1996 No. 2149 (S.173)

SHERIFF COURT, SCOTLAND

Act of Sederunt (Mental Health Rules) 1996

Made - - - - 13th August 1996

Coming into force - - 9th September 1996

The Lords of Council and Session, under and by virtue of the powers conferred on them by section 32 of the Sheriff Courts (Scotland) Act 1971(1) and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, having approved, with modifications, draft rules submitted to them by the Sheriff Court Rules Council in accordance with section 34 of the said Act of 1971, do hereby enact and declare:

Citation, commencement, interpretation and revocation

1.—(1) This Act of Sederunt may be cited as the Act of Sederunt (Mental Health Rules) 1996 and shall come into force on 9th September 1996.

(2) This Act of Sederunt shall be inserted in the Books of Sederunt.

(3) Words and expressions used in this Act of Sederunt which are also used in the Mental Health (Scotland) Act 1984(2) (referred to in this Act of Sederunt as “the Act of 1984”) shall, unless the context otherwise requires, have the same meaning as in that Act.

(4) Where there is a reference to a form in this Act of Sederunt, that form so numbered in the Schedule to this Act of Sederunt, or a form substantially to the same effect, shall be used with such variation as circumstances may require.

(5) The Act of Sederunt (Mental Health (Scotland) Act 1984) 1986(3) is hereby revoked.

Service of notice and appointment of hearing of applications

2.—(1) In an application to the sheriff under section 21(4) (hospital order), section 35A(5) (community care order), or section 40 (guardianship order) of the Act of 1984—

(a) the sheriff shall appoint a hearing; and

(1) 1971 c. 58; section 32 was amended by the Law Reform (Miscellaneous Provisions) (Scotland) Act 1985 (c. 73), Schedule 2, paragraph 12, by the Civil Evidence (Scotland) Act 1988 (c. 32), section 2(4), and by the Children (Scotland) Act 1995 (c. 36), Schedule 4, paragraph 18(2).

(2) 1984 c. 36.

(3) S.I.1986/545.

(4) Section 21 was amended by the Mental Health (Detention) (Scotland) Act 1991, (c.47), section 2.

(5) Section 35A of the Act of 1984 was inserted by the Mental Health (Patients in the Community) Act 1995 (c. 52), section 4.

(b) the sheriff clerk shall serve on the person who is the subject of such proceedings a copy of the application (with the exception of any medical recommendations) and a notice in Form 1.

(2) The sheriff may appoint that the hearing of such an application shall take place in a hospital or other place, where he considers this to be appropriate in all the circumstances.

(3) Where the nearest relative of the person who is the subject of such an application lodges with the sheriff clerk an objection to such application, the sheriff clerk shall intimate to that nearest relative the date appointed under paragraph (1)(a) above.

(4) Intimation shall be given by the sheriff clerk of the date appointed under paragraph (1)(a) above to such other persons as the sheriff may direct.

Methods of service

3.—(1) Where the person who is the subject of the application to which paragraph (1) of rule 2(1) above applies is not already a patient in a hospital, the notice and copy application referred to in sub-paragraph (b) of that paragraph shall be served on him personally by a sheriff officer.

(2) Where the person who is the subject of such an application is a patient in a hospital, the notice and copy application referred to in rule 2(1)(b) above shall be served—

(a) by post by the first class recorded delivery service by the sheriff clerk,

on his responsible medical officer and shall be accompanied by a further notice in Form 2 addressed to the responsible medical officer.

(3) Where the person who is the subject of an application under section 21 of the Act of 1984 (hospital order) is also the subject of a guardianship order, the notice and copy application referred to in rule 2(1)(b) above (including any medical recommendations) shall, in addition to any other requirement for service required by this rule, be served on the guardian—

(a) by post by the first class recorded delivery service by the sheriff clerk,

(b) personally by a sheriff officer.

Duties of medical officers

4.—(1) On receipt by him of a notice under rule 3(2) above (service on responsible medical officer), the responsible medical officer shall, subject to rule 5(1) (service prejudicial to patient) below—

(a) deliver the notice and copy application referred to in rule 2(1)(b) above to the patient;

and

(b) as soon as practicable thereafter, complete and return to the court a certificate of such delivery in Form 3.

