Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

Section 57(4) of the Adoption Act 1976 disapplies the prohibition of payments in connection with adoption arrangements where a scheme for payment has been submitted to the Secretary of State by an adoption agency and approved. Section 57(7) provides for subsection (4) to expire on the seventh anniversary of the date on which section 32 of the Children Act 1975 came into force (15th February 1982) unless the Secretary of State repeals subsection (7) prior to the said anniversary.

The power to repeal subsection (7) is contained in section 57(8) and is exercisable only in connection with the publication of a report under section 57(6) on the operation of the said schemes. Such a report has been published under the title “Adoption Allowances in England and Wales: The Early Years” and can be obtained from HMSO Publications Centre, P.O. Box 276, London, SW8 5DT.
