- (b) in the case of a director of the company who is the person designated in the company's instrument of incorporation for the purposes of paragraph 4 of Schedule 5 to these Regulations, require that director to cease transfers to or from, or both to and from, his own holding of shares, or of any class of shares, in the company on a date specified in the direction until such further date as is specified in that or another direction;
- (c) in the case of an umbrella company, require that investments made in respect of one or more parts of the scheme property which are pooled separately be realised and, following the discharge of such liabilities of the company as are attributable to the relevant part or parts of the scheme property, that the resulting funds be distributed to shareholders in accordance with SIB regulations;

- (e) require that the affairs of the company be wound up otherwise than by the court.

(3) Subject to paragraph (4) below, the revocation of an authorisation order in respect of a company shall not affect the operation of any direction under this regulation which is then in force; and a direction under this regulation may be given in relation to a company in the case of which an authorisation order has been revoked if a direction under this regulation was already in force at the time of revocation.

(4) Where a winding up order has been made by the court, no direction under this regulation shall have effect in relation to the company concerned.

(5) For the purposes of paragraph (1)(b) above, SIB may take into account—

- (c) any matter relating to any person employed by or associated, for the purposes of the business of the company, with the company or its depositary; or
- (d) any matter relating to—
 - (i) any director of the company; or
 - (ii) any person who would be such a person as is mentioned in any of sub-paragraphs (a) to (d) of paragraph (2) of regulation 9 above if that paragraph applied in respect of a director of the company as it applies in respect of a proposed director.

(6) Sections 60 (public statement as to person's misconduct), 61 (injunctions and restitution orders) and 62 (actions for damages) of the 1986 Act shall have effect in relation to a contravention of a direction under this regulation as they have effect in relation to any such contravention as is mentioned in those sections.

(7) SIB may, either of its own motion or on the application of the company or its depositary, withdraw or vary a direction given under this regulation if it appears to SIB that it is no longer necessary for the direction to take effect or continue in force or, as the case may be, that it should take effect or continue in force in a different form.

(8) This regulation confers the same powers in relation to a shadow director of an investment company with variable capital as it confers in relation to a director of such a company.

(9) In paragraph (1)(c) above, “relevant provision” means any provision of—

- (a) the 1986 Act;
- (b) any rules or regulations made under that Act;
- (c) these Regulations;
- (d) SIB regulations; and
- (e) any rules of a recognised self-regulating organisation of which an investment company with variable capital, or any director or depositary or such a company, is a member.

Notice of directions

19.—(1) The power to give a direction under regulation 18 above in relation to an investment company with variable capital shall be exercisable by written notice served by SIB on the company and its depositary, and any such notice shall take effect on such date as is specified in the notice.

(2) If SIB refuses to withdraw or vary a direction on the application of the company concerned or of the depositary of that company, it shall serve the applicant with a written notice of the refusal.

(3) A notice—

- (a) giving a direction or varying it otherwise than on the application of the company concerned or of the depositary of that company; or
- (b) refusing to withdraw or vary a direction on the application of such a person; shall state the reasons for which the direction was given or varied or, as the case may be, why the application was refused.

(4) SIB may give public notice of a direction given by it under regulation 18 above and of any withdrawal or variation of such a direction; and any such notice may, if SIB thinks fit, include a statement of the reasons for which the direction was given, withdrawn or varied.

Applications to the court

20.—(1) In any case in which SIB has power to give a direction under regulation 18 above in relation to an investment company with variable capital, it may apply to the court for an order—

- (a) removing any director of the company; or
- (b) removing the depositary of the company;

and replacing any of them with a person or persons nominated by SIB and appearing to it to satisfy the criteria set out in paragraphs (4) to (7) or, as the case may be, paragraph (8) of regulation 10 above.

(2) On an application under this regulation the court may make such order as it thinks fit.

