The Civil Aviation (Air Travel Organisers' Licensing) Regulations 1995

PART I

GENERAL

Citation, commencement, interpretation and service of documents

1.—(1) These Regulations may be cited as the Civil Aviation (Air Travel Organisers' Licensing) Regulations 1995 and shall come into force on 10th May 1995.

(2) In these Regulations, unless the context otherwise requires:

“the Act” means the Civil Aviation Act 1982;

“the Authority” means the Civil Aviation Authority;

“licence” means an air travel organiser’s licence granted by the Authority under these Regulations;

“publish” (except in regulation 10(2)) means publish in the Authority’s official record;

“an ATOL receipt” means a document which complies with requirements published from time to time by the Authority for such a document;

“an ATOL confirmation invoice” means a document which complies with requirements published from time to time by the Authority for such a document;

“flight accommodation” means accommodation for the carriage of persons on flights by aircraft (whether or not registered in the United Kingdom) in any part of the world; and

“a valid ticket” means a ticket which is, without the need for any further payment but otherwise subject to its terms and conditions, valid for travel on the intended flight.

(3) Any document to be served on any person under these Regulations may be served:

(a) by delivering it to him;

(b) by leaving it at his proper address;

(c) by sending it by post to him at that address; or

(d) by sending it to him at that address by telex or by facsimile transmission or any other similar means which produce a document containing a text of the communication, in which event the document shall be regarded as served when it is received;

and where the person is a body corporate the document may be served upon the secretary of that body.

(4) For the purposes of paragraph (3) of this regulation the proper address of any person to whom or on whom any document is to be served shall, in the case of a body corporate, be the registered or principal office of that body and in any other case be the last known address of that person.

(5) Any period of time specified in these Regulations by reference to days or months shall be exclusive of the first day and inclusive of the last day, unless the last day falls on a Saturday, Sunday,

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

Christmas Day, Good Friday or any day appointed by law to be a bank holiday in any part of the United Kingdom, in which case the time shall be reckoned exclusive of that day also.

(6) In computing any period of time specified in these Regulations by reference to hours the whole of any Saturday, Sunday, Christmas Day, Good Friday or bank holiday shall be disregarded, and for that purpose any day appointed by law to be a bank holiday in any part of the United Kingdom shall be treated as a bank holiday.
