EXEMPT BUILDINGS AND WORK

CLASS II

Buildings not frequented by people

A detached building—

- (a) into which people do not normally go; or
- (b) into which people go only intermittently and then only for the purpose of inspecting or maintaining fixed plant or machinery, unless any point of such a building is less than one and a half times its height from

- (i) any point of a building into which people can or do normally go; or
- (ii) the nearest point of the boundary of the curtilage of that building, whichever is the nearer.
