- (3) particulars of the post in which the registered teacher is to be employed, including—
- (a) the age range of the pupils he is to teach;
 - (b) any subjects in which he is to specialise;
 - (c) a statement as to whether the registered teacher is to be employed full-time or part-time and in the latter case his normal working hours.
- 6.—(1) Subject to sub-paragraph (2), registration shall remain in force—
- (a) in the case of a first registration for a full-time post, for two years from the date of its commencement;
 - (b) in the case of a first registration for a part-time post or a subsequent registration (whether for a full-time or part-time post) for such period as may be specified by the Secretary of State at the time of registration.
- (2) Registration shall lapse if the registered teacher ceases to be employed in the post of which particulars are given in the registration.
- (3) For the purpose of this paragraph “date of commencement” means the date specified in the registration as its date of commencement.
7. The person carrying on the city college shall cause the registered teacher to receive during the period of registration the training particulars of which were given in pursuance of paragraph 5(2).
8. In any case where registration lapses by virtue of paragraph 6(2) the person carrying on the city college shall report the facts of the case to the Secretary of State.”.

1st February 1994

John Patten
Secretary of State for Education

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations amend the Education (Teachers) Regulations 1993.

They also revoke the Education (Teachers) (Amendment) Regulations 1993 and replace them with re-drafted provisions (regulations 1(2) and 4, (d) and (e)).

They extend the Secretary of State's power to bar persons from specified categories of employment to cover employment by the proprietor of an independent school, or at such school as a teacher or worker with children or young persons (regulation 3).

They also introduce a scheme for the registration of recommended teachers in city technology colleges and city colleges for the technology of the arts, and extend the Secretary of State's power to grant qualified teacher status to persons who have been employed as registered teachers in such colleges (regulations 2 and 4 (a), (b), (c) and (j)). They also amend paragraphs 2(6)(b) and (c) and 2(7)(b) and (c) of Schedule 3 by inserting a reference to city technology colleges and city colleges for the technology of the arts to emphasise that such colleges are independent schools (regulations 4(f), (g), (h) and (i)).
