reason obtain a form from the enumerator, he or a person acting on his behalf may apply to the census officer for such a form.

(2) The enumerator or census officer, as the case may be, shall issue to the elector, or to the person acting on his behalf, the appropriate form I and an envelope in which the completed form of return may be sealed before it is collected by the enumerator.

Sealed envelopes for returns from private households

11. Any person who is required by article 5(1) or (2) of the Census Order to make a return may ask the enumerator to provide him with an envelope in which the completed form of return may be sealed before it is collected by the enumerator, and the enumerator, if so asked, shall comply with any such request.

Information to be provided by persons in charge of premises or vessels

12.—(1) The manager, chief resident officer or other person for the time being in charge of any premises mentioned in Group II or III in Schedule 1 to the Census Order shall enter the name and address of the premises on every form of return made under article 5(4) of the Census Order by or with respect to any person in the premises.

(2) On the day after census day, or as soon thereafter as is reasonably practicable, the enumerator shall collect all forms of return delivered by him and all separate forms of return issued in accordance with regulation 10 to persons within his enumeration district.

(3) Subject to paragraphs (4) and (5), the enumerator shall examine each form of return which he has collected and satisfy himself that the entries thereon are properly and sufficiently made, and for that purpose he shall make all such inquiries of the persons concerned in completing the form, or of the persons with respect to whom the returns are made, as are reasonably necessary.

(4) The enumerator may open any envelope which was issued under regulation 10 to a person electing to make an individual return, unless that person has asked the enumerator not to open it, in which case the enumerator shall pass the envelope unopened to an assistant census officer or to the census officer.

(5) The enumerator shall not open any envelope which was issued under regulation 11 to a person making a return in respect of a private household and which is returned to him sealed, but shall instead pass the envelope unopened to an assistant census officer or to the census officer.

(6) An assistant census officer or the census officer may open any sealed envelope which has been passed to him from an enumerator in accordance with paragraph (4) or (5), and examine the form of return.

(7) If an assistant census officer or the census officer is not satisfied that the entries on a form of return are properly and sufficiently made, he may make all such inquiries of the persons concerned in completing the form, or of the persons with respect to whom the returns are made, as are reasonably necessary.

(8) The Registrar General shall make arrangements for the collection of completed forms of return made by persons on vessels mentioned in Groups IV and V in Schedule 1 to the Census Order and by persons in places mentioned in Group VI in that Schedule.

Further duties of enumerators, assistant census officers and census officers

14.—(1) As soon after census day as is reasonably practicable, the enumerator shall complete the enumeration record book and any sections which he is required to complete in the forms of return which he has collected.

(2) When directed to do so by the census officer, the enumerator shall deliver to the census officer or to an assistant census officer the enumeration record book, all forms of return which he has collected and any other written record of any nature in his possession which contains any personal information which has been acquired in connection with the census.

Please complete this form for all members of the household, including children, and have it ready for collection on Monday 22nd April. Your census enumerator will call to collect it then or soon afterwards and will help you with the form if you have any difficulties. The enclosed leaflet explains why the Census is necessary and how the information is used.

A Household:
A household comprises either one person living alone or a group of people (not necessarily related) living at the same address with common housekeeping — that is, sharing at least one meal a day or sharing a living room or sitting room.

Completion of the form is compulsory under the Census Act 1920. If you refuse to complete it, or give false information, you may have to pay a fine of up to £400.

People staying temporarily with the household are included.

Your answers will be treated in strict confidence and used only to produce statistics. Names and addresses will not be put into the computer; only the postcode will be entered. The forms will be kept securely within my Office and treated as confidential for 100 years.

► If there is more than one household in this building, answer for your household only.

Anyone using or disclosing Census information improperly will be liable to prosecution. For example, it would be improper for you to pass on to someone else information which you had been given in confidence by a visitor to enable you to complete the Census form.

► First answer questions H1, HL and H2 on this page and H3 to H5 on the back page about your household and the rooms which it occupies.

If any member of the household aged 16 or over does not wish you, or another member of the household, to see their information, please ask the enumerator for an individual form with an envelope.

► When you have answered the household questions, answer the questions on the inside pages about each member of your household.

After completing the form, please sign the declaration on the last page. Thank you for your co-operation.

► If a member of the household is completing an Individual form please still enter their name and answer questions 5 and 6 on this form.

1991 Census
Scotland
L form for Communal Establishments, HM Ships or other vessels

To the Manager, Chief Resident Officer, Commanding Officer or other person in charge of a communal establishment:

To the Captain, Master, Commanding Officer or other person in charge of a vessel or HM Ship:

I am seeking your help in conducting the Census. Under the Census Act 1920 you have a legal obligation to list the names of the people in your establishment or on your vessel, to distribute forms to them and to collect the forms on completion. In a communal establishment you must also complete the 'type of establishment' panel. If you refuse to complete this form, or give false information, you may have to pay a fine of up to £400. The instructions opposite tell you what to do and should be followed carefully.

The Individual forms with which you have been supplied are for the returns to be made by or for each person who spends the night of 21-22 April at this establishment or on board this vessel. To assist you in issuing and collecting the individual forms, spaces have been provided overleaf for listing those people.

The answers given will be treated in strict confidence and used only to produce statistics. Names and addresses will not be put in the computer; only the postcode will be entered. The forms will be kept securely within my Office and treated as confidential for 100 years.

Anyone using or disclosing census information improperly will be liable to prosecution. For example, it would be improper for you to pass on to someone else, information which you have been given in confidence on, or for completion of, an individual form.

Thank you for your co-operation.
