EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order designates BP Exploration Operating Company Limited as the owner of the pipe-lines described in Parts I and II of the Schedule. In the case of the pipe-line specified in Part II, the designation applies only to those parts which are in controlled waters, that is the territorial sea and areas designated under the Continental Shelf Act 1964 (c. 29).

The pipe-lines referred to in Part I of the Schedule lie above and between the Cleeton and Ravenspurn gasfields, situated to the east of the coast of Humberside. The pipe-line referred to in Part II lies between the Cleeton gasfield and the natural gas terminal at Dimlington in the County of Humberside.
