(3) The notice may be withdrawn at any time by notice in writing served on the landlord.

(4) Where the dwelling-house is occupied by two or more qualifying persons as joint tenants the right to buy may be exercised by such one or more of them as may be agreed between them.

124 Landlord's notice admitting or denying right to buy.

(1) Where a notice under section 122 (notice claiming to exercise right to buy) has been served by the qualifying person, the landlord shall, unless the notice is withdrawn, serve on the qualifying person within the period specified in subsection (2) a written notice either—

- (a) admitting his right, or
- (b) denying it and stating the reasons why, in the opinion of the landlord, the qualifying person does not have the right to buy.

(2) The period for serving a notice under this section is four weeks where the requirement of section 119 (qualifying period for the right to buy) is satisfied by a period or periods during which the landlord was the landlord on which the qualifying person's notice under section 122 was served, and eight weeks in any other case.

125 Landlord's notice of purchase price and other matters.

(1) Where a qualifying person has claimed to exercise the right to buy and that right has been established (whether by the landlord's admission or otherwise), the landlord shall—the notice shall also contain the estimates and other information required by section 125A (service charges) or 125B (improvement contributions).

(4A) The notice shall contain a description of any structural defect known to the landlord affecting the dwelling-house or the building in which it is situated or any other building over which the qualifying person will have rights under the conveyance or lease.

125A. A landlord's notice under section 125 shall state as regards service charges (excluding, in the case of a flat, charges to which subsection (2) applies)—

- (a) the landlord's estimate of the average annual amount (at current prices) which would be payable in respect of each head of charge in the reference period, and
- (b) the aggregate of those estimated amounts, and shall contain a statement of the reference period adopted for the purpose of the estimates.

(2) A landlord's notice under section 125 given in respect of a flat shall, as regards service charges in respect of repairs (including works for the making good of structural defects), contain—

- (a) the estimates required by subsection (3), together with a statement of the reference period adopted for the purpose of the estimates, and
- (b) a statement of the effect of—paragraph 16B of Schedule 6 (which restricts by reference to the estimates the amounts payable by the tenant).

(3) The following estimates are required for works in respect of which the landlord considers that costs may be incurred in the reference period—

- (a) for works itemised in the notice, estimates of the amount (at current prices) of the likely cost of, and of the qualifying person's likely contribution in respect of, each item, and the aggregate amounts of those estimated costs and contributions, and
- (b) for works not so itemised, an estimate of the average annual amount (at current prices) which the landlord considers is likely to be payable by the qualifying person.

 - (b) the aggregate amounts of those estimated costs and contributions.

125C Reference period for purposes of ss. 125A and 125B.

125C. The reference period for the purposes of the estimates required by section 125A or 125B is the period—

- (a) beginning on such date not more than six months after the notice is given as the landlord may reasonably specify as being a date by which the conveyance will have been made or the lease granted, and
 - (b) ending five years after that date or, where the notice states that the conveyance or lease will provide for a service charge or improvement contribution to be calculated by reference to a specified annual period, with the end of the fifth such period beginning after that date.
- (2) For the purpose of the estimates it shall be assumed that the conveyance will be made or the lease granted at the beginning of the reference period on the terms stated in the notice.

Purchase Price

126 Purchase Price.

- (1) The price payable for a dwelling-house on a conveyance or grant in pursuance of this Part is—
 - (a) the amount which under section 127 is to be taken as its value at the relevant time, less
 - (b) the discount to which the purchaser is entitled under this Part.
- (2) References in this Part to the purchase price include references to the consideration for the grant of a lease.

127 Value of dwelling-house.

- (1) The value of a dwelling-house at the relevant time shall be taken to be the price which at that time it would realise if sold on the open market by a willing vendor—
 - (a) on the assumptions stated for a conveyance in subsection (2) and for a grant in subsection (3),
 - (b) disregarding any improvements made by any of the persons specified in subsection (4) and any failure by any of those persons to keep the dwelling-house in good internal repair, and
 - (c) on the assumption that any service charges or improvement contributions payable will not be less than the amounts to be expected in accordance with the estimates contained in the landlord's notice under section 125.
- (2) For the conveyance the assumptions are—
 - (a) that the vendor was selling for an estate in fee simple with vacant possession,
 - (b) that neither the qualifying person nor a member of his family residing with him wanted to buy, and

- (c) that the dwelling-house was to be conveyed with the same rights and subject to the same burdens as it would be in pursuance of this Part.
- (3) For the grant of a lease the assumptions are—
 - (a) that the vendor was granting a lease with vacant possession for the appropriate term defined in paragraph 12 of Schedule 6 (but subject to sub-paragraph (3) of that paragraph),
 - (b) that neither the qualifying person nor a member of his family residing with him wanted to take the lease,
 - (c) that the ground rent would not exceed £10 per annum, and
 - (d) that the grant was to be made with the same rights and subject to the same burdens as it would be in pursuance of this Part.
- (4) The persons referred to in subsection (1)(b) are—
 - (a) the qualifying person or, where the qualifying person is a qualifying successor, the person who was the qualifying person before him,
 - (b) where the qualifying person is the former secure tenant, any person who, under the same tenancy, was a secure tenant before him, and
 - (c) where the qualifying person is the former secure tenant, any member of his family who, immediately before the grant of the secure tenancy, was the secure tenant of the same dwelling-house under another tenancy, but do not include, in a case where the qualifying person is a former secure tenant whose tenancy has at any time been assigned by virtue of section 92 (assignments by way of exchange), a person who under that tenancy was a secure tenant before the assignment.

128 Determination of value by district valuer.

(1) Any question arising under this Part as to the value of a dwelling-house at the relevant time shall be determined by the district valuer in accordance with this section.

(2) A qualifying person may require that value to be determined, or as the case may be re-determined, by a notice in writing served on the landlord not later than three months after the service on him of the notice under section 125 (landlord's notice of purchase price and other matters) or, if proceedings are then pending between the landlord and the qualifying person for the determination of any other question arising under this Part, within three months of the final determination of the proceedings.

