13.—(1) Where an eligible person who has been granted a credited period under regulation 8 receives a termination payment to which this regulation applies—

- (a) his lump sum compensation is only payable if, and to the extent that, after abatement under regulation 12, it exceeds the amount of the termination payment;
- (b) if the termination payment exceeds his lump sum compensation after any such abatement, his annual compensation (after any necessary adjustments under regulations 12, 15, 16, 18 and 19) shall be reduced by the amount of the excess;
- (c) if (apart from paragraph (a)) he is not entitled to receive lump sum compensation, his annual compensation (after any such necessary adjustments) shall be reduced by the amount of the termination payment.

(2) Where—

- (a) the whole or part of the termination payment is received by a person after a period is credited to him under regulation 8; and
- (b) his compensation has not been abated on account of that payment in accordance with paragraph (1), his annual compensation (after any necessary adjustments under regulations 12, 15, 16, 18 and 19) shall be reduced by the amount received in respect of the termination payment.

(3) Where a person’s annual compensation falls to be reduced by an amount under paragraph (1) (b) or (c) or (2), no instalment of annual compensation becomes payable to him until the aggregate of reductions equals that amount.

(4) In this regulation “termination payment” means the aggregate amount of any lump sum payments made to the eligible person by his employing authority in consequence of or as compensation for the loss of his former employment (other than lump sum compensation or any payment which is an excepted payment in relation to that employment), being payments made under an enactment or a contract or arrangement with that authority.

Periodic payments

14.—(1) Where periodic payments are received by a person in respect of any period, annual compensation is only payable to him in respect of that period if, and to the extent that, after any adjustments necessary under regulations 12, 13, 15, 16, 18 and 19 have been made, it exceeds the amount of the aggregate of those periodic payments.

(2) In this regulation, “periodic payment”, in relation to a person, means an instalment of an allowance for life or other period (other than annual compensation under this Part or a payment which is an excepted payment in relation to that employment) granted to him by his employing authority in consequence of or as compensation for the loss of former employment, being an allowance under an enactment or a contract or arrangement with that authority.

Adjustments to compensation: new employment

New employment

15.—(1) Where—

- (a) apart from this regulation and regulation 16, annual compensation is payable to a person; and
- (b) he enters a new employment, the annual compensation shall be reduced in accordance with regulation 16 for so long as he holds that or any other new employment.

(2) Where two or more awards of annual compensation in respect of an eligible person fall to be reduced in accordance with this regulation, each such award shall be reduced in proportion to its amount.

(3) In this regulation and regulation 16, “annual compensation”, in relation to a person, means the annual compensation which would, apart from this regulation and regulation 16, be payable to him under this Part.

(4) In this Part “new employment”, in relation to a person, means employment with a LGPS employer or a relevant Scottish employer which he enters after the material date.

(5) If—

- (a) the person’s contractual hours in a new employment are altered; or
- (b) he is transferred to another post under the same employing authority at an altered remuneration, this regulation applies as if he had again entered a new employment.

Reduction of annual compensation during new employment

16.—(1) If during any period during which a person holds a new employment the aggregate annual rate of—

- (a) annual compensation payable to him;
- (b) remuneration of his new employment; and
- (c) retirement pension payable to him in relation to his former employment, exceeds the annual rate of remuneration of his former employment, then, subject to paragraph (2), the rate of annual compensation payable to him in respect of that period shall be reduced by the amount of the excess.

(2) If concurrently with his former employment and during the period of 12 months ending with the material date a person who is entitled to annual compensation held any other employment with a LGPS employer or a relevant Scottish employer (“concurrent employment”), then, if—

- (a) he ceased to hold the concurrent employment before the material date without having become entitled to receive a retirement pension in relation to it and enters new employment within 12 months after ceasing to hold the concurrent employment; or
- (b) he ceases to hold the concurrent employment on or after the material date without having become so entitled and has later entered new employment, his annual compensation shall only be reduced in relation to his new employment—

- (i) if he spends in the new employment a time materially greater than the time which during the 12 months ending with the day on which he ceased to hold the concurrent employment he spent in that employment; and
 - (ii) if, and to the extent that, the aggregate annual rate mentioned in paragraph (1) exceeds the aggregate of—
 - (I) the annual rate of remuneration of his former employment; and
 - (II) the annual rate of remuneration of the concurrent employment during that year.
 - (3) In this regulation “retirement pension” means—
 - (a) a pension under regulation D5, D6, D7 or D9 of the LGPS Regulations (including an annual pension within the meaning of paragraph 1(2) of Schedule D5 to those Regulations); or
 - (b) an occupational pension.
 - (4) In this regulation “annual compensation”, in relation to a person, means—
 - (a) in paragraph (1)(a), the annual compensation payable to him under regulation 10; and
 - (b) elsewhere, the annual compensation which would, apart from regulation 15 and this regulation, be payable to him under these Regulations.
 - (5) For the purposes of this regulation, references to the “annual rate” of retirement pension or of the remuneration of a former employment or concurrent employment are references to the annual rate of such a pension or remuneration with official increases.
 - (6) In paragraph (5) “official increases”, in relation to a pension or remuneration, means the increases (if any) by which an annual pension of an amount equal to the annual rate of that pension or remuneration would have been increased under the Pensions (Increase) Act 1971⁽²⁴⁾ during the period ending with the day immediately preceding the day on which the person in question entered the new employment, on the assumption—
 - (a) that that pension were specified in Part II of Schedule 2 to that Act and began for the purposes of that Act on the day the pension actually began or, as the case may be, the next day after that on which he ceased to hold the employment; and
 - (b) that he had on that day attained the age of 55.
 - (7) In calculating the annual rate of remuneration of a former, concurrent or new employment, paragraph 5 of Schedule D5 to the LGPS Regulations (re-employed pensioners) shall apply on the relevant assumptions—
 - (a) as if a former or concurrent employment were a former employment, and a new employment were a new employment, within the meaning of that paragraph; and
 - (b) with respect to paragraph 5(1)(a), as if the source of entitlement were the LGPS Regulations;
- but, in relation to a period of special service, paragraph 5(2)(b) of that Schedule shall have effect as if the words “or he made” onwards were omitted.

Cessation of new employment

17.—(1) Where—

- (a) a person who has been granted a credited period under regulation 8 has ceased to hold a new employment in which he was a LGPS member or an assumed member; and
- (b) the aggregate of—

(24) 1971 c. 56.

