The Hong Kong (Overseas Public Servants)
(Pension Supplements) Order 1996

Overpayments

10.—(1) In any case where an increase to a pension under the law of Hong Kong which may be taken into account in determining any supplementary payment payable under this Order is granted or revised with retrospective effect, such supplementary payment will be revised accordingly with similar effect and any overpayment to the pensioner as a result may be recovered from him by deduction from any supplementary payments subsequently payable or otherwise.

(2) Where any overpayment has not been recovered within three months of notification, no further supplementary payments shall be made to the pensioner until the amount of the overpayment has been recovered.