- (3) If such proceedings are begun after a previous determination under this section—
 - (a) the qualifying person may, by notice in writing served on the landlord within four weeks of the final determination of the proceedings, require the value of the dwelling-house at the relevant time to be re-determined, and
 - (b) the landlord may at any time within those four weeks, whether or not a notice under paragraph (a) is served, require the district valuer to re-determine that value;

and where the landlord requires a re-determination to be made in pursuance of this subsection, it shall serve on the qualifying person a notice stating that the requirement is being or has been made.

(4) Before making a determination or re-determination in pursuance of this section, the district valuer shall consider any representation made to him by the landlord or the qualifying person within four weeks from the service of the qualifying person's notice under this section, or as the case may be, from the service of the landlord's notice under subsection (3).

(5) As soon as practicable after a determination or re-determination has been made in pursuance of this section, the landlord shall serve on the qualifying person a notice stating the effect of the determination or re-determination and the matters mentioned in section 125(2) and (3) (terms for exercise of right to buy).

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

(6) A notice under subsection (5) shall inform the qualifying person of the effect of sections 140, 141(1), (2) and (4) and 142(1) and (2) (landlord's notices to complete, effect of failure to comply and right to defer completion).

129 Discount.

(1) Subject to the following provisions of this Part, a person exercising the right to buy is entitled to a discount of a percentage calculated by reference to the period which is to be taken into account in accordance with Schedule 4 (qualifying period for right to buy and discount).

(2) The discount is—

- (a) in the case of a house, 32 per cent. plus one per cent. for each complete year by which the qualifying period exceeds two years, up to a maximum of 60 per cent.;
- (b) in the case of a flat, 44 per cent. plus two per cent. for each complete year by which the qualifying period exceeds two years, up to a maximum of 70 per cent.

(3) Where joint tenants exercise the right to buy, Schedule 4 shall be construed as if for the qualifying person there were substituted that one of the joint tenants whose substitution will produce the largest discount.

130 Reduction of discount where previous discount given.

(1) There shall be deducted from the discount an amount equal to any previous discount qualifying, or the aggregate of previous discounts qualifying, under the provisions of this section.

(2) A “previous discount” means a discount given before the relevant time—

- (a) on conveyance of the freehold, or a grant or assignment of a long lease of a dwelling-house by a person within para 7 or 7A of Schedule 4 (public sector landlords), or
- (aa) on conveyance of the freehold, or a grant or assignment of a long lease of a dwelling-house by a person against whom the right to buy was exercisable by virtue of section 171A (preservation of right to buy on disposal to private sector landlord) to a person who was a qualifying person for the purposes of the preserved right to buy and in relation to whom that dwelling-house was the qualifying dwelling-house, or
- (b) in pursuance of the provision required by paragraph 1 of Schedule 8 (terms of shared ownership lease: right to acquire additional shares), or any other provision to the like effect.

(3) A previous discount qualifies for the purposes of this section if it was given—

- (a) to the person or one of the persons exercising the right to buy, or
- (b) to the spouse of that person or one of those persons (if they are living together at the relevant time), or
- (c) to a deceased spouse of that person or one of those persons (if they were living together at the time of the death); and where a previous discount was given to two or more persons jointly, this section has effect as if each of them had been given an equal proportion of the discount.

(4) Where the whole or part of a previous discount has been recovered by the person by whom it was given (or a successor in title of his)—

- (a) by the receipt of a payment determined by reference to the discount, or
- (b) by a reduction so determined of any consideration given by that person (or a successor in title of his), or
- (c) in any other way, then, so much of the discount as has been so recovered shall be disregarded for the purposes of this section.

(6) In this section “dwelling-house” includes any yard, garden, outhouses and appurtenances belonging to the dwelling-house or usually enjoyed with it.

131 Limits on amount of discount

131. Unless the landlord otherwise agrees—

- (a) the discount shall not reduce the price below the amount which, in accordance with Schedule 5A, is to be taken as representing the costs incurred by the landlord in respect of the dwelling-house and is to be treated as relevant for the purposes of this section;
- (b) if the price before discount is below that amount, there shall be no discount; and
- (c) the discount shall not in any case reduce the price by more than £35,000.

Change of qualifying person or landlord after service of notice claiming right to buy 136 Change of qualifying person after notice claiming right to buy.

(1) Where, after a qualifying person has given a notice claiming the right to buy, a qualifying successor becomes the qualifying person in relation to the dwelling-house, the qualifying successor shall be in the same position as if the notice had been given by him and he had been the qualifying person at the time it was given.

(2) If a notice under section 125 (landlord’s notice of purchase price and other matters) has been served on the former qualifying person, the landlord shall serve on the new qualifying person a notice informing him of the effect of sections 140, 141(1), (2) and (4) and 142(1) and (2) (landlord’s notices to complete, effect of failure to comply and right to defer completion).

(3) The new qualifying person may then serve a notice under section 142(1)(b) (qualifying person’s notice claiming to exercise right to defer completion) within three months beginning with service on him of the landlord’s notice under subsection (2) or within that period as extended in writing by the landlord.

(6) The preceding provisions of this section do not confer any right on a person required in pursuance of section 123 (claim to share right to buy with members of family) to share the right to buy, unless he could have been validly so required had the notice claiming to exercise the right to buy been given by the new qualifying person.

(7) The preceding provisions of this section apply with the necessary modifications if there is a further change in the person who is the qualifying person.

137 Change of landlord after notice claiming right to buy.

(1) Where, other than in a case to which section 171D(1)(a) or section 171E(2)(a) applies (disposal to authority or body satisfying landlord condition for secure tenancies), the interest of the landlord in the dwelling-house passes from the landlord to another person after a qualifying person has given a notice claiming to exercise the right to buy, all parties shall subject to subsection (2) be in the same position as if the other person had become the landlord before the notice was given and had given that notice and any further notice given by the qualifying person to the landlord and had taken all steps which the landlord had taken.

