21A.—(1) The weekly applicable amount of a claimant to whom paragraph (3) applies shall be reduced in each relevant week by a sum equal to the appropriate percentage of the relevant amount which applies in his case.

(2) A reduction under paragraph (1) shall, if it is not a multiple of 5p, be rounded to the nearest such multiple or, if it is a multiple of 2.5p but not of 5p, to the next lower multiple of 5p.

(3) Except where paragraph (4) applies, this paragraph applies to a claimant where—

- (a) he has been notified of a relevant course;
- (b) he has during the period of 2 years which ended on the day on which he was notified of that course been in receipt of benefit—

- (e) he has failed to attend the whole or any part of that course.

(4) This paragraph shall apply where the claimant's failure to attend a relevant course is attributable to any of the following circumstances—

- (a) the claimant in question was suffering from some disease or bodily or mental disablement on account of which—
 - (i) he was not able to attend the relevant course in question; or
 - (ii) his attendance at that course would have put at risk the health of other persons;

- (g) the claimant was required to deal with some domestic emergency; or

- (h) the claimant was providing assistance in response to an emergency.
- (5) A claimant shall be treated as having provided assistance in response to an emergency for the purposes of paragraph (4)(h) only—
- (a) he was a member of a group of persons organised wholly or partly for the purpose of providing such assistance or, as the case may be, protection; and he—

- “benefit” means income support or unemployment benefit or, if they are received in respect of the same benefit week, both of those benefits;
- “notified” means notified in writing by the Secretary of State for Employment by a notice which specifies in relation to the relevant course which the claimant may attend—
- (i) the date of the course, or if the duration of the course is to exceed one day, the date of each day of the course;
- (ii) the time when the course is to begin, or if it is to begin at different times on different days, each of those times; and

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations further amend the Income Support (General) Regulations 1987 by providing for a reduction in the applicable amount of a person in certain circumstances where he has been notified of a course but has failed to attend it (regulations 2 and 3).

Where a person whose applicable amount is reduced under this provision is entitled to a protected sum, this is not reduced when the reduction to his applicable amount ceases to apply (regulations 4 and 5).

These Regulations also further amend the Income Support (Transitional) Regulations 1987 so that, where a person is entitled to a transitional or personal expenses addition under those Regulations, provision is similarly made for this not to be reduced when the reduction to the person's applicable amount ceases to apply (regulation 6).

The report of the Social Security Advisory Committee dated November 1990 on the proposals to make these Regulations together with the statement showing the extent to which the Regulations give effect to them and, in so far as they do not give effect to them, the reasons why not are contained in Command Paper No. 1355, published by Her Majesty's Stationery Office.
