EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations amend the Pensions Increase (Speaker's Pensions) Regulations 1972 as amended by the Pensions Increase (Speaker's Pensions) (Amendment) Regulations 1979 to remove the provisions that the increases under the Pensions (Increase) Act 1971 added to the basic pension payable to or in respect of a past Speaker should not exceed the pension which would be payable to or in respect of the current Speaker if he ceased to hold that office. The Regulations also provide that the deemed beginning date of the pension (namely the date of the last increase in the pension which would be payable to the current Speaker if he ceased to hold office) shall not, with the exception of the holder of the office at 28th February 1991, apply to future Speakers who cease to hold office after the 28th February 1991. The beginning date of the pensions of future Speakers will be the day following the last day of service in respect of which the pension is payable, in accordance with section 8(2) of the 1971 Act.