(2) If the circumstances after the disposal differ in any material respect, as for example where—

- (a) the interest of the donee in the dwelling-house after the disposal differs from that of the donor before the disposal, or

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

- (c) any of the provisions of Schedule 5 (exceptions to the right to buy) becomes or ceases to become applicable, all those concerned shall, as soon as practicable after the disposal, take all such steps (whether by way of amending or withdrawing and re-serving any notice or extending any period or otherwise) as may be requisite for the purpose of securing that all parties are, as nearly as may be, in the same position as they would have been if those circumstances had obtained before the disposal.

Completion of purchase in pursuance of right to buy

138 Duty of landlord to convey freehold or grant lease.

(1) Where a qualifying person has claimed to exercise the right to buy and that right has been established, then, as soon as all matters relating to the grant have been agreed or determined, the landlord shall make to the qualifying person—

- (a) if the dwelling-house is a house and the landlord owns the freehold, a grant of the dwelling-house for an estate in fee simple absolute, or
- (b) if the landlord does not own the freehold or if the dwelling-house is a flat (whether or not the landlord owns the freehold), a grant of a lease of the dwelling-house, in accordance with the following provisions of this Part.

(2) If the qualifying person has failed to pay the rent or any other payment due from him as a tenant for a period of four weeks after it has been lawfully demanded from him, the landlord is not bound to comply with subsection (1) while the whole or part of that payment remains outstanding.

(3) The duty imposed on the landlord by subsection (1) is enforceable by injunction.

139 Terms and effect of conveyance or grant.

(1) A conveyance of the freehold executed in pursuance of the right to buy shall conform with Parts I and II of Schedule 6; a grant of a lease so executed shall conform with Parts I and III of that Schedule; and Part IV of that Schedule has effect in relation to certain charges.

(2) The tenancy held by the qualifying person comes to an end on the grant to him of an estate in fee simple, or of a lease, in pursuance of the provisions of this Part; and if there is then a subtenancy section 139 of the Law of Property Act 1925 (effect of extinguishment of reversion) applies as on a merger or surrender.

140 Landlord's first notice to complete.

(1) The landlord may, subject to the provisions of this section, serve on the qualifying person at any time a written notice requiring him—

- (a) if all relevant matters have been agreed or determined, to complete the transaction within a period stated in the notice, or
- (b) if any relevant matters are outstanding, to serve on the landlord within that period a written notice to that effect specifying the matters, and informing the qualifying person of the effect of this section and of section 141(1), (2) and (4) (landlord's second notice to complete).

(2) The period stated in a notice under this section shall be such period (of at least 56 days) as may be reasonable in the circumstances.

(3) A notice under this section shall not be served earlier than one year after the service on the qualifying person of—

- (a) where he exercises his right under section 128 (determination of value by district valuer), the notice under subsection (5) of that section (further notice by landlord after determination), or
- (b) where he does not exercise that right, the notice under section 125 (landlord's notice of purchase price and other matters).

(3A) Where the qualifying person is entitled to defer completion, a notice under this section shall not be served earlier than three years after service of the notice under section 122 (qualifying person's notice claiming to exercise right to buy), if that period expires after whichever is applicable of the periods specified in subsection (3).

- (4) A notice under this section shall not be served if—
 - (b) proceedings for the determination of any relevant matter have not been disposed of, or
 - (c) any relevant matter stated to be outstanding in a written notice served on the landlord by the qualifying person has not been agreed in writing or determined.
- (5) In this section “relevant matters” means matters relating to the grant.

141 Landlord's second notice to complete.

(1) If the qualifying person does not comply with a notice under section 140 (landlord's first notice to complete), the landlord may serve on him a further written notice—

- (a) requiring him to complete the transaction within a period stated in the notice, and
- (b) informing him of the effect of this section in the event of his failing to comply.

(2) The period stated in a notice under this section shall be such period (of at least 56 days) as may be reasonable in the circumstances.

(3) At any time before the end of that period (or that period as previously extended) the landlord may by a written notice served on the qualifying person extend it (or further extend it).

(4) If the qualifying person does not comply with a notice under this section the notice claiming to exercise the right to buy shall be deemed to be withdrawn at the end of that period (or as the case may require, that period as extended under subsection (3)).

(5) If a notice under this section has been served on the qualifying person and by virtue of section 138(2) (failure of qualifying person to pay rent, etc) the landlord is not bound to complete, the qualifying person shall be deemed not to comply with the notice.

142 When qualifying person is entitled to defer completion.

- (1) A qualifying person is entitled to defer completion if—
 - (a) his reckonable amount calculated in accordance with Schedule 7A (or the aggregate of such amounts where the right to buy is being exercised by more than one person) is less than the purchase price of the dwelling-house;
 - (b) he has, within the period mentioned below, served on the landlord a notice claiming to exercise the right to defer completion; and
 - (c) he has, within the same period, deposited the sum of £150 with the landlord.

(2) The notice must be served and the sum of £150 deposited within the period of three months beginning with the service on the qualifying person—

- (a) where he exercises his right under section 128 (determination of value by district valuer), of the notice under subsection (5) of that section (further notice by landlord after determination), or

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

(b) where he does not exercise that right, of the notice under section 125 (landlord's notice of purchase price and other matters), or within that period as extended in writing by the landlord.

(3) Where a qualifying person has served on the landlord a notice under subsection (1)(b), the landlord shall, as soon as practicable after the date on which the notice is served, serve on the qualifying person a notice either—

- (a) admitting the qualifying person's right to defer completion, or
- (b) denying it and stating the reasons why, in the landlord's opinion, the qualifying person does not have the right.

(4) If in pursuance of a notice under this section the qualifying person deposits the sum of £150 with the landlord, then—

- (a) if he completes the transaction, the sum shall be treated as having been paid towards the purchase price, and
- (b) if he does not complete the transaction but withdraws his notice claiming to exercise the right to buy, or is deemed to have withdrawn it by virtue of section 141(4) (effect of failure to comply with landlord's second notice to complete), the sum shall be returned to him.

153A Qualifying person's notices of delay.

