EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order amends the Plant Health (Forestry) (Great Britain) Order 1989 by–

- (a) altering the definition of “importer” to make it clear that this term applies only to a person in possession or entitled to custody or control of any tree, wood etc. which is likely to be or has been landed in Great Britain;
- (b) adding to the list of tree pests set out in Schedule 1 Part I of the principal Order, the tree pest Monochamus spp. (non-European), the landing of which in Great Britain is now prohibited;
- (c) extending the controls over the landing in Great Britain of the wood of conifers and of dunnage, pallets and packing material thereof from non-European countries to require that such material shall be free from Monochamus spp. and their bore holes.