(3) SIB shall—

 - (ii) its depositary; and
 - (iii) where the application seeks the removal of any director of the company, that director; and

(2) An inspector appointed under paragraph (1) above to investigate the affairs of, or of any director or depositary of, a company may also, if he thinks it necessary for the purposes of that investigation, investigate the affairs of, or (as the case may be) of the directors, depositary, trustee or operator of,—

- (g) a collective investment scheme the manager or operator of which is—
 - (i) the director whose affairs are being investigated by virtue of that paragraph; or
 - (ii) a director of a body corporate which is the director whose affairs are being investigated by virtue of that paragraph.

(3) Sections 434 and 436 of the 1985 Act⁽¹⁴⁾ (production of documents and evidence to inspectors) shall apply in relation to an inspector appointed under this regulation as they apply to an inspector appointed under section 431 of that Act but with the modifications specified in paragraph (4) below.

(4) In the provisions applied by paragraph (3) above—

⁽¹⁴⁾ Sections 434 and 436 were amended by section 56 of the Companies Act 1989 (c. 40).

- (a) for any reference to a company there shall be substituted a reference to the company, director or depositary under investigation by virtue of paragraph (1) above;

- (5) This regulation and regulations 23 and 24 below confer the same powers in relation to a shadow director of an investment company with variable capital as they confer in relation to a director of such a company.

Investigations: disclosure

23.—(1) A person shall not under regulation 22 above be required to disclose any information or produce any document which he would be entitled to refuse to disclose or produce on grounds of legal professional privilege in proceedings in the High Court or on grounds of confidentiality as between client and professional legal adviser in proceedings in the Court of Session except that a lawyer may be required to furnish the name and address of his client.

(2) Nothing in regulation 22 above requires a person (except as mentioned in paragraph (3) below) to disclose any information or produce any document in respect of which he owes an obligation of confidence by virtue of carrying on the business of banking unless—

- (a) the person to whom the obligation of confidence is owed consents to the disclosure or production; or
- (b) the making of the requirement was authorised by the relevant authority.

(3) Paragraph (2) above does not apply where the person owing the obligation of confidence or to whom it is owed is—

- (a) an investment company with variable capital, director or depositary under investigation by virtue of paragraph (1) of regulation 22 above; or
- (b) an investment company with variable capital, or any other person, under investigation by virtue of paragraph (2) of that regulation.

Investigations: supplementary

24.—(1) Where a person claims a lien on a document its production under regulation 22 above shall be without prejudice to the lien.

(2) An inspector appointed under regulation 22 above may, and if directed by the relevant authority shall, make interim reports to the authority and on the conclusion of his investigation shall make a final report to the authority.

(3) If it appears to the relevant authority that matters have come to light in the course of an inspector's investigation which suggest that a criminal offence has been committed, and those matters have been referred to the appropriate prosecuting authority, the relevant authority may direct the inspector to take no further steps in the investigation or to take only such steps as are specified in the direction.

(4) Where an investigation is the subject of a direction under paragraph (3) above, the inspector shall make a final report to the relevant authority only where it directs him to do so.

(5) Each final report shall be written or printed as the relevant authority may direct and the authority may, if it thinks fit—

- (a) furnish a copy, on request and on payment of the prescribed fee—
 - (i) to any director or shareholder, or to the depository, of a company under investigation by virtue of paragraph (1) of regulation 22 above;
 - (ii) where a director under investigation by virtue of that paragraph is a body corporate, to any director of that body;
 - (iii) to any director of a depository under investigation by virtue of that paragraph; or
 - (iv) to any other person whose conduct is referred to in the report; and
- (b) cause the report to be published.

(6) A person who is convicted on a prosecution instituted as a result of an investigation under regulation 22 above may, in the same proceedings, be ordered to pay the expenses of the investigation to such extent as may be specified in the order.

(7) For the purposes of paragraph (6) above, there shall be treated as expenses of the investigation, in particular, such reasonable sums as the relevant authority may determine in respect of general staff costs and overheads.

(8) The powers in section 205(15) of the 1986 Act (general power to make regulations), as they apply in relation to fees to be prescribed for the purposes of section 94(9) of that Act (investigations in respect of authorised unit trusts etc), shall be exercisable in relation to fees to be prescribed for the purposes of paragraph (5)(a) above—

- (a) for like purposes; and
- (b) subject to the same conditions.