(1) Where a qualifying person has claimed to exercise the right to buy, he may serve on his landlord a notice (in this section referred to as an "initial notice of delay") in any of the following cases, namely,—

- (a) where the landlord has failed to serve a notice under section 124 within the period appropriate under subsection (2) of that section;
- (b) where the tenant's right to buy has been established and the landlord has failed to serve a notice under section 125 within the period appropriate under subsection (1) of that section; or
- (e) where the tenant considers that delays on the part of the landlord are preventing him from exercising expeditiously his right to buy; and where an initial notice of delay specifies either of the cases in paragraphs (a) and (b) any reference in this section or section 153B to the default date is a reference to the end of the period referred to in the paragraph in question.

(2) An initial notice of delay—

- (a) shall specify the most recent action of which the qualifying person is aware which has been taken by the landlord pursuant of this Part of this Act; and
- (b) shall specify a period (in this section referred to as "the response period"), not being less than one month, beginning on the date of service of the notice, within which the service by the landlord of a counter notice under subsection (3) will have the effect of cancelling the initial notice of delay.

(3) Within the response period specified in an initial notice of delay or at any time thereafter, the landlord may serve on the qualifying person a counter notice in either of the following circumstances—

- (a) if the initial notice specifies either of the cases in paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (1) and the landlord has served, or is serving together with the counter notice, the required notice under section 124 or section 125, as the case may be; or
- (b) if the initial notice specifies the case in subsection (1)(e) and there is no action under this Part which, at the beginning of the response period, it was for the landlord to take in order to allow the qualifying person expeditiously to exercise his right to buy and which remains to be taken at the time of service of the counter notice.

(4) A counter notice under subsection (3) shall specify the circumstances by virtue of which it is served.

(5) At any time when—

- (a) the response period specified in an initial notice of delay has expired, and
- (b) the landlord has not served a counter notice under subsection (3), the qualifying person may serve on the landlord a notice (in this section and section 153B referred to as an “operative notice of delay”) which shall state that section 153B will apply to payments of rent made by the qualifying person on or after the default date or, if the initial notice of delay specified the case in subsection (1)(e), the date of the service of the notice.

(6) If, after a qualifying person has served an initial notice of delay, a counter notice has been served under subsection (3), then, whether or not the qualifying person has also served an operative notice of delay, if any of the cases in subsection (1) again arises, the qualifying person may serve a further initial notice of delay and the provisions of this section shall apply again accordingly.

153B Payments of rent attributable to purchase price etc.

(1) Where a qualifying person has served on his landlord an operative notice of delay, this section applies to any payment of rent which is made on or after the default date or, as the case may be, the date of the service of the notice and before the occurrence of any of the following events (and, if more than one event occurs, before the earliest to occur)—

- (a) the service by the landlord of a counter notice under section 153A(3);
- (b) the date on which the landlord makes to the qualifying person the grant required by section 138;
- (d) the date on which the qualifying person withdraws or is deemed to have withdrawn the notice claiming to exercise the right to buy; and
- (e) the date on which the qualifying person ceases to be entitled to exercise the right to buy.

(2) Except where this section ceases to apply on a date determined under paragraph (d) or (e) of subsection (1), so much of any payment of rent to which this section applies as does not consist of—

- (a) a sum due on account of rates, or
- (b) a service charge (as defined in section 621A), shall be treated not only as a payment of rent but also as a payment on account by the qualifying person which is to be taken into account in accordance with subsection (3).

(3) In a case where subsection (2) applies, the amount which, apart from this section, would be the purchase price shall be reduced by an amount equal to the aggregate of—

- (a) the total of any payments on account treated as having been paid by the qualifying person by virtue of subsection (2); and
- (b) if those payments on account are derived from payments of rent referable to a period of more than twelve months, a sum equal to the appropriate percentage of the total referred to in paragraph (a).

(4) In subsection (3)(b) “the appropriate percentage” means 50 per cent.

Registration of title

154 Registration of title.

(1) Where the landlord's title to the dwelling-house is not registered, section 123 of the Land Registration Act 1925 (compulsory registration of title) applies in relation to—

(a) the conveyance of the freehold or the grant of a lease in pursuance of this Part, whether or not the dwelling-house is in an area in which an Order in Council under section 120 of that Act is for the time being in force (areas of compulsory registration) and, in the case of a lease, whether or not the lease is granted for a term of more than 21 years.

(2) Where the landlord's title to the dwelling-house is not registered, the landlord shall give the qualifying person a certificate stating that the landlord is entitled to convey the freehold or make the grant subject only to such incumbrances, rights and interests as are stated in the conveyance or grant or summarised in the certificate.

(3) Where the landlord's interest in the dwelling-house is a lease, the certificate under subsection (2) shall also state particulars of that lease and, with respect to each superior title—

- (a) where it is registered, the title number;
- (b) where it is not registered, whether it was investigated in the usual way on the grant of the landlord's lease.

(4) A certificate under subsection (2) shall be—

- (a) in a form approved by the Chief Land Registrar, and
- (b) signed by such officer of the landlord or such other person as may be approved by the Chief Land Registrar.

(5) The Chief Land Registrar shall, for the purpose of the registration of title, accept such a certificate as sufficient evidence of the facts stated in it; but if as a result he has to meet a claim against him under the Land Registration Acts 1925 to 1986 the landlord is liable to indemnify him.

(6) Sections 8 and 22 of the Land Registration Act 1925 (application for registration of leasehold land and registration of dispositions of leasehold) apply in relation to a lease granted in pursuance of this Part notwithstanding that it is a lease for a term of which not more than 21 years are unexpired or, as the case may be, a lease granted for a term not exceeding 21 years.

Provisions affecting future disposals

155 Repayment of discount on early disposal.

(1) A conveyance of the freehold or grant of a lease in pursuance of this Part may, at the discretion of the landlord, contain, unless there is no discount, a covenant binding on the qualifying person and his successors in title to the following effect, but not one the effect of which would be more onerous.

(2) The covenant shall be to pay to the landlord on demand, if within a period of three years there is a relevant disposal which is not an exempted disposal (but if there is more than one such disposal, then only on the first of them), the discount to which the qualifying person was entitled, reduced by one third for each complete year which has elapsed after the conveyance or grant and before the disposal.

