(Amendment of Enactments) Regulations 1994

Made	- - - -	6th July 1994
Laid before Parliament		14th July 1994
Coming into force	- -	1st September 1994

The Lord Chancellor, in exercise of the powers conferred on him by sections 46A and 56B of the Taxes Management Act 1970(1), after consultation with the Council on Tribunals in accordance with section 8 of the Tribunals and Inquiries Act 1992(2) and with the consent of the Lord Advocate, hereby makes the following Regulations:

Citation, commencement and effect

1.—(1) These Regulations may be cited as the General and Special Commissioners (Amendment of Enactments) Regulations 1994, shall come into force on 1st September 1994, and have effect with respect to—

- (a) any proceedings before the General Commissioners in relation to which the General Commissioners Regulations apply, and
 - (b) any proceedings before the Special Commissioners in relation to which the Special Commissioners Regulations apply.
- (2) In this regulation—

(1) 1970 c. 9. Section 46A was inserted by paragraph 3, and section 56B, together with sections 56C and 56D, by paragraph 4, of Schedule 16 to the Finance (No. 2) Act 1992 (c. 48). Section 56B was amended by section 254 of the Finance Act 1994 (c. 9). Paragraph 6 of Schedule 16 to the Finance (No. 2) Act 1992 extended section 46A, with modifications, and sections 56B to 56D, to petroleum revenue tax appeals, and paragraph 8 of the Schedule extended those provisions with modifications to inheritance tax appeals by the insertion in the Inheritance Tax Act 1984 (c. 51) of section 225A. Section 46A and sections 56B to 56D were also extended with modifications to stamp duty reserve tax appeals by regulation 20 of, and Part I of the Schedule to, the Stamp Duty Reserve Tax Regulations 1986 (S.I. 1986/1711, amended by S.I. 1993/3110).

(2) 1992 c. 53.

“General Commissioners” shall be construed in accordance with section 2(1) of the Taxes Management Act 1970(3);

“General Commissioners Regulations” means the General Commissioners (Jurisdiction and Procedure) Regulations 1994(4);

“proceedings”—

(a) so far as concerns proceedings before the General Commissioners, has the meaning given by regulation 2 of the General Commissioners Regulations;

(b) so far as concerns proceedings before the Special Commissioners, has the meaning given by regulation 2 of the Special Commissioners Regulations;

“Special Commissioners” shall be construed in accordance with section 4(1) of the Taxes Management Act 1970(5);

“Special Commissioners Regulations” means the Special Commissioners (Jurisdiction and Procedure) Regulations 1994(6).

Amendments of Acts and statutory instruments, and repeals

2.—(1) Schedule 1, which makes amendments to Acts and statutory instruments, shall have effect.

(2) The Acts specified in Part I of Schedule 2 are repealed, and the statutory instruments specified in Part II of that Schedule are revoked, to the extent specified in the third column of that Schedule.

Dated 5th July 1994

Mackay of Clashfern, C.

I consent,

Dated 6th July 1994

Rodger of Earlsferry

(3) Section 2(1) was amended by section 134(1) of the Finance Act 1988 (c. 39).

(4) S.I. 1994/1812.

(5) Section 4 was substituted by paragraph 1 of Schedule 22 to the Finance Act 1984 (c. 43) and amended by paragraph 30 of Schedule 10 to the Courts and Legal Services Act 1990 (c. 41).

(6) S.I. 1994/1811.

11. For section 56A(13) there shall be substituted—

“56A Appeals from the Special Commissioners.

(1) If, in the case of any appeal to the Special Commissioners, the appellant or the inspector or other officer of the Board is dissatisfied in point of law—

- (a) with a decision in principle given under regulation 18 of the Special Commissioners Regulations;
- (b) with the decision finally determining the appeal; or
- (c) with a decision under regulation 19 of those Regulations varying a decision such as is mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b) above or substituting for it a new decision, he may appeal against that decision to the High Court.

(2) A party to any appeal in England and Wales who under subsection (1) above has the right to appeal against any decision to the High Court may instead appeal directly to the Court of Appeal if—

- (a) all the parties to the appeal consent;
- (b) the Special Commissioners certify that the decision involves a point of law relating wholly or mainly to the construction of an enactment which was fully argued before them and fully considered by them; and
- (c) the leave of the Court of Appeal has been obtained.

