(4) The enumerator may open any envelope which was issued under regulation 10 to a person electing to make an individual return, unless that person has asked the enumerator not to open it, in which case the enumerator shall pass the envelope unopened to an assistant census officer or to the census officer.

(5) The enumerator shall not open any envelope which was issued under regulation 11 to a person making a return in respect of a private household and which is returned to him sealed, but shall instead pass the envelope unopened to an assistant census officer or to the census officer.

(6) An assistant census officer or the census officer may open any sealed envelope which has been passed to him from an enumerator in accordance with paragraph (4) or (5), and examine the form of return.

(7) If an assistant census officer or the census officer is not satisfied that the entries on a form of return are properly and sufficiently made, he may make all such inquiries of the persons concerned in completing the form, or of the persons with respect to whom the returns are made, as are reasonably necessary.

(8) The Registrar General shall make arrangements for the collection of completed forms of return made by persons on vessels mentioned in Groups IV and V in Schedule 1 to the Census Order and by persons in places mentioned in Group VI in that Schedule.

Further duties of enumerators, assistant census officers and census officers

To the Head or Joint Heads or members of the Household aged 16 or over

1991 Census

Scotland

Please complete this form for all members of the household, including children, and have it ready for collection on Monday 22nd April. Your census enumerator will call to collect it then or soon afterwards and will help you with the form if you have any difficulties. The enclosed leaflet explains why the Census is necessary and how the information is used.

Completion of the form is compulsory under the Census Act 1920. If you refuse to complete it, or give false information, you may have to pay a fine of up to £400.

Your answers will be treated in strict confidence and used only to produce statistics. Names and addresses will not be put into the computer; only the postcode will be entered. The forms will be kept securely within my Office and treated as confidential for 100 years.

If any member of the household aged 16 or over does not wish you, or another member of the household, to see their information, please ask the enumerator for an individual form with an envelope.

After completing the form, please sign the declaration on the last page. Thank you for your co-operation.

1991 Census Scotland Establishments, HM Ships or other vessels

To the Manager, Chief Resident Officer, Commanding Officer or other person in charge of a communal establishment:

To the Captain, Master, Commanding Officer or other person in charge of a vessel or HM Ship:

I am seeking your help in conducting the Census. Under the Census Act 1920 you have a legal obligation to list the names of the people in your establishment or on your vessel, to distribute forms to them and to collect the forms on completion. In a communal establishment you must also complete the 'type of establishment' panel. If you refuse to complete this form, or give false information, you may have to pay a fine of up to f_*400 . The instructions opposite tell you what to do and should be followed carefully.

The Individual forms with which you have been supplied are for the returns to be made by or for each person who spends the night of 21-22 April at this establishment or on board this vessel. To assist you in issuing and collecting the individual forms, spaces have been provided overleaf for listing those people.

The answers given will be treated in strict confidence and used only to produce statistics. Names and addresses will not be put in the computer; only the postcode will be entered. The forms will be kept securely within my Office and treated as confidential for 100 years.

Anyone using or disclosing census information improperly will be liable to prosecution. For example, it would be improper for you to pass on to someone else, information which you have been given in confidence on, or for completion of, an individual form.

Thank you for your co-operation.