(3A) Where a qualifying person has served on his landlord an operative notice of delay, as defined in section 153A—

- (a) the three years referred to in subsection (2) shall begin from a date which precedes the date of the conveyance of the freehold or grant of the lease by a period equal to the time (or, if there is more than one such notice, the aggregate of the times) during which, by virtue of section 153B, any payment of rent fails to be taken into account in accordance with subsection (3) of that section.

156 Liability to repay is a charge on the premises.

(1) The liability that may arise under the covenant imposed by virtue of section 155 is a charge on the dwelling-house, taking effect as if it had been created by deed expressed to be by way of legal mortgage.

(2) The charge has priority immediately after any legal charge securing an amount—

- (a) advanced to the qualifying person for the purpose of enabling him to exercise the right to buy, or
- (b) further advanced to him by the person who made that advance.

(3) A charge taking effect by virtue of this section is a land charge for the purposes of section 59 of the Land Registration Act 1925 notwithstanding subsection (5) of that section (exclusion of mortgages), and subsection (2) of that section applies accordingly with respect to its protection and realisation.

(3A) The covenant imposed by virtue of section 155 (covenant for repayment of discount) does not, by virtue of its binding successors in title of the qualifying person, bind a person exercising rights under a charge having priority over the charge taking effect by virtue of this section, or a person deriving title under him; and a provision of the conveyance or grant, or of a collateral agreement, is void in so far as it purports to authorise a forfeiture, or to impose a penalty or disability, in the event of any such person failing to comply with that covenant.

157 Restriction on disposal of dwelling-houses in National Parks, etc.

(1) Where in pursuance of this Part a conveyance or grant is executed by a housing association (“the landlord”) of a dwelling-house situated in—

- (a) a National Park,
- (b) an area designated under section 87 of the National Parks and Access to the countryside Act 1949 as an area of outstanding beauty, or
- (c) an area designated by order of the Secretary of State as a rural area, the conveyance or grant may contain a covenant limiting the freedom of the qualifying person (including any successor in title of his and any person deriving title under him or such a successor) to dispose of the dwelling-house in the manner specified below.

(2) The limitation is, subject to subsection (4), that until such time (if any) as may be notified in writing by the landlord to the qualifying person or a successor in title of his—

- (a) there will be no relevant disposal which is not an exempted disposal without the written consent of the landlord; but that consent shall not be withheld if the disposal is to a person satisfying the condition stated in subsection (3); and
- (b) there will be no disposal by way of tenancy or licence without the written consent of the landlord unless the disposal is to a person satisfying that condition or by a person whose only or principal home is and, throughout the duration of the tenancy or licence, remains the dwelling-house.

(3) The condition is that the person to whom the disposal is made (or, if it is made to more than one person, at least one of them) has, throughout the period of three years immediately preceding the application for consent or, in the case of a disposal by way of tenancy or licence, preceding the disposal —

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

(a) had his place of work in a region designated by order of the Secretary of State which, or part of which, is comprised in the National Park or area, or

(b) had his only or principal home in such a region;

or has had the one in part or parts of that period and the other in the remainder; but the region need not have been the same throughout the period.

(4) If the Housing Corporation consents, the limitations specified in subsection (2) may be replaced by the following limitation, that is to say, that until the end of the period of ten years beginning with the conveyance or grant there will be no relevant disposal which is not an exempted disposal, unless in relation to that or a previous such disposal—

(a) the qualifying person (or his successor in title or the person deriving title under him or his successor) has offered to reconvey the dwelling-house, or as the case may be surrender the lease, to the landlord for such consideration as is mentioned in section 158, and

(b) the landlord has refused the offer or has failed to accept it within one month after it was made.

(5) The consent of the Housing Corporation under subsection (4) may be given subject to such conditions as the Corporation thinks fit.

(6) A disposal in breach of such a covenant as is mentioned in subsection (1) is void and, so far as it relates to disposals by way of tenancy or licence, such a conveyance may be enforced by the landlord as if—

(a) the landlord were possessed of land adjacent to the house concerned; and

(b) the covenant were expressed to be made for the benefit such adjacent land.

(6A) Any reference in the preceding provisions of this section to a disposal by way of tenancy or licence does not include a reference to a relevant disposal or an exempted disposal.

(7) Where such a covenant imposes the limitation specified in subsection (2), the limitation is a local land charge and the Chief Land Registrar shall enter the appropriate restriction on the register of title as if application therefor had been made under section 58 of the Land Registration Act 1925.

(8) An order under this section—

(a) may make different provision with respect to different cases or descriptions of case, including different provision for different areas, and

(b) shall be made by statutory instrument which shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution by either House of Parliament.

158 Consideration for re-conveyance or surrender under s. 157.

(1) The consideration for the offer by a qualifying person (or his successor in title or a person deriving title under him or his successor), referred to in section 157(4)(a), to reconvey or surrender his interest to the landlord shall be such amount as may be agreed between the parties or determined by the district valuer as being the amount which is to be taken as the value of the dwelling-house at the time the offer is made.

(2) That value shall be taken to be the price which, at that time, the interest to be reconveyed or surrendered would realise if sold on the open market by a willing vendor, on the assumption that any liability under—

(a) a covenant imposed by virtue of section 155 (repayment of discount on early disposal), would be discharged by the vendor.

(3) If the landlord accepts the offer, no payment shall be required in pursuance of any such covenant as is mentioned in subsection (2), but the consideration shall be reduced subject to subsection (4) by such amount (if any) as, on a disposal made at the time the offer was made, being a relevant disposal which is not an exempted disposal, would fall to be paid under that covenant.

(4) Where there is a charge on the dwelling-house having priority over the charge to secure payment of the sum due under the covenant mentioned in subsection (2), the consideration shall not be reduced under subsection (3) below the amount necessary to discharge the outstanding sum secured by the first-mentioned charge at the date of the offer to reconvey or surrender.

