EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations confer on the Central Council for Education and Training in Social Work such functions in relation to social work other than relevant social work as are conferred on them by section 10 of the Health and Social Services and Social Security Adjudications Act 1983 in relation to relevant social work. "Relevant Social Work" is defined in section 10(16) of that Act as meaning social work required in connection with health, education or social services provided by local authorities (and equivalent authorities in Northern Ireland) or by voluntary organisations or social work required in connection with the probation service. The particular functions of the Central Council are set out in section 10 of the Act of 1983. They include promoting training, conducting examinations, carrying out research and making grants for training purposes.