(i) the total period of membership (to be taken into account under the LGPS Regulations in the calculation of his retirement pension on cessation of his new employment, on the relevant assumptions); and

(ii) the period of residual entitlement which he has to his credit, exceeds the total period of membership which would have been so taken into account if he had held his former employment until his 65th birthday, his annual compensation shall be abated in accordance with regulation 18.

(2) Where a period of pre-material date extra service has been granted to a person, paragraph (1) (b) has effect with the substitution for the reference to former employment—

(a) if it has been granted in respect of one cessation of employment which occurred before the material date, of a reference to that employment; and

(b) if it has been granted to him in respect of more than one such cessation, of a reference to the first such employment to cease.

(3) The abatement under paragraph (1) shall have effect from the day the person in question becomes entitled to receive benefits under Part D of the LGPS Regulations in relation to his new employment (or but for a relevant disqualification and on the relevant assumptions would become so entitled).

(4) For the purposes of paragraph (1), the total period of membership of a person includes membership which, but for this paragraph, would be excluded by virtue of paragraph 4(7) of Schedule B6 to the LGPS Regulations (exclusion of periods in respect of which transfer values paid).

(5) In this regulation “annual compensation”, in relation to a person, means the compensation payable to him under regulation 10—

(a) after any necessary adjustments under regulations 12 and 19; and

(b) in a case where he has held a previous new employment (that is to say, a new employment which ceased before cessation of the new employment referred to in paragraph (1)), after any necessary adjustments under this regulation made as respects that previous new employment, but disregarding any reduction under regulation 18(3).

(6) For the purposes of paragraph (1), a person has to his credit a period of residual entitlement equal to the aggregate of—

(a) any period of pre-material date extra service granted to him, reduced as may be necessary in accordance with paragraph (7); and

(b) his credited period, reduced as may be necessary in accordance with paragraph (8).

(7) Where—

(a) after the first cessation of employment in respect of which a period of pre-material date extra service was granted to him a person has ceased to hold another employment; and

(b) his pre-material date extra service has been reduced by, or his compensation or benefit attributable to such a period has been reduced on account of, the period of that other employment or a part of it (“the reduction period”), his pre-material date extra service shall, for the purposes of paragraph (6)(a), be reduced by the reduction period.

(8) Where there has been an abatement of a person’s annual compensation in accordance with this regulation on account of a period of previous new employment or a part of such a period (“the abatement period”), then for the purposes of paragraph (6)(b) the length of his credited period shall be reduced by the abatement period.

(9) In this regulation “pre-material date extra service” has the meaning given in regulation 8(3)(b).

Reduction of annual compensation on cessation of new employment

18.—(1) The abatement in a person's annual compensation referred to in regulation 17(1) is its reduction by an annual sum equal to the relevant fraction of the amount calculated in accordance with paragraph (5); and the amount of the annual compensation as so reduced is in this regulation referred to as "reduced annual compensation".

(2) Subject to paragraphs (3) and (5), the reduced annual compensation is payable to the person in question in lieu of his annual compensation (as defined in regulation 17(5)).

(3) Where on cessation of his former employment a person became entitled to lump sum compensation, his reduced annual compensation shall be further reduced by an amount ("the abatement amount") equal to the relevant fraction of the amount calculated in accordance with paragraph (5), so that no instalment of reduced annual compensation becomes payable to him until the aggregate of reductions equals the abatement amount.

(4) In this regulation "the relevant fraction" means the fraction, ascertained in accordance with regulation D2 of the LGPS Regulations, which was the fraction used—

- (a) in the case of paragraph (1), in determining the increase in pension mentioned in regulation 10(2) for the purpose of determining the rate of the annual compensation; or
- (b) in the case of paragraph (3), in determining the increase in grant mentioned in regulation 9(2) for the purpose of determining the lump sum compensation.

(5) The amount to be calculated in accordance with this paragraph is an amount equal to the product of—

- (a) the smaller of—
 - (i) the pensionable remuneration of the person's former employment; and
 - (ii) the pensionable remuneration of his new employment (after deducting the notional indexed increase); and
 - (b) the shortest of—
 - (i) his credited period;
 - (ii) the total period of membership to be taken into account in relation to his new employment (as described in regulation 17(1)(b)(i)); and
 - (iii) the period of excess referred to in regulation 17(1)(b);
- and for the purposes of paragraph (b) periods shall be expressed in years and fractions of a year.

(6) For the purposes of paragraph (5), the notional indexed increase, in relation to the pensionable remuneration of a person's new employment, is such proportion of it as the aggregate of any increases which would have been awarded in respect of the relevant period under the Pensions (Increase) Act 1971⁽²⁵⁾ on an official pension of £100 a year which commenced from the first day of the relevant period, bears to the amount of an official pension of £100 as so increased.

(7) In paragraph (6) "the relevant period" means the period beginning with the day following cessation of the former employment and ending with the day the person becomes entitled (or but for a relevant disqualification and on the relevant assumptions would become entitled) to a retirement pension in respect of the new employment (notwithstanding that the right to the payment of such pension may be deferred).

(25) 1971 c. 56.

Surrenders

Allocation of part of annual compensation

19.—(1) Where an eligible person who has been granted a credited period under regulation 8 has been allowed, in accordance with regulation D14 of the LGPS Regulations, to surrender a part of the retirement pension to which he would otherwise be entitled on ceasing to hold his former employment (“the surrendered part”), he may give notice to his employing authority that he wishes this regulation to apply to him.

(2) Notice under paragraph (1) must be given by a person before the expiry of the period of one month beginning—

- (a) in the case of a person who has not entered a new employment, with—
 - (i) the date on which he is given notification under regulation 27(a) of the grant of the credited period; or
 - (ii) his NRD,
 whichever is the later;
- (b) if he has entered new employment, with—
 - (i) the date on which that employment ceases;
 - (ii) the date on which he is given notification under regulation 27(c) of any adjustment made by reason of that cessation; or
 - (iii) his NRD,
 whichever is the latest.

(3) A person who duly gives notice under this regulation may surrender any part of his annual compensation (not exceeding the surrendered pension percentage), on the like terms and conditions and for the like consideration as if his annual compensation were a retirement pension to which he had become entitled by virtue of regulation D6(2)(a) of the LGPS Regulations (early retirement on redundancy etc).