Winding up

Winding up by the court

25.—(1) Where an investment company with variable capital is wound up as an unregistered company under Part V of the Insolvency Act 1986(16), the provisions of that Act shall apply for the purposes of the winding up with the following modifications.

(2) A petition for the winding up of an investment company with variable capital may be presented by the depository of the company as well as by any person authorised under section 124 or 124A of the Insolvency Act 1986, (as those sections apply by virtue of Part V of that Act) to present a petition for the winding up of the company.

(3) Where a petition for the winding up of an investment company with variable capital is presented by a person other than SIB—

- (a) that person shall serve a copy of the petition on SIB; and
- (b) SIB shall be entitled to be heard on the petition.

(15) Section 205 was substituted by section 206(1) of, and paragraph 18 of Schedule 23 to, the Companies Act 1989 (c. 40) and amended by the Transfer of Functions (Financial Services) Order 1992 (S.I. 1992/1315).

(16) 1986 c. 45.

(4) If, before the presentation of a petition for the winding up by the court of an investment company with variable capital as an unregistered company under Part V of the Insolvency Act 1986, the affairs of the company are being wound up otherwise than by the court—

- (a) section 129(2) of the Insolvency Act 1986 (commencement of winding up by the court) shall not apply; and
- (b) any winding up of the company by the court shall be deemed to have commenced—
 - (i) at the time at which SIB gave its approval to a proposal mentioned in paragraph (1) (d) of regulation 15 above; or
 - (ii) in a case falling within paragraph (3)(b) of that regulation, on the day next following the end of the three month period mentioned in that paragraph.

Dissolution on winding up by the court

26.—(1) This regulation applies where, in respect of an investment company with variable capital, the registrar of companies receives—

- (a) a notice served for the purposes of section 172(8) of the Insolvency Act 1986 (final meeting of creditors and vacation of office by liquidator), as that section applies by virtue of Part V of that Act; or
- (b) a notice from the official receiver that the winding up by the court of the company is complete.

(2) The registrar shall, on receipt of the notice, forthwith register it; and, subject as follows, at the end of the period of three months beginning with the day of the registration of the notice, the company shall be dissolved.

(3) The Secretary of State may, on the application of the official receiver or any other person who appears to the Secretary of State to be interested, give a direction deferring the date at which the dissolution of the company is to take effect for such period as the Secretary of State thinks fit.

(4) An appeal to the court lies from any decision of the Secretary of State on an application for a direction under paragraph (3) above.

(5) Paragraph (3) above does not apply to a case where the winding up order was made by the court in Scotland, but in such a case the court may, on an application by any person appearing to the court to have an interest, order that the date at which the dissolution of the company is to take effect shall be deferred for such period as the court thinks fit.

(6) It is the duty of the person—

- (a) on whose application a direction is given under paragraph (3) above;
- (b) in whose favour an appeal with respect to an application for such a direction is determined; or
- (c) on whose application an order is made under paragraph (5) above;

not later than seven days after the giving of the direction, the determination of the appeal or the making of the order, to deliver to the registrar of companies for registration a copy of the direction or determination or, in respect of an order, a certified copy of the interlocutor.

(7) If a person without reasonable excuse fails to deliver a copy as required by paragraph (6) above, he is guilty of an offence.

(8) A person guilty of an offence under paragraph (7) above is liable, on summary conviction—

- (a) to a fine not exceeding level 1 on the standard scale; and
- (b) on a second or subsequent conviction, instead of the penalty set out in sub-paragraph (a) above, to a fine of £100 for each day on which the contravention is continued.

Dissolution in other circumstances

27.—(1) Where the affairs of an investment company with variable capital have been wound up otherwise than by the court, SIB shall ensure that, as soon as is reasonably practicable after the winding up is complete, the registrar of companies is sent notice of that fact.

(2) The registrar shall, upon receipt of the notice, forthwith register it; and, subject as follows, at the end of the period of three months beginning with the day of the registration of the notice, the company shall be dissolved.

