YOUR RESPONSE TO THE SUMMONS

CLAIM ADMITTED--Under the Debtors (Scotland) Act 1987

The Act gives you the right to apply to the court for a "time to pay direction" which is an order saying that you can pay any sum you are ordered to pay to the pursuer either in instalments or by deferred lump sum. A deferred lump sum means that you must pay all the amount at one time within a specified period set by the court.

In addition when making a "time to pay direction" the court may recall or restrict an arrestment made on your property by the pursuer in connection with the case or debt (for example your bank account may have been frozen).

If the court makes a "time to pay direction" a copy of the court order (called an extract decree) will be served on you by the pursuer telling you when payment should start or when it is you have to pay the lump sum.

If the court does not make a "time to pay direction" and makes an order for immediate payment against you, an order to pay (called a charge) may be served on you if you do not pay.

Box 1 ADMIT THE CLAIM--and make written application to pay by instalments or deferred lump sum

I do not intend to defend the case but admit the claim and wish to make a WRITTEN APPLICATION about payment.

I have completed the application form in section B on page 4.

Box 2 ADMIT THE CLAIM--INTENTION TO APPEAR

* delete as necessary

PLEASE REMEMBER

Send pages 3 and 4 to the court to arrive on or before the return day if you have signed any of the responses above. If you have admitted the claim do not send any payment to the court.