(4) In paragraph (3) “the surrendered pension percentage”, in relation to any person, means the same percentage as the surrendered part of the retirement pension is of the retirement pension to which he would be entitled apart from the surrender.

(5) In this regulation “annual compensation”, in relation to any person, means the compensation payable under regulation 10, adjusted as may be necessary—

- (a) in accordance with regulation 12;
- (b) if he is a person to whom such an allowance for life as is mentioned in paragraph (2) of regulation 14 has been granted, in accordance with that regulation; and
- (c) in accordance with regulation 18 (but disregarding any reduction under regulation 18(3)).

(6) In the case of a person to whom regulation D14 of the LGPS Regulations does not apply because of a relevant disqualification—

- (a) paragraph (1) shall have effect as if he had been allowed to surrender as mentioned in that paragraph; and
- (b) the annual compensation which he is entitled to surrender in accordance with paragraph (3) shall be such part as he may specify in the notice required under paragraph (1).

Awards to surviving spouses

Entitlement to surviving spouse's short-term and long-term compensation

20.—(1) This regulation applies where an eligible person who has been granted a credited period under regulation 8 dies and is survived by a spouse or spouses—

- (a) who is or, as the case may be, who are jointly entitled to receive a pension under Part F of the LGPS Regulations (surviving spouses' pensions) in relation to the deceased's former employment; or
- (b) who would be so entitled apart from—
 - (i) a relevant disqualification with respect to the deceased (and on the relevant assumptions); or
 - (ii) the transfer of benefits to another pension scheme.

(2) Where this regulation applies the surviving spouse is or, as the case may be, the surviving spouses are jointly entitled to receive—

- (a) surviving spouse's short-term compensation—
 - (i) in the case of a surviving spouse who has (or one of whose spouse's other surviving spouses has) one or more eligible children in his care, for the period of six months after the date of the death; and
 - (ii) otherwise, for the period of three months after that date; and
- (b) after that period, surviving spouse's long-term compensation;

and where surviving spouses are jointly entitled to compensation under this regulation, the employing authority may decide how it shall be apportioned between them.

(3) If the marriage with the deceased took place after the material date, a surviving spouse is only entitled to receive surviving spouse's short-term or long-term compensation calculated as if the amount of the eligible person's compensation were determined by reference only to the period by reference to which surviving spouse's pension is determined by virtue of regulation F6(2) or, as the case may be, regulation F8(2) of the LGPS Regulations (or would be so determined apart from the matters mentioned in paragraph (1)(b)); and for the purposes of this paragraph it shall be assumed that, where any entitlement depends on an exercise of discretion on the part of any person, he has exercised that discretion in such a manner as to result in entitlement to the maximum benefit.

(4) Except where paragraph (5) applies, a surviving spouse who is entitled to short-term or long-term compensation by virtue of this regulation—

- (a) is not so entitled during any subsequent marriage or any period of cohabitation outside marriage; and
- (b) is entitled to surviving spouse's long-term compensation from the end of any such marriage or period only if the employing authority in their discretion so decide.

(5) Where a widower and a widow each of whom is entitled to short-term or long-term compensation under this regulation marry each other or cohabit with each other outside marriage—

- (a) only such one of them as they may determine shall be so entitled; and
- (b) the other shall cease to be so entitled until the end of the marriage or cohabitation.

Amount of surviving spouse's short-term and long-term compensation

21.—(1) Surviving spouse's short-term compensation is payable at an annual rate equal to the rate at which any annual compensation would have been payable to the deceased in accordance with these Regulations immediately before his death if there were disregarded any adjustment in accordance with regulation 13, 14 or 18(3).

(2) Surviving spouse's long-term compensation is the relevant fraction of any annual compensation which would have been payable to the deceased in accordance with these Regulations immediately before his death—

(a) if there were disregarded—

(i) any adjustment in accordance with regulation 12, 13, 14, 18(3) or 19;

(ii) in a case where at the time of the deceased's death, the deceased was in a new employment in which he was not a LGPS member, any adjustment in accordance with regulations 15 and 16; and

(b) in a case where at the date of death the deceased was in a new employment in which he was a LGPS member, if that annual compensation were reduced in accordance with regulation 18 on the assumption that the total period of membership referred to in regulation 18(5)(b)(ii) were the membership which the deceased would have been entitled to count as membership on the relevant assumptions if at the date of death the deceased had been such a person as is mentioned in regulation D7(1)(b) of the LGPS Regulations.

(3) In paragraph (2) "the relevant fraction" means—

(a) if the deceased was entitled to receive compensation under regulation 9, one half; and

(b) otherwise, three eighths.

(4) Where a surviving spouse receives periodic payments in respect of any period, surviving spouse's short-term or long-term compensation is only payable in respect of that period if, and to the extent that, it exceeds the amount of the aggregate of those periodic payments.

(5) In paragraph (4) "periodic payment" means an instalment of an allowance for life or other period (other than annual compensation under these Regulations) granted to the surviving spouse by the deceased's employing authority, in consequence of or as compensation for the loss of the deceased's former employment, under an enactment, or a contract or arrangement with that authority (excluding a payment which is an excepted payment in relation to that employment).

Awards to surviving children

Entitlement to children's short-term compensation

22.—(1) This regulation applies where an eligible person who has been granted a credited period under regulation 8 dies and is survived by an eligible child or children—

(a) who is or are entitled to receive a children's short-term pension under regulation G4 or G7 of the LGPS Regulations in relation to the deceased's former employment; or

(b) who would be so entitled apart from—

(i) a relevant disqualification with respect to the deceased (and on the relevant assumptions); or

(ii) the transfer of benefits to another pension scheme.

(2) Where this regulation applies, children's short-term compensation is payable to or for the benefit of such eligible child or eligible children as are mentioned in paragraph (1)—

(a) if a children's short-term pension under regulation G4 or G7 of the LGPS Regulations is payable for the period of 3 months beginning with the date of the death, for that period; and

(b) otherwise, for the period of 6 months beginning with that date.

(3) Children's short-term compensation is not payable in respect of a period for which surviving spouse's short-term compensation is payable to the surviving spouse of the deceased.

Amount of children's short-term compensation

23.—(1) Children's short-term compensation is payable at an annual rate equal to the rate at which any annual compensation would have been payable to the deceased in accordance with these Regulations immediately before his death, disregarding any adjustment in accordance with regulation 13, 14 or 18(3).