(3) The court may on the application of SIB or the company make an order deferring the date at which the dissolution of the company is to take effect for such period as the court thinks fit.

(4) It is the duty of the person on whose application an order of the court under paragraph (3) above is made to deliver, not later than seven days after the making of the order, to the registrar of companies a copy of the order for registration.

(5) Where any company, the head office of which is situated in England and Wales, or Wales, is dissolved by virtue of paragraph (2) above, any sum of money (including unclaimed distributions) standing to the account of the company at the date of the dissolution shall, on such date as is determined in relation to the dissolution of that company in accordance with SIB regulations, be paid into court.

(6) Where any company, the head office of which is situated in Scotland, is dissolved by virtue of paragraph (2) above, any sum of money (including unclaimed dividends and unapplied or undistributable balances) standing to the account of the company at the date of the dissolution shall—

- (a) on such date as is determined in relation to the dissolution of that company in accordance with SIB regulations, be lodged in an appropriate bank or institution as defined in section 73(1) of the Bankruptcy (Scotland) Act 1985⁽¹⁷⁾ (interpretation) in the name of the Accountant of the Court; and
- (b) thereafter be treated as if it were a sum of money lodged in such an account by virtue of section 193 of the Insolvency Act 1986 (unclaimed distributions), as that section applies by virtue of Part V of that Act.

PART III

CORPORATE CODE

Organs

Directors

28.—(1) On the coming into effect of an authorisation order in respect of an investment company with variable capital, the persons named in the application under regulation 7 above as directors of the company shall be deemed to be appointed as its first directors.

(2) Subject to regulations 15 and 20 above, any subsequent appointment as a director of a company shall be made by the company in general meeting; except that the directors of the company may appoint a person to act as director to fill any vacancy until such time as the next following annual general meeting of the company takes place.

(3) Any act of a director is valid notwithstanding—

- (a) any defect that may thereafter be discovered in his appointment or qualifications; or ⁽¹⁷⁾ 1985 c. 66; the definition of “appropriate bank or institution” was substituted by section 108(1) of, and paragraph 20 of Schedule 6 to, the Banking Act 1987 (c. 22).

- (b) that it is afterwards discovered that his appointment had terminated by virtue of any provision contained in SIB regulations which requires a director to retire upon attaining a specified age.
- (4) The business of a company shall be managed—
 - (a) where a company has only one director, by that director; or
 - (b) where a company has more than one director, by the directors but subject to any provision contained in SIB regulations as to the allocation between the directors of responsibilities for the management of the company (including any provision there may be as to the allocation of such responsibility to one or more directors to the exclusion of others).
- (5) Subject to the provisions of these Regulations, SIB regulations and the company's instrument of incorporation, the directors of a company may exercise all the powers of the company.

Directors to have regard to interests of employees

29.—(1) Without prejudice to the generality of the powers and duties that any director of an investment company with variable capital has apart from this regulation, the matters to which such a director is to have regard in the performance of his functions include the interests of the company's employees in general, as well as its shareholders.

(2) Accordingly, the duty imposed by this regulation on any director of a company is owed by him to the company (and the company alone) and is enforceable in the same way as any other fiduciary duty owed to an investment company with variable capital by its directors.

(3) This regulation applies to a shadow director of an investment company with variable capital as it applies to a director of such a company.

Inspection of directors' service contracts

- 30.—(1) Every investment company with variable capital shall keep at an appropriate place—
- (a) in the case of each director whose contract of service with the company is in writing, a copy of that contract; and
 - (b) in the case of each director whose contract of service with the company is not in writing, a written memorandum setting out its terms.
- (2) All copies and memoranda kept by a company in accordance with paragraph (1) above shall be kept in the same place.
- (3) The following are appropriate places for the purposes of paragraph (1) above—
- (a) the company's head office;
 - (b) the place where the company's register of shareholders is kept; and
 - (c) where any person designated in the company's instrument of incorporation for the purposes of paragraph 4 of Schedule 5 to these Regulations is a director of the company and is a body corporate, the registered or principal office of that person.
- (4) Every copy and memorandum required by paragraph (1) above to be kept shall be open to the inspection of any shareholder of the company.
- (5) If such an inspection is refused, the court may by order compel an immediate inspection of the copy or memorandum concerned.
- (6) Every copy and memorandum required by paragraph (1) above to be kept shall be made available by the company for inspection by any shareholder at the company's annual general meeting.
- (7) Paragraph (1) above applies to a variation of a director's contract of service as it applies to the contract.

