Records specified in public notices

5. A customs trader shall keep and preserve such other records as the Commissioners may specify for any case or cases in a notice published by them in pursuance of these Regulations and not withdrawn by a further notice.

Records relating to customs declarations

6.—(1) Where any record (including a copy of a record) is kept or preserved by a customs trader under a duty imposed by or under these Regulations and that record relates to a customs declaration made by him or on his behalf, it shall be so kept or preserved as to be readily apparent that it does relate to that particular declaration.

[^{F15}(2) In this regulation “customs declaration” means—

- (a) a declaration of goods for a Customs procedure for the purposes of section 3(1) of the Taxation (Cross-border Trade) Act 2018;

Status: Point in time view as at 31/12/2020.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Customs Traders (Accounts and Records) Regulations 1995. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) an outward processing declaration; or
- (c) an export declaration within the meaning given in regulation 2 of the export duty regulations.]

Form of records

7.—(1) Except for the records specified in paragraph (2) below and without prejudice to the provisions of section 21(4) and (5) of the Act, records (including copies of records) required to be kept or preserved by or under these Regulations may be kept or preserved in any form, and in particular they may be in documentary or other written form, or be in the form of anything that is commonly called or referred to as an account or a report; and the information which they contain or are to contain may be contained in or be in the form of an item described in Schedule 2.

(2) The excepted records referred to are—

- (a) records required to be kept and preserved by regulation 3(a) and (c) above; and
- (b) such records as may be required to be kept and preserved under regulation 5 above which are—
 - (i) received by a customs trader; or
 - (ii) prepared or maintained by him which he has neither received nor issued.

Time of recording

8. Where a customs trader is required by or under these Regulations to keep a record, he shall do so at the time when any information that is by virtue of these Regulations to be recorded is first known to him or as soon as possible thereafter.

Period of preservation of records

9. Any record (including a copy of a record) required by or under these Regulations to be preserved shall be preserved for a period of four years or such lesser period as the Commissioners may require, starting on the day that the obligation to preserve arises.

5. A transcript or reproduction.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations require customs traders to keep and preserve records containing information about their businesses and about their dealings in customs goods as defined in section 20(3)(a) of the Finance Act 1994. Compliance with these Regulations will assist HM Customs and Excise, when carrying out periodic audits of a customs trader’s business, to check the accuracy of customs declarations and protect the revenues derived from customs duties.

Regulation 3 sets out the requirements for keeping and preserving commercial records.

Regulation 4 requires particular customs traders to keep and preserve a copy of every supplementary or simplified declaration made by them or on their behalf, or alternatively to keep and preserve a record of all the information set out in such declarations.

Regulation 5 enables the Commissioners to specify, in a notice, additional and alternative records to be kept and preserved.

Regulation 6 requires certain records to be kept and preserved in such a way that it is readily apparent that they relate to a particular customs declaration. This requirement may be satisfied by an audit trail adequate for such purposes or some other method of demonstrating the connection with the declaration (for example by cross-referencing).

Regulation 7 deals with the form that the required records may take.

Regulation 8 explains the time when the obligation to keep records commences.

Regulation 9 requires customs traders to preserve their records for four years or such lesser period as the Commissioners may require.

Status:

Point in time view as at 31/12/2020.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Customs Traders (Accounts and Records) Regulations 1995.