(2) Where periodic payments are received in respect of a child in respect of any period, children's short-term compensation is only payable in respect of that child and that period if, and to the extent that, it exceeds the amount of the aggregate of those periodic payments.

(3) In paragraph (2) "periodic payment" means an instalment of an allowance for life or other period (other than annual compensation under these Regulations) granted to or in respect of the child by the deceased's employing authority, in consequence of or as compensation for the loss of the deceased's former employment, under an enactment, or a contract or arrangement with that authority (excluding a payment which is an excepted payment in relation to that employment).

Entitlement to children's long-term compensation

24.—(1) This regulation applies where an eligible person who has been granted a credited period under regulation 8 dies and is survived by an eligible child or children—

- (a) in respect of whom there is an entitlement to receive a children's long-term pension under regulation G3, G5 or G6 of the LGPS Regulations in relation to the deceased's former employment; or
- (b) in respect of whom there would be such an entitlement apart from—
 - (i) a relevant disqualification with respect to the deceased (and on the relevant assumptions); or
 - (ii) the transfer of benefits to another pension scheme.

(2) Where this regulation applies, children's long-term compensation is payable to or for the benefit of such eligible child or eligible children—

- (a) if a children's long-term pension under regulation G3, G5 or G6 of the LGPS Regulations is payable following the expiry of the period of 3 months beginning with the date of death, from the day following the expiration of that period; or
- (b) otherwise, from the day following the expiry of the period of 6 months beginning with the date of death.

Amount of children's long-term compensation

25.—(1) Children's long-term compensation is payable at an annual rate equal to the appropriate fraction of the deceased's annual compensation.

(2) In paragraph (1) "the appropriate fraction" means—

- (a) where there is a surviving spouse to whom surviving spouse's short-term compensation or long-term compensation is payable (or would be payable apart from regulation 20(4))—
 - (i) if there is one eligible child, one quarter; and
 - (ii) if there are two or more eligible children one half;
- (b) where there is no such surviving spouse or in respect of any period after the death of such a surviving spouse—

- (i) if there is one eligible child, one third; and
- (ii) if there are two or more eligible children, two thirds.

(3) For the purposes of paragraph (1), “the deceased’s annual compensation” means any annual compensation which would have been payable to the deceased in accordance with these Regulations immediately before his death—

- (a) if there were disregarded—
 - (i) any adjustment in accordance with regulation 12, 13, 14, 18(3) or 19; and
 - (ii) in a case where at the time of the deceased’s death, the deceased was in a new employment in which he was not a LGPS member, any adjustment in accordance with regulation 15 and 16; and
- (b) in a case where at the time of the deceased’s death, the deceased was in a new employment in which he was a LGPS member, if that annual compensation were reduced in accordance with regulation 18, on the assumption that the total period of membership referred to in regulation 18(5)(b)(ii) were the membership which he would have been entitled to reckon as membership on the relevant assumptions if he had been, at the time of his death, a person such as is mentioned in regulation D7(1)(b) of the LGPS Regulations.

(4) Where periodic payments (as defined in regulation 23(3)) are received in respect of a child in respect of any period, children’s long-term compensation is only payable in respect of that child and that period if, and to the extent that, it exceeds the amount of the aggregate of those periodic payments.

(5) If an eligible child to whom, or for whose benefit, children’s long-term compensation is payable—

- (a) has attained the age of 17; and
- (b) is in receipt of remuneration in respect of full-time training for a trade, profession or calling at an annual rate in excess of the indexed training rate,

then—

- (i) the annual rate of the children’s long-term compensation shall be reduced by an amount equal to the amount of that excess (less any reduction made in the children’s long-term pension in respect of that excess under regulation G10(1) of the LGPS Regulations); or
- (ii) if it would result in a smaller reduction of the children’s long-term compensation, that child shall be disregarded for the purpose of calculating the amount of that compensation.

(6) In paragraph (5)(b) “the indexed training rate” means the annual rate at which an official pension would for the time being be payable if it had begun on 1st April 1994 and had then been payable at an annual rate of £1,450.

Payment of children’s compensation

26.—(1) In a case where children’s compensation is payable in respect of children in relation to whom children’s short-term pension or children’s long-term pension is paid under regulation G11 of the LGPS Regulations (discretions as to payment of children’s pensions), children’s compensation—

- (a) is payable to the same person; and
- (b) is payable for the benefit of the eligible children in the same proportions, as the children’s pension is payable.

(2) If children’s short-term pension or children’s long-term pension is not paid under regulation G11 of the LGPS Regulations because—

- (a) of a relevant disqualification with respect to the deceased; or

(b) of the transfer of benefits to another pension scheme, but otherwise (and on the relevant assumptions) it would be so payable, the employing authority shall decide to whom the children's compensation is payable and in what shares it is to be apportioned amongst the eligible children.

- (a) the grant of a credited period to any person under regulation 8;

- (b) verify that information in such manner, including by the production of documents in his possession or control, as may be reasonably so required.

Payment of compensation

29.—(1) Compensation (other than lump sum compensation) which is payable to a person under this Part shall be payable at intervals equivalent to those at which his pension is payable under the LGPS Regulations (or would have been so payable but for a relevant disqualification and on the relevant assumptions or, as the case may be, the transfer of benefits to another pension scheme), or at such other intervals as may be agreed between him and the paying authority.

(2) Without prejudice to any statutory provision to the contrary, any compensation payable under this Part—

- (a) shall be payable to or in trust for the person entitled to receive the compensation; and
- (b) shall not be assignable or chargeable with his debts or other liabilities.

(3) Where any compensation under this Part is paid in error to any person (including an overpayment)—

- (b) the paying authority may recover it from him (including, but without prejudice to any other means of recovery, by deducting it from any compensation payable to or in respect of him under this Part).

(4) In this regulation “the paying authority” means the authority who, in accordance with regulation 31, pay the compensation.

Interest on sums due under Part III

30.—(1) Where all or part of any sum due under this Part by way of compensation is not paid before the expiry of the relevant period after the date on which it becomes payable, the paying authority shall pay the person to whom the sum is payable interest on the amount remaining unpaid, calculated at one per cent. above base rate on a day to day basis from that date to the date of payment, and compounded with three-monthly rests.

(2) In paragraph (1) “the relevant period” means—

- (a) in the case of compensation payable in the form of a lump sum, one month; and
- (b) in the case of other compensation, one year.

31.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2), compensation payable under this Part shall be paid by the employing authority.