(3) Where a decision in principle or a decision finally determining an appeal is set aside or varied under regulation 19 of the Special Commissioners Regulations, an appeal against that decision under subsection (1) or (2) above that has not yet been determined shall be treated as withdrawn at the time the decision is set aside or varied.

(4) The High Court or, as the case may be, the Court of Appeal shall hear and determine any question of law arising on an appeal under subsection (1) or (2) above and may reverse, affirm or vary the decision appealed against, or remit the matter to the Special Commissioners with the Court’s opinion on it, or make such other order in relation to the matter as the Court thinks fit.

(12) Section 56 was amended by section 45(3) of the Finance (No. 2) Act 1975, paragraph 6 of Schedule 22 to the Finance Act 1984 and section 156(3) of the Finance Act 1989.

(13) Section 56A was inserted by paragraph 7 of Schedule 22 to the Finance Act 1984.

(5) Subject to subsection (7) below and to Part II of the Administration of Justice Act 1969 (appeal from High Court to House of Lords)(14), an appeal shall lie to the Court of Appeal and thence to the House of Lords from the decision of the High Court on an appeal in England and Wales under subsection (1) above.

(6) Subject to subsection (7) below, an appeal shall lie to the House of Lords from the decision of the Court of Appeal on an appeal under subsection (2) above.

(7) An appeal shall not lie to the House of Lords from the Court of Appeal unless leave has been given under and in accordance with section 1 of the Administration of Justice (Appeals) Act 1934(15).

(8) Where the decision appealed against under subsection (1) or (2) above is a decision on an appeal against an assessment, then notwithstanding that the appeal under that subsection is pending, tax shall be paid in accordance with the determination of the Special Commissioners who made that decision.

(9) If in such a case the amount charged by the assessment is altered by the order or judgment of the High Court or, as the case may be, the Court of Appeal, then—

- (a) if too much tax has been paid the amount overpaid shall be refunded with such interest, if any, as the High Court or, as the case may be, the Court of Appeal may allow; or
- (b) if too little tax has been charged, the amount undercharged shall be due and payable at the expiration of a period of thirty days beginning with the date on which the inspector issues to the other party a notice of the total amount payable in accordance with the order or judgment of the High Court or, as the case may be, the Court of Appeal.

(10) All matters within the jurisdiction of the High Court under this section shall be assigned in Scotland to the Court of Session sitting as the Court of Exchequer (references in this section to the High Court being construed accordingly); and an appeal shall lie from the decision under this section of the Court of Session, as the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, to the House of Lords.

(11) This section has effect in Northern Ireland subject to section 58 below.”.

12. In section 58(16) —

- (a) for subsection (2) there shall be substituted—

“(2) A case which is stated by the General Commissioners under regulation 22 of the General Commissioners Regulations in proceedings in Northern Ireland shall be a case for the opinion of the Court of Appeal in Northern Ireland, and the Taxes Acts shall have effect as if section 56 of this Act applied in relation to such proceedings—

- (a) with the substitution for references to the High Court of references to the Court of Appeal in Northern Ireland, and
- (b) with the omission of subsection (8) of that section, and the procedure relating to the hearing and determination of the case by the Court of Appeal in Northern Ireland shall be that for the time being in force in Northern Ireland as respects cases stated by a county court in the exercise of its general jurisdiction.”;

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

“Statement of case by tribunal for opinion of High Court.

705A.—(1) Immediately after the determination by the tribunal of an appeal re-heard by them under section 705 of this Act, the appellant or the Board, if dissatisfied with the determination as being erroneous in point of law, may declare his or their dissatisfaction to the tribunal.

(2) The appellant or the Board, as the case may be, having declared his or their dissatisfaction, may, within thirty days after the determination, by notice in writing require the tribunal to state and sign a case for the opinion of the High Court.

(3) The party requiring the case shall pay to the tribunal a fee of £25 for and in respect of the same, before he is entitled to have the case stated.

