The Magistrates' Courts (Adoption) Rules 1984

21. In rule 5(4)(e) of the Magistrates' Courts (Adoption) Rules 1984, for the words “an illegitimate child” there shall be substituted the words “a child whose mother and father were not married at the time of his birth”.

22. In Schedule 1 to those Rules, in Form 1–

(a) for paragraph 11 there shall be substituted the following paragraph:

“11. The father and mother of the child were not married to each other at the time of his birth and of who is/claims to be the father–

(i) does/does not intend to apply for an order giving him all parental rights and duties with respect to the child;

(ii) does/does not intend to apply for the custody/care and control of the child.”;

(b) for the note on paragraph 3 in that Form there shall be substituted the following:

“Paragraph 3: If the child has previously been adopted, give the names of his adoptive parents and not those of his natural parents. If the father and mother of the child were not married to each other at the time of his birth, and a court has made an order giving the father all the parental rights and duties with respect to the child, or if the father has legal custody of the child by virtue of a court order, give details of the court order under paragraph 12.”; and

- (c) for the note on paragraphs 5 and 6 in that Form there shall be substituted the following:

“Paragraphs 5 and 6: Enter either in paragraph 5 or 6 the names of the persons mentioned in paragraphs 3 and 4, except that if the father and mother of the child were not married at the time of his birth the father of the child should be entered only if a court has made an order giving him all the parental rights and duties in respect of the child or if he has legal custody of the child by virtue of a court order. Where it is sought to dispense with parental agreement, enter in paragraph 6 one or more of the grounds set out in section 12(2) of the 1975 Act.”.

- 23. In Form 6 in that Schedule—

- (a) for the last sentence of the note on paragraph 9 there shall be substituted the following:

“If the father and mother of the child were not married to each other at the time of his birth, and a court has made an order giving the father all the parental rights and duties with respect to the child, or if the father has legal custody of the child by virtue of a court order, give details of the order under paragraph 19.”; and

- (b) for the first sentence of the note of paragraphs 11 and 12 in that form there shall be substituted the following:

“Paragraphs 11 and 12: Enter either in paragraph 11 or 12 the names of the persons mentioned in paragraphs 9 and 10, except that if the father and mother of the child were not married at the time of his birth the father of the child should be entered only if a court has made an order giving the father all the parental rights and duties in respect of the child or if he has legal custody of the child by virtue of a court order.”.

- 24. In Form 7 in that Schedule, in the fifth paragraph of the Notes, for the words from the beginning of that paragraph to the words “court order;” there shall be substituted the following words:

“A father who was not married to the mother of a child at the time of his birth is not a parent for this purpose, but is a guardian if a court has made an order giving him all the parental rights and duties with respect to the child or if he has legal custody of the child by virtue of a court order;”.

- 25. In Schedule 2 to those Rules, in paragraph 1—

- (a) for sub-paragraph (b) there shall be substituted the following sub-paragraph:

“(b) whether the child’s father and mother were married to each other at the time of his birth.”; and

- (b) in sub-paragraph (i) for the words “if the child is illegitimate” there shall be substituted the words “if the father and mother of the child were not married to each other at the time of his birth”.

- 26. For the heading to paragraph 2 of the said Schedule, there shall be substituted the following:

“2. Each Natural Parent, including where appropriate the father who was not married to the child’s mother at the time of his birth.”.

- 27. In sub-paragraph (b) of paragraph 6 of the said Schedule, for the words “claiming to be the father of an illegitimate child” there shall be substituted the words “who was not married to the mother of the child at the time of his birth and who claims to be the father of the child”.

The Magistrates' Courts (Children and Young Persons) Rules 1988

- 28. In the Magistrates' Courts (Children and Young Persons) Rules 1988, in rule 2(1), after the definition of the word “court”, there shall be inserted the following definition:

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

““parent”, in the case of a child or young person whose father and mother were not married to each other at the time of his birth, has the same meaning as it has in section 70(1A) and (1B) of the Children and Young Persons Act 1969(12);”.

29. In rule 14(3) of those Rules, after sub-paragraph (d), there shall be inserted the following sub-paragraph:

“(dd) where the father and mother of the relevant infant were not married to each other at the time of his birth, any person who is known to the applicant to have made an application for an order under section 4 of the Family Law Reform Act 1987 (parental rights and duties of father) which has not yet been determined;”.

30. In rule 29(2) of those Rules–

- (a) for the words “section 87(1)” in the second place where they occur there shall be substituted the words “section 87”; and
- (b) after the word “applies” there shall be inserted the words “and a father of a child where an order is in force under section 4 of the Family Law Reform Act 1987 by virtue of which actual custody is shared between the mother and the father and section 8(3) of the Act of 1980(13) accordingly applies”.

31. In rule 30(1) of those Rules–

- (a) the word “and” which follows the words “voluntary organisation;” in the second place where they occur shall be omitted, and
- (b) there shall be inserted at the end the following words–

“; and a local authority or voluntary organisation which is a party to any such proceedings and a parent who is the complainant in any such proceedings in a case where the mother and father of the child were not married to each other at the time of his birth shall send a notice specifying the time and place fixed for the hearing of the complaint to any person who is known to the local authority, voluntary organisation or parent, as the case may be, to have made an application for an order under section 4 of the Family Law Reform Act 1987 (parental rights and duties of father) which has not yet been determined.”.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Rules)

These Rules make amendments to the Maintenance Orders (Facilities for Enforcement) Rules 1922, the Magistrates' Courts (Maintenance Orders Act 1958) Rules 1959, the Magistrates' Courts (Blood Tests) Rules 1971, the Magistrates' Courts (Guardianship of Minors) Rules 1974, the Magistrates' Courts (Forms) Rules 1981, the Magistrates' Courts Rules 1981, the Magistrates' Courts (Adoption) Rules 1984 and the Magistrates' Courts (Children and Young Persons) Rules 1988. The amendments are all consequential upon the provisions of Parts I and II of the Family Law Reform Act 1987. Part I came into force on 4th April 1988 (the Family Law Reform Act 1987 (Commencement No.1) Order

(12) 1969 c. 54; section 70(1A) and (1B) were inserted respectively by section 8(1) of and paragraph 26 of Schedule 2 to the Family Law Reform Act 1987 (c. 42).

(13) Section 8(3) was inserted by section 8(2) of the Family Law Reform Act 1987.

1988 (S.I.1988/425)). Part II, apart from section 9, comes into force on 1st April 1989 (the Family Law Reform Act 1987 (Commencement No.2) Order 1989 (S.I. 1989/382)).

Parts I and II of the 1987 Act establish the principle that references to any relationship between two persons shall be construed without regard to whether the father and mother of either of them have or had been married to each other at any time, and substitute in various existing enactments references to whether the mother and father of a child were married to one another at the time of his birth for references to illegitimacy. Under Part II of the 1987 Act affiliation proceedings under the Affiliation Proceedings Act 1957 (c. 55) are abolished and amendments made to the Guardianship of Minors Acts 1971 and 1973 to enable financial provision for a child to be obtained, whatever the marital status of the parents, in proceedings under the Guardianship of Minors Act 1971. The amendments made by these Rules reflect those changes.
