(4) Where a farmer would be required (but for this provision) to set aside land in any particular production region and the cereals yield in that region and in any other production region or regions in which he farms is the same, he may set aside the required area of land in any one or more of those production regions.

- (b) for environmental reasons;
- (c) in the case of an educational establishment, to facilitate the fulfilment of its educational purpose;

(5) The Minister may specify that any exemption granted pursuant to paragraph (4) above shall be effective only until a date, or the occurrence of a particular event, specified in the exemption.

Requirements in relation to rapeseed

9.—(1) A farmer who sows farm-saved rapeseed on his holding shall not be entitled to receive compensatory payments in respect of the land sown with that seed unless that seed is qualifying seed and has been cleaned and dressed separately from any farm-saved rapeseed of a different variety produced on that holding and from seed not produced on that holding.

- (a) during the pre-sowing harvest; or
- (b) subject to paragraph (3) below, during the harvest immediately preceding the pre-sowing harvest.

(3) Seed harvested during the harvest immediately preceding the pre-sowing harvest is qualifying seed for the purposes of paragraph (1) above only if—

- (a) climatic conditions during the pre-sowing harvest were such that it was either not possible to harvest farm-saved rapeseed or not possible to clean and dress it as specified in paragraph (1) above or to obtain the results of the mandatory analysis, before the time at which it would be necessary to sow seed in order to obtain a successful crop; and
- (b) the farmer has informed the seed sampler, before sowing such seed, that he intended to sow it because the conditions of sub-paragraph (a) above were satisfied.

(4) A farmer—

- (a) who sows—
 - (i) a crop of high erucic acid rapeseed within 100 metres of a previously sown crop of OO rapeseed, or
 - (ii) a crop of OO rapeseed within 100 metres of a previously sown crop of high erucic acid rapeseed, shall not be regarded as having sown the crop sown later; and
- (b) who, where sub-paragraph (a) applies, sowed both crops, shall not be regarded as having sown either crop, in accordance with locally recognised standards as required by Article 2(1)(d) of Commission Regulation 2294/92.

(2) A collector shall keep records of the quantity of all specified raw materials produced on that land, which he has purchased and sold for processing, and the names and addresses of all subsequent buyers or processors to whom he has sold those specified raw materials.

(3) A collector shall retain the records referred to in paragraph (2) above for the shorter of—

- (a) three years from the date on which he delivers to a processor the specified raw materials to which those records relate, with a view to their being processed to obtain one or more of the products mentioned in Annex II to Commission Regulation 334/93; or
- (b) seven years from the date of creation of those records.

(4) A processor shall keep records showing on a daily basis in relation to specified raw materials so produced—

12.—(1) In the event of a breach by a farmer of any requirement referred to in Schedule 2, other than the requirements referred to in paragraph 11 of Part I of Schedule 2 and paragraph 20 of Part II of Schedule 2, the set-aside compensatory payment shall be reduced by £100 for each hectare of land in respect of which any requirement is breached.

 - (b) a crop was in that land at 1st October prior to the commencement of the set-aside period, in which case the farmer may either—
 - (i) establish and maintain a green cover on that land in accordance with the requirement in sub-paragraph (1) above; or

 - (bb) prior to the end of the green cover season, carry out no operation affecting the surface of the land except for discing or shallow cultivating it.
- (3) A farmer shall be exempt from the requirement to maintain a green cover—
- (a) following the application of herbicide, where herbicide is applied to the land after 15th April in accordance with paragraph 9 below; or
 - (b) following the failure of the green cover, where he satisfies the Minister that the green cover which he established failed and he could not reasonably have prevented such failure.
- (4) A farmer shall not be required to establish or maintain a green cover on a strip of set-aside land of no more than the specified width, but may instead leave such a strip as bare fallow—
- (a) where the set-aside land lies adjacent to a road or track likely to permit vehicular access to it, the strip so left is in any place where access to that land from that road or track is possible and that strip is ploughed; or
 - (b) where the set-aside land lies adjacent to any crop and the strip left lies between the crop and that part of the set-aside land on which a green cover has been established, and the specified width for the purposes of paragraph (a) of this sub-paragraph shall be 5 metres and that for paragraph (b) shall be 2 metres where the crop is a seed crop and 1 metre in the case of any other crop.

Cultivation of the Set-Aside Land and Replacement of the Green Cover

2. A farmer shall not carry out any preparation for sowing a crop on the set-aside land prior to the end of the set-aside period, except in accordance with paragraph 3 below.

 - (ii) seed sufficient to sow a replacement green cover is stored on land which the farmer farms as a single unit with the land set aside before replacement of the existing green cover is commenced;
 - (iii) it is likely, having regard to the condition of the soil and expected climatic conditions, that sowing the stored seed at this time will result in the successful growth of a green cover; and
 - (iv) that seed is sown as soon as is practicable after the destruction of the existing green cover.

Destruction of the Green Cover

4. A farmer shall either—

- (a) destroy the green cover by cultivation of or by application of herbicide to the set-aside land at the latest by the 31st August within the set-aside period; or

9. Subject to paragraph 10 below a farmer shall not apply herbicide to the set-aside land unless—

- (a) it is of a type which is absorbed into a plant primarily through the leaves and stem; and
- (b) such application if undertaken before 15th April—
 - (i) is not likely significantly to damage green cover on the land;
 - (ii) is undertaken using herbicide applied either as a spot treatment or with a wick applicator; or
 - (iii) is undertaken in order to create or maintain the bare fallow strip permitted under paragraph 1(4) above.

