on the application or, if the application is withdrawn, the date of the withdrawal of the application.”; and
 - (b) in article 3(2)(c), at the end there shall be added the words “and he has no other concurrent period of leave.”.

Douglas Hurd
One of Her Majesty’s Principal Secretaries of State

(1) 1971 c. 77.
(2) S.I.1976/1572.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order varies the Immigration (Variation of Leave) Order 1976 in two respects.

It provides that where a person who has applied for a variation of his current limited leave under the Immigration Act 1971 to enter or remain in the United Kingdom withdraws that application, the duration of his leave shall be extended for a period of 28 days after the date of the withdrawal.

It also provides that article 3(2)(c) of the 1976 Order does not exclude from the benefit of that Order a person who applies for a variation of his current limited leave where such leave has been granted by an immigration officer or the Secretary of State and is concurrent with an extension of leave which has effect by virtue of that Order.
