DIPLOMATIC SERVICE

The Consular Fees Order 1995

Made - - - - 28th June 1995
Coming into force - - 20th July 1995

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 28th day of June 1995

Present,

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Her Majesty, in exercise of the powers conferred on Her by section 1(1) of the Consular Fees Act 1980(1) is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

1. This Order may be cited as the Consular Fees Order 1995 and shall come into force on 20th July 1995.

2. In this Order—

- (a) “consular officer” means any person authorised by the Secretary of State to exercise consular functions, or functions in the United Kingdom which correspond with consular functions (including persons who are not, as well as persons who are, consular officers);
- (b) “consular employee” means any person in the administrative or technical service of the consular post or diplomatic mission;
- (c) “consular premises” means the building or parts of buildings used for the purposes of the consular post or diplomatic mission;
- (d) “entry clearance” means a visa, entry certificate, entry permit or other document which, in accordance with the applicable immigration laws or rules, is to be taken as evidence of a person's eligibility for entry into the United Kingdom, a dependency of the United Kingdom, or any other country or territory, as the case may be (but does not include a work permit);
- (e) “replacement passport” means a passport issued in substitution for a valid passport in order to incorporate an addition or amendment thereto.

3. The fees set forth in the table in the Schedule to this Order are prescribed to be levied by consular officers and by marriage officers under the Foreign Marriage Act 1892(2) and the Marriage

(1) 1980 c. 23.

(2) 1892 c. 23.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

with Foreigners Act 1906⁽³⁾ in the execution of their duties, and the said table shall be construed as part of this Order.

4. The following Orders are hereby revoked—

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order revokes and replaces the Consular Fees Order 1994 and the Consular Fees (Amendment) Order 1994. It increases some consular fees by amounts that are intended to meet, to some extent, the increase in the cost of providing the services. The increase is a step towards eventual full cost recovery. The average increase is approximately 60 per cent.

The Order also repeals the fee for issuing an excursion document for travel to France (as this document is no longer issued) and makes new provision for the issuing of a multiple entry clearance valid for one year.
