(7) In relation to town and country planning, provision is made in Part III of this Order.

(8) The term “principal council” is defined in section 270 of the Local Government Act 1972 c. 70.

- (2) New elections for Island councillors shall be held on the electoral date<sup>(9)</sup>.
- (3) For the purposes of those new elections and of subsequent elections for the Island council—
- (a) the old electoral divisions of the Island shall cease to exist; and
  - (b) the Island shall be divided into 48 new electoral divisions as shown on the maps and described in Schedule 1 to this Order, each new division being represented by one Island councillor.
- (4) Any Island councillor in office immediately prior to the establishment date who is not re-elected as such on the electoral date shall cease to hold office on the establishment date.
- (5) Island councillors elected on the electoral date shall come into office on the establishment date, and retire on 11th May 1998.
- (6) The next elections for Island councillors shall be held on 7th May 1998. The councillors then elected shall come into office on 11th May 1998, and retire on the fourth day after the ordinary day of election of councillors in 2001.

PART III

TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING

Island council as planning authority

6.—(1) As from the reorganisation date, the Island council shall cease to exercise functions under Chapter II of Part II of the 1990 Act.

(2) As from the reorganisation date, the Island council is to be treated as an authority to which Chapter I of Part II of the 1990 Act applies, and for this purpose, as if it were an area within a metropolitan county, and references to the local planning authority shall be construed accordingly.

Modifications to the 1990 Act

7.—(1) In section 27 of the 1990 Act, delete the words, “for any district in Greater London or a metropolitan county (whether the whole or part of the area of a local planning authority)” and insert “for any area in the Isle of Wight (whether the whole or part of the area of the Island council)”.

(2) Nothing in section 28 of the 1990 Act shall apply in the area of the Isle of Wight.

(3) Until a unitary development plan becomes operative for the area of the Island council (or where parts of such a plan become operative on different dates until every part of such a plan has become operative) Part I of Schedule 2 to the 1990 Act (which provides for existing plans to continue in force) shall apply to that area, and Part III of that Schedule shall apply in relation to it for the purposes of making continuing provision for the transitional matters for which provision was made immediately before the commencement of the 1990 Act by Schedule 7 to the Town and Country Planning Act 1971<sup>(10)</sup> (old development plans, etc.).

(4) In the application of Part I of Schedule 2 to the 1990 Act to the Island council, for the words “the commencement of this Act”, there shall be substituted “the commencement of this Order”.

<sup>(9)</sup> County council elections are held in accordance with Part I of the Representation of the People Act 1983 (c. 2) as amended, and the Local Elections (Principal Areas) Rules S.I. 1986/2214.

<sup>(10)</sup> 1971 c. 78, repealed by the Planning (Consequential Provisions) Act 1990 c. 11.

PART IV

THE SHADOW PERIOD

Preparations by Island council for assumption of abolished councils' functions

8. During the shadow period, the Island council shall have the following additional functions—
- (a) it shall prepare for the assumption on the reorganisation date of all functions transferred by article 3 or conferred by Part III of this Order;
  - (b) it shall prepare any budgets and plans which will be required when those functions are assumed; and
  - (c) it shall liaise with the Medina council and the South Wight council for the purpose of ensuring continuity of public service delivery on and after that date.

Powers during the shadow period

9. For the purposes of discharge of the functions mentioned in article 8:
- (a) paragraphs (3) to (7) (inclusive) of regulation 11 (Functions and powers of the shadow authority) of the Local Government Changes for England Regulations 1994<sup>(11)</sup> shall apply to the Island council as to a shadow authority; and
  - (b) regulation 12 (Duty of transferor authority to assist the shadow authority) of those Regulations shall apply to the Medina council and the South Wight council in relation to the Island council as it applies in relation to a shadow authority.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order alters the structure of local government in the Isle of Wight so that the county council for the Island will exercise both county council and district council functions. The Medina Borough Council and the South Wight Borough Council are abolished on 1st April 1995.

On that date, the Isle of Wight County Council is renamed the Isle of Wight Council, and takes on the functions of the two abolished councils as well as continuing with its existing county council functions (other than structure plan and local plan functions under Chapter II of Part II of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990). New elections for the Isle of Wight Council will be held on 4th May 1995, and 48 new county electoral divisions are created for the purposes of those and future elections, each division being represented by one councillor.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

With regard to town and country planning, the Island council is to prepare a unitary development plan for its area.

The maps showing the new county electoral divisions may be inspected at all reasonable times at the offices of the council for the county of Isle of Wight, at the offices of the Secretary of State for the Environment, 2, Marsham Street, London SW1P 3EB, and, before 1st April 1995, at the offices of each Island borough.

The Local Government Changes for England Regulations (S.I. 1994 No. 867) make incidental, consequential, transitional and supplementary provision for the purposes of, and in consequence of orders such as this one.