(2) The appropriate authority in relation to any person who is entitled to any compensation under this Part may agree with the employing authority to pay any compensation arising in respect of that person (other than compensation payable in the form of a lump sum) on their behalf, and to recover the amount from them within a period of two months from the payment.

(3) In paragraph (2) the reference to the appropriate authority, in relation to any person, is a reference to the authority who are the administering authority in relation to him for the purposes of the LGPS Regulations or who would be that authority in relation to him but for a relevant disqualification and on the relevant assumptions.

PART IV

OTHER COMPENSATION FOR REDUNDANCY

Compensation for redundancy where Part III does not apply

32.—(1) This Part applies where any person who is or is eligible to be a LGPS member—

- (a) ceases to hold his employment with a LGPS employer—
 - (i) by reason of redundancy; or
 - (ii) in the interests of the efficient exercise of that employer’s functions;
- (b) is not in respect of that loss of employment—
 - (i) entitled to have his case considered for the payment of compensation under Part III; or
 - (ii) disentitled to a redundancy payment under Part VI of the 1978 Act by virtue of section 142(2) of that Act (agreements to exclude rights to redundancy payments on expiry of short fixed term contracts);
- (c) is entitled to count a qualifying employment amounting—
 - (i) in the case of a person who on the material date has attained the age of 18 but not the age of 50, to at least 2 years; and
 - (ii) in the case of a person who on that date has attained the age of 50, to less than 2 years; and

- (d) is not a person to whom Part III of the Local Government (Compensation for Redundancy) Regulations 1994⁽²⁶⁾ applies.

(2) In determining for the purposes of paragraph (1) whether a person is eligible to be a LGPS member, the fact—

- (a) that his contract of employment is not for at least 35 weeks a year; or
- (b) that notice has been given to him under regulation B2(2) of the LGPS Regulations (discretion for employers to notify employees who are not members when they attain the age of 50 of ineligibility), shall be disregarded.

(3) Where this Part applies, the LGPS employer may before the end of the period of six months beginning with the material date determine to pay compensation of an amount not exceeding a sum equivalent to 66 weeks' pay or, if it is less—

- (a) in the case of an employee who has attained the age of 18 but not 20 on that date, one half weeks' pay for each complete year of qualifying employment after attaining the age of 18;
- (b) in the case of an employee who has attained the age of 20 but not 23 on that date, one half weeks' pay—
 - (i) for each complete year of qualifying employment after attaining the age of 18; and
 - (ii) for each complete year of qualifying employment after attaining the age of 20;
- (c) in the case of an employee who has attained the age of 23 but not 41 on that date, two weeks' pay for each complete year of qualifying employment after attaining the age of 18;
- (d) in the case of an employee who has attained the age of 41 on that date—
 - (i) two weeks' pay for each complete year of qualifying employment after attaining the age of 18; and
 - (ii) three weeks' pay for each complete year of qualifying employment after attaining the age of 41.

(4) If any redundancy payment is made to the employee, an amount equivalent to it shall be deducted from the amount of the compensation otherwise payable to him under this Part.

(5) After making a determination under paragraph (3) in respect of a person, a LGPS employer shall as soon as is reasonably practicable give him written notification of the compensation payable, giving details of the calculation in question.

(6) Without prejudice to any statutory provision to the contrary, any compensation payable under this Part—

- (a) shall be paid by the LGPS employer, as soon as practicable after making a determination under paragraph (3), in the form of a lump sum payment to or in trust for the person entitled to receive the compensation; and
- (b) shall not be assignable or chargeable with his debts or other liabilities.

(7) Schedule 14 to the 1978 Act⁽²⁷⁾ (calculation of normal working hours or a weeks' pay) shall apply for the purposes of calculating a weeks' pay for the purposes of this Part, but with the omission of paragraphs 7 and 8(1)(c) and the substitution for references to the calculation date of references to the material date.

⁽²⁷⁾ Schedule 14 was amended by the Employment Act 1980 (c. 42), s.20(2), Sch. 1, paragraph 33; the Trade Union Reform and Employment Rights Act 1993 (c. 19), Sch. 8, paragraph 32; S.I. 1995/1953 Art. 3, Sch. paragraphs 8 to 10; 1995/2587, reg. 13(6).

(8) For the purpose of calculating the compensation payable to a person under this Part, the LGPS employer shall not include any years of qualifying employment which they or a previous LGPS employer had taken into account in calculating compensation which has been paid to him previously under these Regulations or other regulations made under section 24 of the 1972 Act⁽²⁸⁾ (except for concurrent qualifying employment).

(9) No period of qualifying employment which has been taken into account in calculating compensation paid under this Part may be taken into account for the purposes of calculating compensation to be paid under these Regulations or other regulations made under that section (except, in the case of a calculation by a LGPS employer, for concurrent qualifying employment).

(10) In this Part—

“concurrent qualifying employment”, in relation to a calculation by a LGPS employer, means qualifying employment with that employer which is concurrent with qualifying employment with that or another LGPS employer;

“excluded employment” means a period of employment—

- (a) in an independent school (within the meaning of section 114(1) of the Education Act 1944⁽²⁹⁾); or
- (b) in relation to which a pension or other benefits (other than a refund of contributions) are being or have been paid under an occupational pension scheme;

“qualifying employment”, in relation to an employee, means a period of employment (other than excluded employment) in relation to which the LGPS employer is satisfied that the employee was in local government employment (within the meaning of the LGPS Regulations) or pensionable employment (within the meaning of the Teachers Superannuation (Consolidation) Regulations 1988⁽³⁰⁾ or of the National Health Service Pension Scheme Regulations 1995⁽³¹⁾) or was in employment which would have been such employment but for a relevant disqualification;

“relevant disqualification”, in relation to an occupational pension scheme which applies to qualifying employment, means any of the following reasons in consequence of which (either alone or taken together) a person has not become, has ceased to be or has not been treated as being eligible for membership of the scheme, namely—

- (a) the failure of a medical examination required for such membership;
- (b) the making of any election to opt out of or the absence of an election to opt into such membership with respect to any period of employment;
- (c) a restriction excluding some part-time employment from being employment to which the scheme applies;
- (d) in the case of the Scheme—
 - (i) ineligibility under regulation B2(2) of the LGPS Regulations; or
 - (ii) in the case of a manual worker, failure to complete a period of continuous employment required for membership;

and other expressions used in this Part and in Part III have the same meaning as in that Part.

