COAL INDUSTRY

The Coal Industry (Restructuring Grants) Order 1995

Made - - - - 6th June 1995

Coming into force - - 9th June 1995

The Secretary of State, in exercise of the powers conferred upon him by section 3(2)(a), (3) and (4)(a) of the Coal Industry Act 1987⁽¹⁾ and with the approval of the Treasury, hereby makes the following Order, a draft of which has been laid before the House of Commons and has been approved by that House in accordance with section 3(10) of that Act:

1. This Order may be cited as the Coal Industry (Restructuring Grants) Order 1995 and shall come into force on the third day after the day on which it is made.

2. In this Order, unless the context otherwise requires—

“the 1995/96 financial year” means the financial year of the British Coal Corporation ending in March 1996;

“the Act” means the Coal Industry Act 1987;

“chargeable costs” means costs which fall to be charged to a consolidated profit and loss account of the Corporation and their subsidiaries prepared in accordance with a direction given under section 8(1) of the Coal Industry Act 1971⁽²⁾ for the 1995/96 financial year;

“the Corporation” means the British Coal Corporation;

“employees” means employees of a relevant company;

“payments” means periodical or lump sum payments;

“relevant company” means the Corporation and their wholly-owned subsidiary British Coal Enterprise Limited and the expression “relevant companies” shall be construed accordingly; and references to payments, contributions or expenditure are references to payments, contributions or expenditure by a relevant company.

3. The 1995/96 financial year shall be a specified financial year for the purposes of section 3(4)(a) of the Act.

(1) 1987 c. 3; section 3(4)(a) has been amended by the Coal Industry Act 1990 (c. 3), section 2(2) and the Coal Industry Act 1992 (c. 17), section 1(2). The Coal Industry Act 1994 (c. 21), section 67(8) and Schedule 11, Part III, provides for the repeal of section 3 of the Coal Industry Act 1987 but the repeal has not yet come into force.

(2) 1971 c. 16. The Coal Industry Act 1994, section 67(8) and Schedule 11, Part IV, provides for the repeal of section 8 but the repeal has not yet come into force.

4. The kinds of expenditure specified in the Schedule to this Order shall be specified kinds of expenditure for the purposes of section 3(2)(a) of the Act in relation to the 1995/96 financial year.

5.—(1) The maximum amount which may be paid under section 3 of the Act by way of grant in respect of the 1995/96 financial year in relation to the kinds of expenditure specified under a Head in the Schedule to this Order is that sum which represents 90 per cent. of—

- (a) the relevant amount of costs specified in paragraph (2) below; or
- (b) if a larger amount has been agreed in respect of those costs for the purposes of section 3(2)(b) of the Act, that larger amount.

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (1)(a) above the relevant amount of costs is—

- (a) in the case of Heads 1 and 5, the total amount of chargeable costs of the relevant companies which are related to the kinds of expenditure specified under the Head in question; and
- (b) in the case of Head 6, the total amount of chargeable costs of the Corporation's wholly-owned subsidiary British Coal Enterprise Limited which are related to the kinds of expenditure specified under that Head less the total amount of any chargeable costs of that subsidiary which are related to the kinds of expenditure specified under Heads 1 and 5.

- (ii) Payments in lieu of notice of dismissal made to persons leaving the employment of a relevant company by virtue of redundancy.
- (iii) Payments made for the purpose of assisting persons who leave the employment of a relevant company by virtue of redundancy or early retirement, being payments made under arrangements established by a relevant company.
- (iv) Payments in respect of the loss of superannuation prospects by persons leaving the employment of a relevant company by virtue of redundancy or early retirement.
- (v) Contributions to superannuation funds maintained by virtue of section 37 of the Coal Industry Nationalisation Act 1946⁽⁴⁾ in respect of any increase in the cost of retirement benefits paid before normal retirement age to persons who leave the employment of a relevant company by virtue of redundancy or early retirement.

Head 5: Retraining

- (vi) Expenditure on the provision of retraining for persons who are to leave or have left the employment of a relevant company by virtue of redundancy or incapacity, being retraining provided under arrangements established by a relevant company.

Head 6: New Employment

- (vii) Payments made under arrangements for the Corporation to reimburse their wholly-owned subsidiary British Coal Enterprise Limited for losses incurred by it in promoting new employment in coal mining areas or new employment for such persons as are mentioned in paragraph (vi) above (whether in such areas or elsewhere).

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order concerns the making of grants by the Secretary of State to the British Coal Corporation under section 3 of the Coal Industry Act 1987 (grants for workforce redeployment and reduction, etc.).

⁽³⁾ 1978 c. 44, section 81(4) was amended by the Employment Act 1982 (c. 46), section 20 and Schedule 2, paragraph 6(2).

⁽⁴⁾ 1946 c. 59. The Coal Industry Act 1994, section 67(8) and Schedule 11, Part III, provide for the repeal of section 37 of the Coal Industry Nationalisation Act 1946 but the repeal has not yet come into force.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

Article 3 specifies the financial year of the Corporation ending in March 1996 as a year in respect of which such grants may be made.

Article 4 provides for the kinds of expenditure specified in the Schedule to the Order to rank as eligible expenditure of the Corporation and their wholly-owned subsidiary British Coal Enterprise Limited in relation to the financial year.

Article 5 sets a limit on the amount which may be advanced in relation to the financial year with respect to each Head of expenditure specified in the Schedule. The limit is 90 per cent. of the relevant costs appearing in the consolidated profit and loss account or 90 per cent. of such larger amount as may be agreed by the Secretary of State and the Corporation with the approval of the Treasury.
