(b) for paragraph (8), substitute the following paragraph:–

“(8) Applications after decree in relation to children. An application made after decree for, or for the variation or recall of, an order–

(a) relating to the parental rights of a child;

(b) under Part II of the Act of 1958; or

(c) for aliment for a child under 18 years of age,

shall be made in the process of the original action.”;

(c) for paragraph (9), substitute the following paragraph:–

“(9) Interim extract. A final decree in an action in which an application may be made under paragraph (8) shall be capable only of interim extract.”;

(d) after paragraph (13) (application for interdict under the Family Law Act 1986(45)), insert the following paragraphs:–

“(14) Applications for custody to which Part II of the Children Act 1975 applies–

(a) Where in an action a person (“the minuter”) applies by minute for custody of a child, the court shall on granting leave to the minuter to be sisted as a party, order the minuter to give notice–

(i) at the same time to each known parent of the child in Form 68 together with, where the minuter is not a parent, tutor, curator, or guardian of the child, a consent form in Form 69; and

(ii) where the minuter is not a parent of the child and he resides in Scotland when the minute is presented, within seven days to the local authority within whose area the minuter resides in Form 70; or

(8) Rule 168A was inserted by S.I. 1980/1144.

(9) Rule 170B was inserted by S.I. 1976/1994; relevant amending instruments are S.I. 1986/1955 and 1988/615.

(45) 1986 c. 55.

- (iii) where the minuter is not a parent of the child and he does not reside in Scotland when the minute is presented, in Form 70 within such time as the court shall determine to such local authority as the court shall specify.
 - (b) Where a parent, tutor, curator or guardian consents to the minuter being granted custody of a child, he shall—
 - (i) complete and sign a consent form in Form 69;
 - (ii) have his signature witnessed; and
 - (iii) return the form to the minuter.
 - (c) At any stage of the cause, where it appears to the court to be desirable in the circumstances of the case in order to safeguard the interests of a child, the court shall appoint a curator ad litem.
 - (d) A curator ad litem appointed under sub-paragraph (c) shall have the following duties:—
 - (i) to enquire into, so far as he considers necessary the matters averred in the minute and in any report by a local authority under sub-paragraph (e);
 - (ii) to enquire into any other matters which appear to him to be relevant;
 - (iii) to consider whether the granting of custody to the minuter is in the interests of the child;
 - (iv) to perform such other duties as appear to him to be necessary or as the court may require; and
 - (v) to prepare a report in relation to the exercise of the above duties.
 - (e) On completion of a report under section 49(2) of the Children Act 1975⁽¹⁰⁾, the local authority shall—
 - (i) lodge three copies of the report in process; and
 - (ii) where a curator ad litem has been appointed, send a copy of the report to him.
 - (f) The curator ad litem shall, on completion of his report, lodge three copies of it in process.
 - (g) On receipt of the report of the local authority, and, where a curator ad litem has been appointed, the report of the curator ad litem, the General Department shall—
 - (i) inform the minuter that a report has been lodged; and
 - (ii) make available to the minuter, and to every other party, a copy of each report.
 - (h) This paragraph shall, with the necessary modifications apply to a pursuer or defender who is not a parent of a child in respect of whom custody is sought as it applies to a person who applies by minute.
- (15) Referral to family conciliation service. In any action where the custody of, or access to, a child is in dispute, the court may, at any stage of the action where it considers it appropriate to do so and the parties to the dispute agree, refer that dispute to a specified Family Conciliation Service.?”
- (13) In rule 170D (applications for financial provision)⁽¹¹⁾—

⁽¹⁰⁾ 1975 c. 72.

⁽¹¹⁾ Rule 170D was inserted by S.I. 1976/1994; the relevant amending instrument is S.I. 1986/1231.

