EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations further amend the Social Security (Unemployment, Sickness and Invalidity Benefit) Regulations 1983 and the Social Security (Severe Disablement Allowance) Regulations 1984 by making special provision for members of disability appeal tribunals who suffer from a specific disease or bodily or mental disablement.

Regulation 2 provides for such members to be deemed incapable of work for the purpose of invalidity benefit. This only applies in respect of the first day in any week on which a member serves on a tribunal. The Regulations provide for such service to be excluded from the provisions relating to disqualification from receiving invalidity benefit and severe disablement allowance (regulations 2(4) and 3).
