M3 1988 c. 1.

[^{F2}Occupational pension schemes to which section 163 of the Act applies

3.—(1) An occupational pension scheme is a scheme to which section 163 of the Act (exemption of certain schemes from rule against perpetuities) applies at any time when it satisfies the requirements of any of paragraphs (2) to (6) of this regulation.

(2) This paragraph requires the scheme to be a superannuation fund which is to be treated as becoming a registered pension scheme under section 153(9) of the Finance Act 2004 in accordance with paragraph 1(1)(b) and (3) of Schedule 36 to that Act (deemed registration of existing schemes).

(3) This paragraph requires the scheme to be a superannuation fund to which section 615(3) of the Taxes Act (exemption from tax in respect of certain pensions) applies, or to which Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs give relief from income tax under section 614(5) of the Taxes Act (exemptions and reliefs in respect of income from certain investments etc. of certain pension schemes).

(4) This paragraph requires the scheme to be a trust scheme which is to be treated as becoming a registered pension scheme under section 153(9) of the Finance Act 2004 in accordance with paragraph 1(1)(f) of Schedule 36 to that Act.

(5) This paragraph requires the scheme, or part of the scheme, to be either—

(a) an occupational pension scheme which is—

(i) registered under section 153 of the Finance Act 2004, or

(ii) to be treated as becoming a registered pension scheme under section 153(9) of the Finance Act 2004 in accordance with paragraph 1(1)(a) of Schedule 36 to that Act.

(6) This paragraph requires the scheme to be an occupational pension scheme and Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs to be satisfied under section 153 of the Finance Act 2004, that the scheme corresponds to a scheme registered by Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs for the purposes of Part 4 of that Act.]

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These regulations replace the Occupational Pension Schemes (Perpetuities) Regulations 1973. Regulations 3 and 4 set out the requirements for occupational and personal pension schemes to be exempt from the operation of any rules of law relating to perpetuities. Public service pension schemes, contracted-out occupational pension schemes and appropriate personal pension schemes are exempted by section 69(2) of the Social Security Act 1973 whether or not they satisfy these requirements.

Regulation 5 says that schemes that would otherwise cease to be exempt from the rules of law relating to perpetuities on ceasing to satisfy the requirements of section 69(2) of the 1973 Act will continue to be treated as exempt for a further period of 2 years or such longer period as the Occupational Pensions Board consider reasonable.

The report of the Occupational Pensions Board on the draft of these Regulations which was referred to them, together with a statement by the Secretary of State showing that these Regulations give effect to the Board's recommendations, is contained in Command Paper No. 1086, published by Her Majesty's Stationery Office.