- (a) in paragraph (2) (application by defender for financial provision in divorce action), after the word “seeks”, insert the following words “; and, where a defender makes such a claim, he may apply in his defences for a warrant to use any form of diligence which would be competent on the dependence had the claim been concluded for in a summons, and the application shall be made and dealt with as in like manner as, and any warrant granted shall have effect as if granted under, rule 84(c)”;
- (b) at the end, insert the following paragraph:–
- “(12) Subsequent applications for incidental orders. An application for an incidental order (within the meaning of section 14(2) of the Act of 1985) after the grant or refusal of decree shall be made by motion; and rule 170B(10) shall apply to a motion under this paragraph as it applies to a motion under that paragraph.”.
- (14) In rule 189 (Outer House petitions), after sub-paragraph (xxxvi)(12), insert the following sub-paragraph:–
- “(xxxvii) Applications under any enactment unless otherwise provided in these rules or any other enactment.”.
- (15) In rule 194–
- (a) in the heading, for the words “lodged along with the petition”, substitute the word “marked”; and
- (b) omit the words from “; and, along with the petition” to “at a later date”.
- (16) After rule 194, insert the following rule:–
- “194A. Lodging of documents founded on
- (1) Any deed, writing or other document founded on by a party in his pleadings shall so far as in his possession or within his control, be lodged by that party–
- (a) when founded on in an adjustment to the pleadings, at the time when such an adjustment is intimated; or
- (b) in any other case, when the paper in which the document is founded on is lodged.
- (2) Paragraph (1) shall be without prejudice to any power of the court to order production of any document or grant a commission and diligence for recovery of it.
- (3) Where a party fails to lodge a deed, writing or other document in accordance with paragraph (1), he may be found liable in the expenses of any order for production or for commission and diligence for recovery of it obtained by another party to the petition.”.
- (17) After rule 200A (applications by judicial factors to Accountant of Court)(13), insert the following rule:–
- “200B. Applications to encroach on capital
- (1) In any case where the income from the estate of a ward is insufficient for the maintenance of the ward, the judicial factor may apply to the Accountant of Court for his consent to encroach on the capital of the estate for the purpose of maintaining the ward.
- (2) An application under paragraph (1) shall be made by letter and shall be supported by such information as the Accountant of Court may require.
- (3) The Accountant of Court shall–
- (a) appoint the judicial factor to intimate the making of the application in accordance with paragraphs (4) and (5); or
- (b) require him to apply by note to the court for special powers.

(12) Rule 189 (xxxvi) was inserted by S.I. 1987/2160.

(13) Rule 200A was inserted by S.I. 1980/1803.

(4) Where the Accountant of Court appoints intimation to be given under paragraph (3) (a), the judicial factor shall send by registered post or first class recorded delivery service to the persons specified in paragraph (5)–

- (a) a copy of the letter of application; and
- (b) a notice setting out–
 - (i) the right of the person receiving the notice to object to the proposed encroachment by lodging any objections in writing with the Accountant of Court, and intimating a copy thereof to the judicial factor, within 28 days of the date on which the notice was posted; and
 - (ii) that, in the absence of any such objection, the Accountant of Court may consent to the encroachment sought.

(5) The persons to whom notice is to be given under paragraph (4) are–

- (a) the cautioner of the judicial factor;
- (b) the petitioner for the appointment of the judicial factor;
- (c) the ward, unless the circumstances of the ward are such that would warrant service on him of a petition for the appointment of his judicial factor being dispensed with;
- (d) the persons upon whom the petition for appointment of the judicial factor was served and whose whereabouts are known to the judicial factor; and
- (e) all other persons who have an interest in the estate and whose identity and whereabouts are known to the judicial factor.

(6) The judicial factor shall, on serving a notice on any person under paragraph (4), send to the Accountant of Court a duly completed execution of service with a copy of the notice sent appended to it.

(7) On the expiry of the period for lodging objections, where no objections have been lodged, the Accountant of Court may consent to the encroachment sought (subject to such conditions as he thinks fit) or require the judicial factor to apply to the court for special powers.

(8) On the expiry of the period for lodging objections where objections have been lodged, the judicial factor shall apply to the court for special powers.”.

(18) After rule 201B(14), insert the following section and rules:–

“SECTION 2A

CAUSES UNDER THE CRIMINAL JUSTICE (SCOTLAND) ACT 1987

201C. Interpretation

(1) In this section, “the Act of 1987” means the Criminal Justice (Scotland) Act 1987(15).

(2) Words and expressions used in this section which are also used in the Act of 1987 have the same meaning as in that Act unless the context otherwise requires.

201D. Remits from the High Court of Justiciary

(1) This rule applies where the High Court of Justiciary remits a case to the Court of Session under section 3(5) of the Act of 1987 for a decision on a question of fact or law as regards the assessment of the proceeds of drug trafficking.

(14) Rule 201B was inserted by S.I. 1986/514.

(15) 1987 c. 41.

(2) The Deputy Principal Clerk, on receiving a case remitted from the High Court of Justiciary, shall have the case put out on the By Order Roll before a Division of the Inner House at the earliest opportunity for an order for further procedure and shall intimate the diet to the prosecutor and the accused.

(3) Before the hearing on the By Order Roll, the prosecutor shall lodge in the Petition Department—

- (a) a process (consisting of an inventory of process, and interlocutor sheet, a duplicate inventory of process, a motion sheet and a minute of proceedings);
- (b) four copies of the relevant indictment; and
- (c) four copies of all other documents to be used at that hearing.

(4) Not later than 48 hours before any subsequent hearing, parties shall lodge four copies of any further documents to be used at such a hearing.