159 Relevant disposals.

(1) A disposal, whether of the whole or part of the dwelling-house, is a relevant disposal for the purposes of this Part if it is—

- (a) a further conveyance of the freehold or an assignment of the lease, or
- (b) the grant of a lease (other than a mortgage term) for a term of more than 21 years otherwise than at a rack rent.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1)(b) it shall be assumed—

- (a) that any option to renew or extend a lease or sub-lease, whether or not forming part of a series of options, is exercised, and
- (b) that any option to terminate a lease or sub-lease is not exercised.

160 Exempted disposals.

(1) A disposal is an exempted disposal for the purposes of this Part if—

- (a) it is a disposal of the whole of the dwelling-house and a further conveyance of the freehold or an assignment of the lease and the person or each of the persons to whom it is made is a qualifying person (as defined in subsection (2));
- (b) it is a vesting of the whole of the dwelling-house in a person taking under a will or on an intestacy;
- (c) it is a disposal of the whole of the dwelling-house in pursuance of an order made under section 24 of the Matrimonial Causes Act 1973 (property adjustment orders in connection with matrimonial proceedings) or section 2 of the Inheritance (Provision for Family and Dependents) Act 1975 (orders as to financial provision to be made from estate);
- (d) it is compulsory disposal (as defined in section 161); or
- (e) it is a disposal of property consisting of land included in the dwelling-house by virtue of section 184 (land let with or used for the purposes of the dwelling-house).

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1)(a), a person is a qualifying person in relation to a disposal if—

- (a) he is the person, or one of the persons, by whom the disposal is made,
- (b) he is the spouse or a former spouse of that person, or one of those persons, or
- (c) he is a member of the family of that person, or one of those persons, and has resided with him throughout the period of twelve months ending with the disposal.

161 Meaning of “compulsory disposal”.

161. In this Part a “compulsory disposal” means a disposal of property which is acquired compulsorily, or is acquired by a person who has made or would have made, or for whom another person has made or would have made, a compulsory purchase order authorising its compulsory purchase for the purposes for which it is acquired.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

162 Exempted disposals which end liability under covenants.

162. Where there is a relevant disposal which is an exempted disposal by virtue of section 160(1) (d) or (e) (compulsory disposals or disposals of land let with or used for purposes of dwelling-house)—

- (a) a covenant imposed by virtue of section 155 (repayment of discount on early disposal) is not binding on the person to whom the disposal is made or any successor in title of his, and that covenant and the charge taking effect by virtue of section 156 cease to apply in relation to the property disposed of, and
- (b) any such covenant as is mentioned in section 157 (restriction on disposal of dwelling-houses in National Parks, etc.) ceases to apply in relation to the property disposed of.

163 Treatment of options.

(1) For the purposes of this Part the grant of an option enabling a person to call for a relevant disposal which is not an exempted disposal shall be treated as such a disposal made to him.

(2) For the purposes of section 157(2) (requirements of consent to disposal of dwelling-house in National Park, etc.) a consent to such a grant shall be treated as a consent to a disposal in pursuance of the option.

Preservation of right to buy on disposal to private sector landlord

171A Cases in which right to buy is preserved.

(1) The provisions of this Part continue to apply where a person ceases to be a secure tenant of a dwelling-house by reason of the disposal by the landlord of an interest in the dwelling-house to a person who is not an authority or body within section 80 (the landlord condition for secure tenancies).

(2) In this Part—

- (a) references to the preservation of the right to buy and to a person having the preserved right to buy are to the continued application of the provisions of this Part by virtue of this section and to a person in relation to whom those provisions so apply;
- (b) “qualifying disposal” means a disposal in relation to which this section applies, and
- (c) the “former secure tenant” and the “former landlord” are the persons mentioned in subsection (1).

(3) This section does not apply—

- (a) where the former landlord was a person against whom the right to buy could not be exercised by virtue of paragraph 1, 2 or 3 of Schedule 5 (charities and certain housing associations), or
- (b) in such other cases as may be excepted from the operation of this section by order of the Secretary of State.

(4) Orders under subsection (3)(b)—

- (a) may relate to particular disposals and may make different provision with respect to different cases or descriptions of case, including different provision for different areas, and
- (b) shall be made by statutory instrument which shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.

171B Extent of preserved right: qualifying persons and dwelling-house.

(1) A person to whom this section applies has the preserved right to buy so long as he occupies the relevant dwelling-house as his only or principal home, subject to the following provisions of this Part.

(2) References in this Part to a “qualifying person” and “qualifying dwelling-house”, in relation to the preserved right to buy, are to a person who has that right and to a dwelling-house in relation to which a person has that right.

(3) The following are persons to whom this section applies—

- (a) the former secure tenant, or in the case of a joint tenancy, each of them;
- (b) a qualifying successor as defined in subsection (4); and
- (c) a person to whom a tenancy of a dwelling-house is granted jointly with a person who has the preserved right to buy in relation to that dwelling-house.

(4) The following are qualifying successors for this purpose—

- (a) where the former secure tenancy was not a joint tenancy and, immediately before his death, the former secure tenant was tenant under an assured tenancy of a dwelling-house in relation to which he had the preserved right to buy, a member of the former secure tenant’s family who acquired that assured tenancy under the will or intestacy of the former secure tenant;
- (aa) where the former secure tenancy was not a joint tenancy, a member of the former secure tenant’s family to whom the former secure tenant assigned his assured tenancy of a dwelling-house in relation to which, immediately before the assignment, he had the preserved right to buy;
- (b) a person who becomes the tenant of a dwelling-house in pursuance of—
 - (i) a property adjustment order under section 24 of the Matrimonial Causes Act 1973, or
 - (ii) an order under Schedule 1 to the Matrimonial Homes Act 1983 transferring the tenancy, in place of a person who had the preserved right to buy in relation to that dwelling-house.

(5) The relevant dwelling-house is in the first instance—

- (a) in relation to a person within paragraph (a) of subsection (3), the dwelling-house which was the subject of the qualifying disposal;
- (b) in relation to a person within paragraph (b) of that subsection, the dwelling-house of which he acquired the assured tenancy, became the assignee of the assured tenancy or became the tenant, as mentioned in subsection (4)(a), (aa) or (b);
- (c) in relation to a person within paragraph (c) of subsection (3), the dwelling-house of which he became a joint tenant as mentioned in that paragraph.

