

---

STATUTORY INSTRUMENTS

---

1993 No. 302

HEALTH AND SAFETY

The Mines (Shafts and Winding) Regulations 1993

Made - - - - 18th February 1993

Laid before Parliament 2nd March 1993

Coming into force—

*The whole Regulations
except in so far as they apply to mines of tin or tin ore 1st April 1993*

*The whole Regulations
in so far as they apply to mines of tin or tin ore 1st January 1996*

THE MINES (SHAFTS AND WINDING) REGULATIONS 1993

1. Citation and commencement
2. Interpretation
3. Application
4. Shaft sinking
5. Equipment of shaft and inspection, examination and maintenance of shaft and fixtures
6. Use of shaft or its fixtures
7. Safety harnesses
8. Space at bottom of shaft
9. Barriers
10. Suitability of winding apparatus
11. Installation and modification of winding apparatus
12. Keps
13. Ropes and associated equipment
14. Signalling and communication
15. Use of winding apparatus
16. Competent persons and winding enginemmen
17. Examination, inspection, maintenance and testing of winding apparatus
18. Records and reports
19. General duty of mine manager

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

20. Exemptions
  21. Disapplication of section 157 of the Mines and Quarries Act 1954
  22. Repeals and modifications of the Mines and Quarries Act 1954
  23. Revocation of Regulations
- Signature

---

Schedule 1 — Repeals of provisions of the Mines and Quarries Act 1954

Schedule 2 — Revocation of Regulations

Part I — Regulations revoked

Part II — Regulations ceasing to have effect in relation to shafts

Part III — Regulations applying to particular mines revoked

Explanatory Note