(5) After the court has decided the question in the case remitted to it, the Deputy Principal Clerk shall transmit the decision of the court to the Deputy Principal Clerk of Justiciary.

201E. Applications for restraint orders

(1) An application under section 8(1) of the Act of 1987 for a restraint order, shall be made by petition presented to the Outer House and shall not be intimated.

(2) Rules 191(aa), (b) and (c), 192 and 195 to 197 shall not apply to a petition to which this rule applies.

201F. General provisions in relation to restraint orders

(1) The period within which an application other than an application by the Lord Advocate under section 8(2)(b) of the Act of 1987 to vary or recall a restraint order is to be made shall be 21 days of the applicant receiving notice of the restraint order.

(2) Where a restraint order is made, the Lord Advocate shall serve a copy of it and of the petition on all persons named in the interlocutor as restrained by the order and give notice of it to all persons affected by the restraint order.

(3) Rules 74A, 74B and 75 shall apply to the service of a copy of an order under paragraph (2) of this rule as they apply to citation and service of a summons.

201G. Miscellaneous applications

(1) An application under section 8(2) (variation or recall of restraint order), 8(5) (recall of restraint order) or 11(1) or (5) (recall or restriction of arrestment or inhibition), of the Act of 1987 shall be made by motion in the process of the petition to which the application relates.

(2) A motion under paragraph (1) shall include a brief statement of the reasons for the application; and the court may, at the hearing of the motion, order that the application be made by note.

(3) A motion under paragraph (1) for an order under section 8(2)(b) of the Act of 1987 shall be intimated by recorded delivery letter on an induciae of 14 days and the applicant shall lodge in process a copy of the letter of intimation and the Post Office receipt of posting of the letter.

(4) A motion under paragraph (1) by the Lord Advocate in relation to an application to extend a restraint order under section 8(2) of the Act of 1987 shall not be intimated.

(5) An application under section 11(1) of the Act of 1987 (warrant for arrestment or inhibition) may be made in the prayer of the petition for a restraint order under section 8(1) of the Act of 1987 or, if made after presentation of the petition, by motion in that process and shall not be intimated.

(6) An application under section 12 of the Act of 1987 (interdict) may be made in the prayer of the petition for a restraint order under section 8(1) of the Act of 1987 or, if made after presentation of the petition, by note in that process; and rule 201F(2) and

(3) shall apply to the service of an interdict as it applies to the service of a restraint order.

(7) An application under section 25(1) (variation of confiscation order) or 26(1) (compensation) of the Act of 1987 shall be made by petition presented to the Outer House.

(8) An application by the Lord Advocate under section 41 of the Act of 1987 (disclosure of information by Government departments) may be made—

(a) by petition presented to the Outer House;

(b) where there is a restraint order in force, by note in the process of the application for the restraint order; or

(c) where an administrator has been appointed, by note in that process.

201H. Applications for appointment of administrators

(1) An application under section 13(1) of the Act of 1987 for the appointment of an administrator shall be made—

(a) where a restraint order has been made, by note in the process of the application for the restraint order; or

(b) in any other case, by petition presented to the Outer House.

(2) Rules 191(aa), (b) and (c), 192 and 195 to 197 shall not apply to a petition to which this rule applies.

201J. Incidental applications in an administration

(1) An application under section 13(1) (which is not made in the petition for appointment of an administrator) or 13(4) (making or altering a requirement or removal of administrator), 13(5) (appointment of new administrator on death, resignation or removal of administrator), 14(1) (n) (directions as to functions of administrator), or 16 (directions for application of proceeds) of the Act of 1987 shall be made by note in the process of the petition for appointment of the administrator under section 13(1) of the Act of 1987.

(2) An application under section 14(1)(o) (special powers of administrator), 14(3) (vesting of property in administrator) or 24 (orders of realisation of property) of the Act of 1987 may be made in the prayer of the petition for appointment of an administrator under section 13(1) of the Act of 1987 or, if made after presentation of the petition, by note in that process.

201K. General provisions in relation to an administration

(1) Notification by a clerk of court under section 13(3)(a) of the Act of 1987 to a person of a requirement to give possession of property to an administrator shall be made by intimation of a certified copy of the interlocutor making the requirement.

(2) Where the court considers making an order under section 24(1) of the Act of 1987 to facilitate the realisation of property, it shall fix a date for a hearing on the Motion Roll (in the first instance) and the petitioner or noter, as the case may be, shall serve a notice in Form 71 on any person who has an interest in that property that such person may appear and make representations to the court at that hearing.

201L. Papers for Accountant of Court in an administration

(1) A copy of the petition, answers and any other paper or document relative to the appointment of an administrator appointed under section 13(1) of the Act of 1987 shall, at the same time as they are lodged in the Petition Department, be supplied to the Accountant of Court by the petitioner, and copies of all interlocutors granting or refusing applications for special powers or directions shall be supplied, within two days of issue, to the Accountant of Court by the party making the application.