PART V

INJURY ALLOWANCES ETC.

Interpretation of Part V

33.—(1) In this Part, unless the context otherwise requires, “relevant employment”, in relation to any person, means employment—

- (a) with a LGPS employer (other than a passenger transport executive) or the predecessor of such an employer; or
- (b) in which the person is, by virtue of regulation B7 of the LGPS Regulations (admission agreements) or any corresponding earlier provision, entitled to participate in the benefits of a pension fund maintained under those Regulations or the former regulations; and for the purposes of this Part a police cadet appointed under section 17 of the Police Act 1964⁽³²⁾ shall be deemed to be in employment with the police authority who maintain the force with which he is undergoing training.

(2) In this Part “the relevant employer”, in relation to any person, means—

- (a) the employer by whom the person in question was employed immediately before he first qualifies for any allowance or lump sum payable under this Part;
- (b) if he dies without qualifying for any such allowance or lump sum, the employer who last employed him in a relevant employment before his death; or
- (c) if the employer specified in paragraph (a) or (b) has ceased to exist, the employer to whom he would have been transferred if he had continued in the employment in question.

(3) References in this Part to an injury or disease do not include any injury or disease which is one in respect of which the person is entitled—

- (a) to an injury award under a scheme made in accordance with section 26 of the Fire Services Act 1947⁽³³⁾; or
- (b) to injury benefits under regulations made in accordance with section 35 of the Police Act 1964.

(4) For the purposes of this Part, if a person—

- (a) sustains an injury while travelling as a passenger by vehicle to or from his place of work with his employer’s permission (whether express or implied); and
- (b) at the time of the injury the vehicle was being operated (otherwise than in the course of a public transport service) by or on behalf of, or pursuant to arrangements made by, his employer, he shall be treated as having sustained the injury as a result of a requirement of carrying out his work.

Loss of employment through permanent incapacity

34.—(1) If—

- (a) as a result of anything he was required to do in carrying out his work a person who is employed in a relevant employment—
 - (i) sustains an injury; or

⁽³²⁾ 1964 c. 48. Section 17 was amended by the Police and Magistrates' Courts Act 1994 (c. 29), Sch. 5, paragraph 3, Sch. 9.
⁽³³⁾ 1947 c. 41 (10 and 11 Geo 6 c.41). Section 26 was amended by the Reserve and Auxiliary Forces (Protection of Civil Interests) Act 1951 (c. 65), s.42; the Fire Services Act 1951 (c. 27), s.1(3); the Theft Act 1968 (c. 60) s.33; the Superannuation Act 1972 (c. 11) Sch. 8; the Social Security Act 1973 (c. 38) Sch. 27, paragraph 6; S.I. 1976/551.

(ii) contracts a disease; and

(b) he ceases to be employed in that or any other relevant employment as a result of an incapacity which is likely to be permanent and was caused by the injury or disease, he shall be entitled to an annual allowance not exceeding 85 per cent. of his annual rate of remuneration in respect of the employment when he ceased to be employed.

(2) The allowance is to be paid by the relevant employer and, subject to paragraph (1), is to be of such amount as that employer may from time to time determine.

(3) In ascertaining for the purposes of paragraph (1) a person's annual rate of remuneration when he ceased to be employed—

- (a) the annual rate of any fluctuating element included in his remuneration is to be estimated by reference to an average taken over a representative period;
- (b) the annual rate of any benefit in kind included in his remuneration is to be the estimated annual value of the benefit in kind as at the date on which he ceased to be employed;
- (c) if at that date—
 - (i) he had no remuneration; or
 - (ii) his remuneration was reduced because of absence from duty, the annual rate is that which would have applied if he had not been absent;
- (d) if at that date he was entitled to an allowance under regulation 35 by reason of a reduction in his remuneration (whether as a result of the same or another injury or disease), the annual rate is that which would have applied if his remuneration had not been reduced;
- (e) if his remuneration is calculated by reference to a rate which is not annual, the annual rate is to be derived from the applicable rate at that date; and
- (f) if his remuneration is retrospectively altered as a result of a pay award, the annual rate is that based on the award.

(4) The relevant employer may suspend or discontinue the allowance under this regulation if the person becomes capable of working again.

Reduction in remuneration

35.—(1) If—

- (a) as a result of anything he was required to do in carrying out his work a person who is employed in a relevant employment—
 - (i) sustains an injury; or
 - (ii) contracts a disease, and suffers a reduction in his remuneration while he is employed in that or any other relevant employment; and
- (b) regulation 34 does not apply, he shall be entitled to an allowance while the reduction continues.

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (1), a person's remuneration is to be treated as reduced at any time when it is lower than it would have been but for the injury or disease.

(3) The allowance under paragraph (1) is to be paid by the relevant employer and is to be of such amount as the employer may from time to time determine, but must not in any year exceed the shortfall between—

- (a) the person's remuneration in the relevant employment; and

- (b) the remuneration he would have been paid if he had not sustained the injury or, as the case may be, contracted the disease.

Allowances for pensioners

36.—(1) Where a person ceases to be employed in a relevant employment, if—

- (a) immediately before so ceasing he was entitled to an allowance under regulation 35;
- (b) on so ceasing regulation 34 does not apply, but he becomes entitled under Part D of the LGPS Regulations to receive payments in respect of an annual retirement pension and paragraph 4(1) of Schedule D1 to those Regulations (different relevant period for calculating pensionable remuneration where a material reduction has been certified) does not apply; and
- (c) the annual rate of the retirement pension in any year falls short of what it would have been if the amount of the allowance paid under regulation 35 during the period which is the relevant period for the purposes of regulation D1 of the LGPS Regulations had been part of his remuneration in the relevant employment, the relevant employer may pay him an allowance (but not of an amount in any year exceeding that shortfall).

(2) An allowance under this regulation continues for such period as the relevant employer may determine.

Death benefits

37.—(1) If—

- (a) as a result of anything he was required to do in carrying out his work a person who is employed in a relevant employment—
 - (i) sustains an injury; or
 - (ii) contracts a disease; and
- (b) he dies as a result of the injury or disease,

then—

- (i) subject to paragraph (2), if the deceased leaves a surviving spouse or spouses, the surviving spouse or all of them shall be entitled to an annual allowance or lump sum; and
- (ii) if the deceased leaves a dependant, the dependant shall be eligible for an annual allowance or lump sum.