(4) The case shall set forth the facts and the determination of the tribunal, and the party requiring it shall transmit the case, when stated and signed, to the High Court, within thirty days after receiving the same.

(5) At or before the time when he transmits the case to the High Court, the party requiring it shall send notice in writing of the fact that the case has been stated on his application, together with a copy of the case, to the other party.

(6) The High Court shall hear and determine any question of law arising on the case, and may reverse, affirm or amend the determination in respect of which the case has been stated, or remit the matter to the tribunal with the Court’s opinion on it, or make such other order in relation to the matter as the Court thinks fit.

(7) The High Court may cause the case to be sent back for amendment, and thereupon the case shall be amended accordingly, and judgment shall be delivered after it has been amended.

(8) Subject to subsection (9) below and to Part II of the Administration of Justice Act 1969 (appeal from High Court to House of Lords), an appeal shall, in England and Wales, lie from the decision of the High Court to the Court of Appeal and thence to the House of Lords.

(9) No appeal shall lie to the House of Lords from the Court of Appeal unless leave has been given under and in accordance with section 1 of the Administration of Justice (Appeals) Act 1934.

(10) Subject to subsection (11) below, where the determination of the tribunal is in respect of an assessment made in accordance with a notice under subsection (3) of section 703, then notwithstanding that a case has been required to be stated or is pending before the High Court in respect of the determination, tax shall be paid in accordance with the determination.

(11) If the amount charged by the assessment is altered by the order or judgment of the High Court, then—

- (a) if too much tax has been paid the amount overpaid shall be refunded with such interest, if any, as the High Court may allow; or
- (b) if too little tax has been charged, the amount undercharged shall be due and payable at the expiration of a period of thirty days beginning with the date on which the Board issue to the other party a notice of the total amount payable in accordance with the order or judgment of that Court.

(12) All matters within the jurisdiction of the High Court under this section shall be assigned in Scotland to the Court of Session sitting as the Court of Exchequer (references in this section to the High Court being construed accordingly); and an appeal shall lie from the decision under this section of the Court of Session, as the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, to the House of Lords.

Proceedings in Northern Ireland.

705B.—(1) A case which is stated by the tribunal under section 705A in proceedings in Northern Ireland shall be a case for the opinion of the Court of Appeal in Northern Ireland, and the Taxes Acts (as defined in section 118(1) of the Management Act⁽²⁰⁾ shall have effect as if that section applied in relation to such proceedings—

- (a) with the substitution for references to the High Court of references to the Court of Appeal in Northern Ireland;
- (b) with the omission of subsections (4), (5), (8) and (9) of that section.

(2) The procedure relating to the transmission of the case to, and the hearing and determination of the case by, the Court of Appeal in Northern Ireland shall be that for the time being in force in Northern Ireland as respects cases stated by a county court in exercise of its general jurisdiction, and an appeal shall lie from the Court of Appeal to the House of Lords in accordance with section 42 of the Judicature (Northern Ireland) Act 1978.

(3) Where in proceedings in Northern Ireland an application is made for a case to be stated by the tribunal under this section, the case must be settled and sent to the applicant as soon after the application as is reasonably practicable.

(4) For the purposes of this section “proceedings in Northern Ireland” means proceedings as respects which the place given by the rules in Schedule 3 to the Management Act is in Northern Ireland.”.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations are complementary to the General Commissioners (Jurisdiction and Procedure) Regulations 1994 (S.I. 1994/1812) (“the General Commissioners Regulations”) and the Special Commissioners (Jurisdiction and Procedure) Regulations 1994 (S.I. 1994/1811) (“the Special Commissioners Regulations”), which introduce rules relating to the procedure and practice to be followed in respect of appeals to, and other proceedings before, the General Commissioners and Special Commissioners respectively and also deal with jurisdictional matters in relation to such proceedings.

These Regulations amend, in Schedule 1 to the Regulations, certain provisions in primary and secondary legislation concerned with procedural and jurisdictional matters in proceedings before the General and Special Commissioners, and make consequential repeals in Schedule 2 to the Regulations.

The Regulations have effect in relation to proceedings to which the General Commissioners Regulations or, as the case may be, the Special Commissioners Regulations apply.