(2) The clerks of the Petition Department shall transmit to the Accountant of Court, at any time at his request, the process or such part as he may require in an administration under Part I of the Act of 1987 which is in dependence before the court, in so far as such process may not be required at the time for the use of the court.

201M. Caution for administrator

A certified copy interlocutor of the appointment of an administrator appointed under section 13(1) of the Act of 1987 shall not be issued until the Accountant of Court has given written intimation to the Petition Department that he is satisfied with the caution found by the administrator.

201N. Duties of administrator

(1) As soon as possible, but not later than three months, after the date of his appointment, the administrator shall lodge with the Accountant of Court—

- (a) an inventory of the property in respect of which he has been appointed;
- (b) all vouchers, securities and other documents which are in his possession; and
- (c) a statement of that property which he has in his possession or intends to realise.

(2) An administrator shall maintain accounts of his intromissions with the property in his charge and shall—

- (a) lodge an account of his intromissions with the Accountant of Court in such form as the Accountant of Court may require—
 - (i) six months after the date of his appointment; and
 - (ii) at six monthly intervals after the first account during the subsistence of his appointment, unless the Accountant of Court agrees to waive the lodging of an account where the administrator certifies that there have been no intromissions during a particular accounting period; and

- (b) lodge, with the account of his intromissions, all supporting vouchers and other documents as the Accountant of Court may require.

201P. State of funds and scheme of division

(1) The administrator shall—

- (a) where there are funds available for division, prepare a state of funds after application of sums in accordance with section 16(1) of the Act of 1987 and a scheme of division amongst those who held property which has been realised under that Act and lodge them with the Accountant of Court, along with all relevant documents; or
- (b) where there are no funds available for division, prepare such a state of funds only and lodge it with the Accountant of Court; and
- (c) give to the Accountant of Court all explanations which may be required by him.

(2) The Accountant of Court shall make a report in writing on the state of funds and scheme of division, containing such observations as he shall think fit and proper to be submitted to the court, and shall return the state of funds and scheme of division to the administrator together with a principal copy of his report.

(3) The administrator shall, on receiving the report of the Accountant of Court—

- (a) lodge it in process together with the state of funds and scheme of division;

- (b) send a copy of the report of the state of funds and scheme of division to the Lord Advocate; and
- (c) send to each person who held property which has been realised under the Act of 1987 a notice by post intimating that the state of funds and scheme of division (or state of funds only, as the case may be), and the report of the Accountant of Court, have been lodged in court; stating the amount for which that person has been ranked, and whether he is to be paid in full, or by a dividend, and the amount thereof, or that no funds are available for payment.

201Q. Objections to scheme of division

(1) A person wishing to be heard by the court in relation to the distribution of property under section 16(2) of the Act of 1987 shall lodge a note of objections signed by counsel in the process in which the scheme of division relates within 21 days of the date on which the notice under rule 201P(3)(c) was sent.

(2) After the period for lodging a notice of objections has expired and no notice has been lodged, the administrator may enrol a motion for approval of the scheme of division.

(3) After the period for lodging a notice of objections has expired and a notice of objections has been lodged, the court shall put the cause out for a hearing to approve, and if necessary adjust, the scheme of division.

201R. Appeals against determination of outlays and remuneration

(1) An appeal under section 18(2) of the Act of 1987 against a determination by the Accountant of Court shall be by note in the process of the petition for appointment of the administrator.

(2) Where a note is lodged under paragraph (1), the appeal shall be put out by order by the Keeper of the Rolls for a hearing before a Lord Ordinary as soon as convenient.”.

(19) In rule 218N (applications for disqualification of company directors)(16), for paragraph (3), substitute the following paragraph:–

“(3) Rules 191 to 198 and 218 (except paragraphs (6) to (8)) shall apply to a petition under this rule; and the petition shall be intimated to the Secretary of State for Trade and Industry unless presented by him.”.

(20) After rule 249A (registration of awards under the Arbitration (International Investment Disputes) Act 1966)(17), insert the following section and rule:–

“SECTION 8A

249AA. Registration of awards under the Multilateral Investment Guarantee Agency Act 1988

Paragraphs 2, 3 and 5 to 9 of rule 249A shall apply, with the necessary modifications, to an award rendered under Article 4 of Annexe II to the convention referred to in section 1(1) of the Multilateral Investment Guarantee Agency Act 1988(18) as they apply to an award rendered under the convention referred to in section 1(1) of the Arbitration (International Investment Disputes) Act 1966(19).”.

(21) In section 8D(20)–

(16) Rule 218N was inserted by S.I. 1986/2298.