(2) A surviving spouse shall not be entitled to an annual allowance or lump sum if at the date of death he was cohabiting with another person outside marriage.

(3) The allowance or lump sum is to be paid by the relevant employer and is to be of such amount as the employer may from time to time determine.

(4) Subject to paragraph (5), an allowance to a surviving spouse shall cease if he remarries or cohabits with another person outside marriage, but if that marriage is dissolved or the cohabitation ceases the relevant employer may restore the allowance for such period as the employer may determine.

(5) Where the person whom the surviving spouse marries or with whom he cohabits is also a surviving spouse entitled to an allowance under this regulation, they may determine which of them is to be entitled to the allowance and the other shall cease to be entitled to it until the dissolution of the marriage or, as the case may be, the ending of the cohabitation.

(6) An allowance to a dependant shall continue for such period as the relevant employer may determine.

Considerations in determining amount of benefits

38.—(1) In determining the amount of an allowance under regulation 34 or 35 or of an allowance or a lump sum under regulation 37, the relevant employer is to have regard to all the circumstances of the case, including the matters specified in paragraph (2) (except in so far as they are excluded by paragraph (3)).

(2) The matters mentioned in paragraph (1) are—

- (a) any right to benefit under Part V of the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992⁽³⁴⁾;
- (b) any other statutory right to benefit or compensation;
- (c) any right to receive pension benefit (whether payable under an enactment or otherwise); and
- (d) any damages recovered and any sum received by virtue of a contract of insurance.

(3) In the case of an allowance or a lump sum which is payable by virtue of a person having sustained an injury, no regard shall be had—

- (a) to any benefit payable periodically which the person was entitled to be paid before the injury was sustained;
- (b) to any right which accrued before that time; or
- (c) to any damages or sum received by virtue of such a right.

PART VI

GRATUITIES AS RESPECTS NON-PENSIONABLE SERVICE

Meaning of “service” in Part VI

39.—(1) In this Part, unless the context otherwise requires, “service” is to be construed in accordance with this regulation.

(2) A person’s service is the time spent by him in employment with any LGPS employer or former local authority which is not excluded by paragraph (3).

(3) Subject to paragraph (4), a person’s service does not include any period—

- (a) before he attained the age of 16 or after he attained the age of 70;
- (b) in excess of a total of 40 years;
- (c) in respect of which a gratuity has been granted under a local Act, section 18 of the Local Government Superannuation Act 1953⁽³⁵⁾, the former Regulations, the 1974 Regulations, the 1986 Regulations, Part III of the Local Government (Compensation for Redundancy) Regulations 1994⁽³⁶⁾ or these Regulations;
- (d) during which he is not a LGPS member by virtue of a failure to apply under regulation B10(1) of the LGPS Regulations (application for membership) or notification under regulation B10(2) or B12 of those Regulations (which provide respectively for notifications that a person does not wish to become, or, as the case may be, wishes to cease to be a member), or any corresponding act or omission under the 1986 Regulations, unless—

- (i) he was employed by a LGPS employer on 1st April 1987 and had attained the age of 55 before that date; or
- (ii) he was so employed on 17th August 1993, had attained the age of 50 before that date and immediately before that date was disqualified from being a LGPS member because his contractual hours were fewer than 15;
- (e) in respect of which he has retained rights in a scheme which was a relevant scheme for the purposes of regulation G14 of the 1974 Regulations; or
- (f) which has been or may be taken into account for the purpose of calculating any benefit under the Scheme or any other public service scheme, or which, but for an election by that person on or after 6th April 1988 not to participate in the benefits of such a scheme, might have been so taken into account.

(4) Where regulation 40(1) applies, service includes periods before 1st April 1987 of the kinds mentioned in paragraph (3)(e) and (f).

(5) In paragraph (3)(f) “public service scheme” means a water company scheme within the meaning of the 1986 Regulations, the Universities' Superannuation Scheme and any occupational pension scheme—

- (a) which cannot come into force, or be amended, without the scheme or amendment being approved by a Minister of the Crown or government department; and
- (b) which includes provisions for any such whole-time service as is described in regulation F2(1) of the 1986 Regulations, rendered by a person before he becomes entitled to participate in the scheme, to be reckonable as service in respect of which benefits are payable under the scheme.

(6) In paragraph (5) “occupational pension scheme” means any scheme or arrangement comprised in one or more instruments or agreements and having effect (or being capable of having effect) in relation to one or more descriptions or categories of employments so as to provide benefits, in the form of pensions or otherwise, payable on termination of service, on death or on retirement, to or in respect of earners with qualifying service in an employment of any such description or category.

Death in service gratuities

40.—(1) Where a person who has been employed by a LGPS employer for not less than one year dies while in their employment, the LGPS employer may make a discretionary grant (“a death benefit gratuity”) to one or more of the person’s spouse and dependants.

(2) A death benefit gratuity may consist of a lump sum or an annuity or both.

(3) The amount of a death benefit gratuity (including the capital value of any annuity) or, in a case where the gratuity is paid to more than one person, the aggregate amount of such gratuity must not exceed the prescribed maximum.

(4) In this regulation “the prescribed maximum” means 3.75 per cent. of the aggregate of—

- (a) an amount equal to remuneration at the annual rate for a period equal to the total of the length in years and days of the person’s service before 1st April 1987 and 50 per cent. of any war service (within the meaning of Part F of the 1986 Regulations) in respect of which a period might have become reckonable as reckonable service under regulation F6 of those Regulations if the conditions in regulation F3(2) to (10) of those Regulations had been satisfied; and