(6) If a person having the preserved right to buy becomes the tenant of another dwelling-house in place of the relevant dwelling-house (whether the new dwelling-house is entirely different or partly or substantially the same as the previous dwelling-house) and the landlord is the same person as the landlord of the previous dwelling-house or, where that landlord was a company, is a connected company, the new dwelling-house becomes the relevant dwelling-house for the purposes of the preserved right to buy.

For this purpose “connected company” means a subsidiary or holding company within the meaning of section 736 of the Companies Act 1985.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

171C Modifications of this Part in relation to preserved right.

(1) Where the right to buy is preserved, the provisions of this Part have effect subject to such exceptions, adaptations and other modifications as may be prescribed by regulations made by the Secretary of State.

(2) The regulations may in particular provide—

- (a) that paragraphs 1, 3 and 5 to 11 of Schedule 5 (certain exceptions to the right to buy) do not apply;
- (b) that the right to a mortgage is exercisable against the former landlord or, if the former landlord was a housing association, against the Housing Corporation;
- (c) that the provisions of this Part relating to the right to be granted a shared ownership lease do not apply; and
- (d) that the landlord is not required to but may include a covenant for the repayment of discount, provided its terms are no more onerous than those of the covenant provided for in section 155.

(3) The prescribed exceptions, adaptations and other modifications shall take the form of textual amendments of the provisions of this Part as they apply in cases where the right to buy is preserved; and the first regulations, and any subsequent consolidating regulations, shall set out the provisions of this Part as they so apply.

(4) The regulations—

- (a) may make different provision for different cases or descriptions of case, including different provision for different areas,
- (b) may contain such incidental, supplementary and transitional provisions as the Secretary of State considers appropriate, and
- (c) shall be made by statutory instrument which shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.

(5) The disapplication by the regulations of paragraph 1 of Schedule 5 shall not be taken to authorise any action on the part of a charity which would conflict with the trusts of the charity.

171D Subsequent dealings: disposal of landlord's interest in qualifying dwelling-house.

(1) The disposal by the landlord of an interest in the qualifying dwelling-house, whether his whole interest or a lesser interest, does not affect the preserved right to buy, unless—

- (a) as a result of the disposal an authority or body within section 80(1) (the landlord condition for secure tenancies) becomes the landlord of the qualifying person or persons, or
- (b) paragraph 6 of Schedule 9A applies (effect of failure to register entry protecting preserved right to buy),

in which case the right to buy ceases to be preserved.

(2) The disposal by the landlord of a qualifying dwelling-house of less than his whole interest as landlord of the dwelling-house, or in part of it, requires the consent of the Secretary of State, unless the disposal is to the qualifying person or persons.

(3) Consent may be given in relation to a particular disposal or generally in relation to disposals of a particular description and may, in either case, be given subject to conditions.

(4) A disposal made without the consent required by subsection (2) is void, except in a case where, by reason of a failure to make the entries on the land register or land charges register required by Schedule 9A, the preserved right to buy does not bind the person to whom the disposal is made.

171E Subsequent dealings: termination of landlord's interest in qualifying dwelling-house.

- (1) On the termination of the landlord's interest in the qualifying dwelling-house—
 - (a) on the occurrence of an event determining his estate or interest, or by re-entry on a breach of condition or forfeiture, or
 - (b) where the interest is a leasehold interest, by notice given by him or a superior landlord, on the expiry or surrender of the term, or otherwise (subject to subsection (2)), the right to buy ceases to be preserved.

(2) The termination of the landlord's interest by merger on his acquiring a superior interest, or on the acquisition by another person of the landlord's interest together with a superior interest, does not affect the preserved right to buy, unless—

- (a) as a result of the acquisition an authority or body within section 80(1) (the landlord condition for secure tenancies) becomes the landlord of the qualifying person or persons, or
- (b) paragraph 6 of Schedule 9A applies (effect of failure to register entry protecting preserved right to buy),

in which case the right to buy ceases to be preserved.

(3) Where the termination of the landlord's interest as mentioned in subsection (1) is caused by the act or omission of the landlord, a qualifying person who is thereby deprived of the preserved right to buy is entitled to be compensated by him.

171F Subsequent dealings: transfer of qualifying person to alternative accommodation.

(1) The court shall not order a qualifying person to give up possession of the qualifying dwelling-house in pursuance of section 98(1)(a) of the Rent Act 1977 or on Ground 9 in Schedule 2 to the Housing Act 1988 (suitable alternative accommodation) unless the court is satisfied—

- (a) that the preserved right to buy will, by virtue of section 171B(6) (accommodation with same landlord or connected company), continue to be exercisable in relation to the dwelling-house offered by way of alternative accommodation and that the interest of the landlord in the new dwelling-house will be—
 - (i) where the new dwelling-house is a house, not less than the interest of the landlord in the existing dwelling-house, or
 - (ii) where the new dwelling-house is a flat, not less than the interest of the landlord in the existing dwelling-house or a term of years of which 80 years or more remain unexpired, whichever is the less; or
- (b) that the landlord of the new dwelling-house will be an authority or body within section 80(1) (the landlord condition for secure tenancies).

171G Land registration and related matters.

171G. Schedule 9A has effect with respect to registration of title and related matters arising in connection with the preservation of the right to buy.

171H Disposal after notice claiming to exercise right to buy, etc.

(1) Where notice has been given in respect of a dwelling-house claiming to exercise the right to buy and before the completion of the exercise of that right the dwelling-house is the subject of—

- (a) a qualifying disposal, or

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

- (b) a disposal to which section 171D(1)(a) or 171E(2)(a) applies (disposal to authority or body satisfying landlord condition for secure tenancies), all parties shall, subject to subsection (2), be in the same position as if the donee had become the landlord before the notice was given and had been given that notice and any further notice given by the tenant to the landlord and had taken all steps which the landlord had taken.