General meetings

31.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2) below, every investment company with variable capital shall in each year hold a general meeting (“annual general meeting”) in addition to any other meetings, whether general or otherwise, it may hold in that year.

(2) If a company holds its first annual general meeting within 18 months of the date on which the authorisation order made by SIB in respect of the company comes into effect, paragraph (1) above shall not require the company to hold any other meeting as its annual general meeting in the year of its incorporation or in the following year.

(3) Subject to paragraph (2) above, not more than 15 months shall elapse between the date of one annual general meeting of a company and the date of the next.

Capacity of company

32.—(1) The validity of an act done by an investment company with variable capital shall not be called into question on the ground of lack of capacity by reason of anything in these Regulations, SIB regulations or the company’s instrument of incorporation.

(2) Nothing in paragraph (1) above shall affect the duty of the directors to observe any limitations on their powers.

Power of directors and general meeting to bind the company

33.—(1) In favour of a person dealing in good faith, the following powers, that is to say—

- (a) the power of the directors of an investment company with variable capital (whether or not acting as a board) to bind the company, or authorise others to do so; and
- (b) the power of such a company in general meeting to bind the company, or authorise others to do so;

shall be deemed to be free of any limitation under the company’s constitution.

(2) For the purposes of this regulation—

- (a) a person “deals with” a company if he is party to any transaction or other act to which the company is a party;
- (b) subject to paragraph (4) below, a person shall not be regarded as acting in bad faith by reason only of his knowing that, under the company’s constitution, an act is beyond any of the powers referred to in sub-paragraph (a) or (b) of paragraph (1) above; and
- (c) subject to paragraph (4) below, a person shall be presumed to have acted in good faith unless the contrary is proved.

(3) The reference in paragraph (1) above to any limitation under the company’s constitution on the powers set out in sub-paragraph (a) or (b) of that paragraph shall include any limitation deriving from these Regulations, from SIB regulations or from a resolution of the company in general meeting or of a meeting of any class of shareholders.

(4) Paragraph (2)(b) and (c) above do not apply where—

- (a) by virtue of a limitation deriving from these Regulations or from SIB regulations, an act is beyond any of the powers referred to in paragraph (1)(a) or (b) above; and
- (b) the person in question—
 - (i) has actual knowledge of that fact; or
 - (ii) has deliberately failed to make enquiries in circumstances in which a reasonable and honest person would have done so.

(5) Paragraph (1) above does not affect any liability incurred by the directors or any other person by reason of the directors exceeding their powers.

No duty to enquire as to capacity etc

34. Subject to regulation 33(4)(b)(ii) above, a party to a transaction with an investment company with variable capital is not bound to enquire—

- (a) as to whether the transaction is permitted by these Regulations, SIB regulations or the company's instrument of incorporation; or
- (b) as to any limitation on the powers referred to in paragraph (1)(a) or (b) of regulation 33 above.

Exclusion of deemed notice

35.—(1) A person shall not be taken to have notice of any matter merely because of its being disclosed in any document made available by an investment company with variable capital for inspection; but this does not affect the question whether a person is affected by notice of any matter by reason of a failure to make such enquiries as ought reasonably to be made.

(2) In paragraph (1) above, “document” includes any material which contains information.

Restraint and ratification by shareholders

36.—(1) A shareholder of an investment company with variable capital may bring proceedings to restrain the doing of an act which but for regulation 32(1) above would be beyond the company's capacity.