- (b) an amount equal to remuneration at the annual rate (with the necessary adjustments in accordance with paragraph (6)), for a period equal to the length in years and days of that person's service after 31st March 1987, but in the case of a person—
 - (i) whose contractual hours are fewer than 15 and who had not attained the age of 50 on 16th August 1993; or
 - (ii) whose contractual hours are at least 15 and who had not before 1st April 1987 attained the age of 55, disregarding the assumed membership.
- (5) In this regulation “annual rate of remuneration”, in relation to an employee, means the annual rate of his remuneration (ascertained as if regulation K21(5) and (6) of the LGPS Regulations had applied) at whichever of the following times yields the highest figure—
 - (a) the date on which he ceased to be employed;
 - (b) 12 months before that date; or
 - (c) 24 months before that date.
- (6) For the purposes of paragraph (4), the necessary adjustments to the annual rate of remuneration are—
 - (a) if that rate exceeds the annual equivalent of the lower earnings limit in force at the time at which the annual rate of remuneration falls to be ascertained (as determined in accordance with section 5 of the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992⁽³⁷⁾), but not the upper earnings limit then in force (as so determined), to substitute the lower earnings limit; and
 - (b) if that rate exceeds that upper earnings limit, to substitute the sum of that lower earnings limit and the excess over that upper earnings limit.
- (7) In paragraph (4) “the assumed membership”, in relation to any person, means any service which would have been counted as part of his total period of membership if the person—
 - (a) in the case of paragraph (4)(b)(i), had made an election under regulation B1A or regulation B1C of the 1986 Regulations on 17th August 1993; and
 - (b) in the case of paragraph (4)(b)(ii)—
 - (i) had made any election which he was entitled to make under regulation B1(18) of, or paragraph 1(1) or 5(2) of Part IV of Schedule 2 to, those Regulations on 1st April 1987; and
 - (ii) had not made any election he has made under regulation B1(15B) of those Regulations or given any notice he is entitled to give under regulation B12 of the LGPS Regulations.

Retirement gratuities

41.—(1) Where a person—

- (a) who has been employed by a LGPS employer for at least five years; or
- (b) who has been so employed for at least one year and—
 - (i) has attained the age of 60; or
 - (ii) is incapable of discharging efficiently the duties of his employment by reason of permanent ill-health or infirmity of mind or body,

(37) 1992 c. 4.

ceases to be so employed (otherwise than as mentioned in regulation 42(1)(b)), the LGPS employer may make him a discretionary grant (“a retirement gratuity”).

(2) A retirement gratuity may consist of a lump sum or an annuity or both.

(3) The amount of a retirement gratuity (including the capital value of any annuity) must not exceed—

- (a) an amount equal to three-eighths of the person’s annual rate of remuneration for each year of service; or
- (b) the prescribed maximum;

and in this paragraph “annual rate of remuneration” has the meaning given in regulation 40(5) and “the prescribed maximum” the meaning given in regulation 40(4).

(4) Where—

- (a) the gratuity granted under paragraph (1) to a person (“the original annuitant”) is or includes an annuity; and
- (b) he dies at a time when the capital value of the payments of the annuity he has received falls short of its capital value at the time of its grant, the LGPS employer may grant a further gratuity by way of an annuity to one or more of the original annuitant’s spouse and dependants.

(5) The amount of an annuity granted under paragraph (4) or, in a case where an annuity is paid to more than one person, the aggregate amount of annuity must be the lesser of—

- (a) the amount the capital value of which equals the shortfall mentioned in paragraph (b) of that paragraph; or
- (b) two-thirds of the amount of the annuity payable to the original annuitant immediately before his death.

Redundancy gratuities

42.—(1) Where a person—

- (a) has been employed by a LGPS employer—
 - (i) for at least five years; or
 - (ii) in the case of a person who has attained the age of 60, for at least one year;
 - (b) ceases to be so employed—
 - (i) by reason of redundancy; or
 - (ii) in the interests of the efficient exercise of the LGPS employer’s functions; and
 - (c) the LGPS employer—
 - (i) have certified in relation to him in accordance with regulation D6(2)(a) of the LGPS Regulations; or
 - (ii) are satisfied that if he were a LGPS member they would have so certified,
- the LGPS employer may make him a discretionary grant (“a redundancy gratuity”).

(2) A redundancy gratuity may consist of a lump sum or an annuity or both.

(3) Where—

- (a) the gratuity granted to a person under paragraph (1) is or includes an annuity; and
- (b) he dies before receiving payments of the annuity of an aggregate amount equal to its capital value, the LGPS employer may grant a further gratuity by way of an annuity to one or more of the person's spouse and dependants.

(4) Where—

- (a) the gratuity granted to a person under paragraph (1) is or includes an annuity; and
- (b) he dies at a time when the capital value of the payments of the annuity he has received falls short of its capital value at the time of its grant, the LGPS employer may grant a further gratuity by way of an annuity to one or more of his spouse and dependants.

(5) The amount of a redundancy gratuity in respect of any person (including the capital value of any annuity) or, in a case where the gratuity is paid to more than one person, the aggregate amount of such gratuity must not exceed the prescribed maximum (as defined in regulation 40(4)).

(6) The capital value of an annuity granted under paragraph (4) or, in a case where an annuity is paid to more than one person, the aggregate amount of such annuities must not exceed the shortfall mentioned in paragraph (4)(b).

(7) Where a person to whom a further gratuity is granted under paragraph (4) dies at a time when the capital value of the payments of the annuity he has received falls short of its capital value at the time of its grant, the LGPS employer may grant a further gratuity by way of an annuity to any other person to whom they might have granted a further annuity under paragraph (4) at the time of the original annuitant's death, but its capital value must not exceed that shortfall.

Schemes in connection with the exercise of powers

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These regulations consolidate, with amendments, the provisions of the Local Government (Compensation for Premature Retirement) Regulations 1982, Part II of the Local Government (Compensation for Redundancy and Premature Retirement) Regulations 1984 and Part II of the Local Government (Compensation for Redundancy) Regulations 1994, all of which have been amended. They also revoke the extant Parts K and L of the Local Government Superannuation Regulations 1986. Parts V and VI of these regulations replace them as part of local authority discretionary awards. These Regulations contain all the provisions relating to discretionary payments that may be made to persons engaged in local government employment other than teachers and those engaged in the police and fire services (excluding those under Part III of the Local Government (Compensation for Redundancy) Regulations 1994).

The main changes are as follows—

- provision for holders of a joint appointment whose appointment has been terminated because the other ceased to hold his appointment may now be considered for a discretionary award under Part III (Regulation 6(1)(a)(iii));
- all the service of a part-timer can be taken into account when considering an award on compensatory added years (Regulation 7(3));
- spouses of post retirement marriages of employees awarded compensatory added years may receive part of the compensation pension (Regulation 20);
- the “indexed training rate” has been uprated (Regulation 25(6));
- interest is to be paid on compensation paid late in certain circumstances (Regulation 30);
- the appropriate authority has two months in which to recover from the employing authority the amount of any payment made on their behalf (Regulation 31(2));
- injury allowances and gratuities, which were in the Local Government Superannuation Regulations 1986, have been included in these regulations as they are payable by the local authorities and not from the pension fund (Parts V and VI).