- (2) If the circumstances after the disposal differ in any material respect, as for example where—
 - (a) the interest of the donee in the dwelling-house after the disposal differs from that of the donor before the disposal, or
 - (c) any of the provisions of Schedule 5 (exceptions to the right to buy) becomes or ceases to be applicable,

all those concerned shall, as soon as practicable after the disposal, take all such steps (whether by way of amending or withdrawing and re-serving any notice or extending any period or otherwise) as may be requisite for the purpose of securing that all parties are, as nearly as may be, in the same position as they would have been if those circumstances had obtained before the disposal.

Modifications of Leasehold Reform Act 1967 in relation to leases granted under this Part 172 Exclusion of leases where landlord is housing association and freeholder is a charity.

(1) Part I of the Leasehold Reform Act 1967 (enfranchisement and extension of long leaseholds) does not apply where, in the case of a tenancy or sub-tenancy to which this section applies, the landlord is a housing association and the freehold is owned by a body of persons or trust established for charitable purposes only.

(2) This section applies to a tenancy created by the grant of a lease in pursuance of this Part of a dwelling-house which is a house.

(3) Where Part I of the 1967 Act applies as if there had been a single tenancy granted for a term beginning at the same time as the term under a tenancy falling within subsection (2) and expiring at the same time as the term under a later tenancy, this section also applies to that later tenancy.

(4) This section applies to any sub-tenancy directly or indirectly derived out of a tenancy falling within subsection (2) or (3).

174 Leases granted under this Part to be treated long leases at a low rent.

174. For the purposes of Part I of the Leasehold Reform Act 1967 (enfranchisement and extension of long leaseholds)—

- (a) a tenancy created by the grant of a lease in pursuance of this Part of a dwelling-house which is a house shall be treated as being a long tenancy notwithstanding that it is granted for a term of 21 years or less.

175 Determination of price payable.

(1) Where, in the case of a tenancy or sub-tenancy to which this section applies, the tenant exercises his right to acquire the freehold under Part I of the Leasehold Reform Act 1967, the price payable for the dwelling-house shall be determined in accordance with section 9(1A) of that Act notwithstanding that the rateable value of the dwelling-house does not exceed £1,000 in Greater London or £500 elsewhere.

(2) This section applies to a tenancy created by the grant of a lease in pursuance of this Part of a dwelling-house which is a house.

(3) Where Part I of the 1967 Act applies as if there had been a single tenancy granted for a term beginning at the same time as the term under a tenancy falling within subsection (2) and expiring at the same time as the term under a later tenancy, this section also applies to that later tenancy.

(4) This section applies to any sub-tenancy directly or indirectly derived out of a tenancy falling within subsection (2) or (3).

(5) This section also applies to a tenancy granted in substitution for a tenancy or sub-tenancy falling within subsections (2) to (4) in pursuance of Part I of the 1967 Act.

Supplementary Provisions

176 Notices.

(3) A notice under this Part may be served by sending it by post.

(4) Where the landlord is a housing association, a notice to be served by the qualifying person on the landlord under this Part may be served by leaving it at, or sending it to, the principal office of the association or the office of the association with which the qualifying person usually deals.

178 Costs.

(1) An agreement between—

(a) the landlord and a qualifying person claiming to exercise the right to buy, is void in so far as it purports to oblige the qualifying person to bear any part of the costs incurred by the landlord in connection with the qualifying person's exercise of that right.

179 Provisions restricting right to buy, etc of no effect.

(1) A provision of a lease held by the landlord or a superior landlord, or of an agreement (whenever made), is void in so far as it purports to prohibit or restrict—

(a) the grant of a lease in pursuance of the preserved right to buy or

(b) the subsequent disposal (whether by way of assignment, sub-lease or otherwise) of a lease so granted or to authorise a forfeiture, or impose on the landlord or superior landlord a penalty or disability, in the event of such a grant or disposal.

180 Statutory declarations.

180. A landlord may, if he thinks fit, accept a statutory declaration made for the purposes of this Part as sufficient evidence of the matters declared in it.

181 Jurisdiction of county court.

(1) A county court has jurisdiction—

(a) to entertain any proceedings brought under this Part, and

(b) to determine any question arising under this part;

but subject to sections 128 and 158 (which provide for matters of valuation to be determined by the district valuer).

(2) The jurisdiction conferred by this section includes jurisdiction to entertain proceedings on any such question as is mentioned in subsection (1)(b) notwithstanding that no other relief is sought than a declaration.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

(3) If a person takes proceedings in the High Court which, by virtue of this section, he could have taken in the county court, he is not entitled to recover any costs.

(4) The Lord Chancellor may make such rules and give such directions as he thinks fit for the purpose of giving effect to this section; and such rules or directions may provide—

- (a) for the exercise by a registrar of a county court of any jurisdiction exercisable under this section, and
- (b) for the conduct of proceedings in private.

(5) The power to make rules under this section is exercisable by statutory instrument which shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.

183 Meaning of “house”, “flat” and “dwelling-house”.

(1) The following provisions apply to the interpretation of “house”, “flat” and “dwelling-house” when used in this Part.

(2) A dwelling-house is a house if, and only if, it (or so much of it as does not consist of land included by virtue of section 184) is a structure reasonably so called; so that—

- (a) where a building is divided horizontally, the flats or other units into which it is divided are not houses;
- (b) where a building is divided vertically, the units into which it is divided may be houses;
- (c) where a building is not structurally detached, it is not a house if a material part of it lies above or below the remainder of the structure.

(3) A dwelling-house which is not a house is a flat.

184 Land let with or used for purposes of dwelling-house.

(1) For the purpose of this Part land let together with a dwelling-house shall be treated as part of the dwelling-house, unless the land is agricultural land (within the meaning set out in section 26(3) (a) of the General Rate Act 1967) exceeding two acres.

(2) There shall be treated as included in a dwelling-house any land which is not within subsection (1) but is or has been used for the purpose of the dwelling-house if—

- (a) the qualifying person, by a written notice served on the landlord at any time before he exercises the right to buy, requires the land to be included in the dwelling-house, and
- (b) it is reasonable in all the circumstances for the land to be so included.