10. A farmer may apply any herbicide to set-aside land—

- (a) where the Minister is satisfied that such application is necessary to control a serious infestation of weeds or pests or the spread of any disease and any green cover is replaced following the application in accordance with paragraph 3(c) above; or
- (b) in order to create or maintain a bare fallow strip permitted under paragraph 1(4) above, provided that the farmer obtains the prior consent of the Minister to such application, which consent shall only be given where she is satisfied that the application of herbicides in accordance with paragraph 9(b)(iii) above has not been effective to maintain that fallow strip.

which is situated on or adjacent to the set-aside land unless he satisfies the Minister either that it should be damaged, destroyed or removed for environmental or for safety reasons or that he is obliged to damage, destroy or remove it to comply with a legal requirement.

2. A farmer shall not adjust or annul any contract relating to that land, submitted to the Minister in accordance with Article 6(1) of Commission Regulation 334/93, pursuant to Article 7(2) of that Regulation, unless he has notified the Minister of the proposed adjustment or annulment, and the collector or processor with whom the contract was made has similarly notified the Intervention Board for Agricultural Produce, at least 10 working days before such adjustment or annulment takes effect.

3. Where as a result of such adjustment or annulment any land set aside for the provision of specified raw materials is no longer to be used for such provision, the farmer shall—

- (a) dispose of any crop remaining on the land by a method which the Minister is satisfied will result in its destruction; and
- (b) subject to paragraph 4 below, establish a green cover on the land in accordance with Schedule 2 of these Regulations.

4. The Minister may grant the farmer an exemption from the requirement to establish a green cover pursuant to paragraph 3(b) above where she considers that to require the establishment of a green cover would be unreasonable having regard to the date on which the contract was adjusted or annulled in accordance with paragraph 2 above.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations apply throughout Great Britain. As specified below, they implement and supplement provisions of Council Regulation (EEC) No. 1765/92 (“the Council Regulation”), which establishes a support system for producers of certain arable crops, and of the Commission Regulations made under it, namely Commission Regulations (EEC) Nos. 2293/92, 2294/92, 2295/92, 2780/92, 334/93 and 2595/93. Regulation 2(1) defines these various Regulations, and the definitions include amendments to them.

Under the support system established under the Council Regulation, producers of particular arable crops are entitled to receive a compensatory payment calculated according to the area which they have sown with such crops.

The level of compensatory payment per hectare in a particular locality is determined (in accordance with Articles 4 and 5 of the Council Regulation) by multiplying an amount per tonne by the average yield per hectare for the production region in which the land lies. Member States are required to define production regions for the purposes of this calculation in accordance with the criteria set out in Article 3 of the Council Regulation. The production regions in the Great Britain are defined in regulation 3, and regulation 4 provides for yield calculation in relation to oilseed rape.

Article 7 of the Council Regulation requires all producers claiming compensatory payments to set aside part of their arable land, unless they come within the exception for small producers, as defined in Article 8(2) of the Council Regulation. Except in circumstances justified by objective criteria laid down by Member States, the area of land which a producer sets aside in each production region must be in a specified ratio to the cropped land in that region for which he claims payment (Article 4(2) of Commission Regulation (EEC) No. 2293/92), and land qualifying to be set aside must have been previously farmed by him for at least 2 years (Article 3(4) of the same Regulation). The circumstances in which producers are exempted from the first requirement are set out in regulation 7, and those in which producers are exempted from the second requirement are set out in regulation 6 and Schedule 1.

To ensure protection of the environment, Member States are required to take appropriate measures relating to set-aside land (Article 3(3) of Commission Regulation (EEC) No.2293/92). Regulations 8 and Schedules 2 and 3 specify the requirements to be met in relation to land set aside and set out how a green cover is to be established on land set aside.

Land sown with specified categories of oilseed only qualifies for compensatory payment when seed is sown in accordance with locally recognised standards (Article 2(1)(d) of Commission Regulation (EEC) No. 2294/92) and conforms to a quality policy established by the Member State in accordance with Article 3(1) of that Regulation. Regulation 9 sets out the qualifying requirements for cleaning, dressing and harvesting farm-saved rapeseed and the qualifying planting distances for particular types of rapeseed.

The Regulations also—

- (a) prescribe the minimum size of an agricultural parcel for which certain compensatory payments may be claimed (regulation 5);
- (b) require farmers, collectors and processors to keep, retain and produce records (regulations 10 and 11);
- (c) specify the reductions in compensatory payments applicable to breaches of requirements relating to land set aside (regulation 12);
- (d) prescribe the rate of interest payable where a compensatory payment is recovered by the appropriate authority in cases where recovery does not result from an error by that authority (regulation 13);
- (e) confer on authorised persons powers of entry for the purposes of the Regulations and require that such assistance be given to them for the exercise of their powers as they may reasonably request (regulations 14 and 15); and
- (f) create offences and penalties (regulation 16).

A compliance cost assessment has been prepared and has been deposited in the Libraries of both Houses of Parliament.