(2) Where, in the opinion of the medical officer mentioned below, it would be prejudicial to the patient's health or treatment if the patient were to be present during the proceedings—

(a) in an application to which rule 3(2) above applies, the responsible medical officer shall set forth his reasons for his opinion in the certificate to be completed by him in terms of paragraph (1)(b) of this rule; and

- (b) in any other case, the responsible medical officer or the special medical officer, as the case may be, shall set forth his reasons for his opinion in writing and send them to the sheriff clerk.

Appointment of curator ad litem

5.—(1) Where, in an application to which rule 2(1) above applies, two medical certificates are produced stating that it would be prejudicial to the health or treatment of the person who is the subject of the application if personal service were effected on him by virtue of paragraph (1) of rule 3 (methods of service) or rule 4 (duties of medical officers) above, the sheriff—

- (a) may dispense with such service; and
- (b) if he does so, shall appoint a curator ad litem to receive the application and represent the interests of that person.

(2) Where, in an application to which rule 2(1) above applies, the sheriff is satisfied that—

- (a) the person who is the subject of the application should be excluded from the whole or any part of the proceedings under section 113(2) of the Act of 1984, or
- (b) in any other case, it is in all the circumstances appropriate for him to do so, he may appoint a curator ad litem to represent the interests of the person who is the subject of the application.

(3) Service of an application on a curator ad litem shall be effected by the sheriff clerk handing, or sending by post by the first class recorded delivery service, to him a copy of the application (including any medical recommendations) and of the order appointing him.

Appointment of solicitor by court

6. Where, in an application to which rule 2(1) above applies, the person who is the subject of the application has indicated that he wishes to be represented at the hearing but has not nominated a representative, the sheriff may appoint a solicitor to take instructions from that person.

Intimation to representatives

7. Where, in an application to which rule 2(1) above applies, the sheriff clerk becomes aware that—

- (a) the person who is the subject of the application is represented by any person, and
- (b) that representative would not otherwise receive intimation of any diet, a copy of the notice served on the person who is the subject of the application shall be intimated to the representative by the sheriff clerk by post by the first class recorded delivery service.

Service by sheriff officer

8.—(1) Where a copy of an application and any notice has been served personally by a sheriff officer under this Act of Sederunt, he shall prepare and return to the court an execution of such service setting forth in detail the manner and circumstances of such service.

(2) Where a sheriff officer has been unable to effect personal service under this Act of Sederunt, he shall report to the court the reason why such service was not effected.

Variation of conditions of a community care order

9.—Where, after consulting the persons referred to in subsections (1) and (2) of section 35D(6)(variation of conditions in community care order) of the Act of 1984, an application is made by the special medical officer for the variation of a community care order under that section, the special medical officer shall—

- (a) complete Form 22 in Schedule 2 to the Mental Health (Prescribed Forms) (Scotland) Regulations 1996(7); and
- (b) lodge that form with the sheriff clerk, together with the community care order to which that application for variation relates or a certified copy of it.

Hearing

10.—(1) Any hearing to determine any application under rule 9 above shall take place within 28 days after receipt by the sheriff clerk of Form 22 and the community care order referred to in that rule.

(2) Intimation of the date of the hearing referred to in paragraph (1) above shall be given by the sheriff clerk by post by the first class recorded delivery service to such persons as the sheriff may direct; and any intimation of such date to the patient shall be made personally by sheriff officer.

Appeal against a community care order

11. An application by way of appeal for the revocation of a community care order under section 35F(8) of the Act of 1984 shall be in Form 4.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Act of Sederunt)

This Act of Sederunt consolidates the Act of Sederunt (Mental Health (Scotland) Act 1984) 1986, and extends the provisions relating to hospital orders to community care orders, which were introduced by section 4 of the Mental Health (Patients in the Community) Act 1995. This Act of Sederunt also provides rules relating to the variation of community care orders, provides a form of appeal against a community care order, and repeals the Act of Sederunt (Mental Health (Scotland) Act 1984) 1986.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.