(2) Paragraph (1) of regulation 33 above does not affect any right of a shareholder of an investment company with variable capital to bring proceedings to restrain the doing of an act which is beyond any of the powers referred to in that paragraph.

(3) No proceedings shall lie under paragraph (1) above in respect of an act to be done in fulfilment of a legal obligation arising from a previous act of the company; and paragraph (2) above shall not have the effect of enabling proceedings to be brought in respect of any such act.

(4) Any action by the directors of a company—

- (a) which, but for paragraph (1) of regulation 32 above, would be beyond the company's capacity; or
- (b) which is within the company's capacity but beyond the powers referred to in paragraph (1) (a) of regulation 33 above; may only be ratified by resolution of the company in general meeting.

(5) A resolution ratifying such action shall not affect any liability incurred by the directors or any other person; relief from any such liability must be agreed to separately by resolution of the company in general meeting.

(6) Nothing in this regulation affects any power or right conferred by or arising under section 61 (injunctions and restitution orders) or 62 (actions for damages) of the 1986 Act.

Events affecting company status

37.—(1) Where either of the conditions mentioned in paragraph (2) below are satisfied, an investment company with variable capital is not entitled to rely against other persons on the happening of any of the following events, that is to say—

- (a) any alteration of the company's instrument of incorporation;

- (b) any change among the directors of the company;
 - (c) as regards service of any document on the company, any change in the situation of the head office of the company; or
 - (d) the making of a winding up order in respect of the company or, in circumstances in which the affairs of a company are to be wound up otherwise than by the court, the commencement of the winding up.
- (2) The conditions referred to in paragraph (1) above are that—
- (a) the event in question had not been officially notified at the material time and is not shown by the company to have been known at that time by the other person concerned; and
 - (b) if the material time fell on or before the 15th day after the date of official notification (or where the 15th day was a non-business day, on or before the next day that was a business day), it is shown that the other person concerned was unavoidably prevented from knowing of the event at that time.

(3) In this regulation “official notification” means the notification in the Gazette by virtue of paragraph 6 of Schedule 1 to these Regulations of any document containing the information referred to in paragraph (1) above and “officially notified” shall be construed accordingly.

Invalidity of certain transactions involving directors

38.—(1) This regulation applies where—

- (a) an investment company with variable capital enters into a transaction to which the parties include any of the following, that is to say—
 - (i) a director of the company; or
 - (ii) any person who is an associate of such a director; and
- (b) in connection with the transaction, the directors of the company (whether or not acting as a board) exceed any limitation on their powers under the company’s constitution.

(2) The transaction is voidable at the instance of the company.

(3) Whether or not the transaction is avoided, any such party to the transaction as is mentioned in paragraph (i) or (ii) of paragraph (1)(a) above, and any director of the company who authorised the transaction, is liable—

- (a) to account to the company for any gain which he has made directly or indirectly by the transaction; and
- (b) to indemnify the company for any loss or damage resulting from the transaction.

(4) Nothing in paragraphs (1) to (3) above shall be construed as excluding the operation of any other enactment or rule of law by virtue of which the transaction may be called into question or any liability to the company may arise.

(5) The transaction ceases to be voidable if—

- (a) restitution of any money or other asset which was the subject-matter of the transaction is no longer possible; or
- (b) the company is indemnified for any loss or damage resulting from the transaction; or
- (c) rights which are acquired, bona fide for value and without actual notice of the directors concerned exceeding their powers, by a person who is not a party to the transaction would be affected by the avoidance; or
- (d) the transaction is ratified by resolution of the company in general meeting.

(6) A person other than a director of the company is not liable under paragraph (3) above if he shows that at the time the transaction was entered into he did not know that the directors concerned were exceeding their powers.

(7) This regulation does not affect the operation of regulation 33 above in relation to any party to the transaction not within paragraph (i) or (ii) of paragraph (1)(a) above; but where a transaction is voidable by virtue of this regulation and valid by virtue of that regulation in favour of such a person, the court may, on the application of that person or of the company, make such order affirming, severing or setting aside the transaction, on such terms, as appear to the court to be just.

(8) For the purposes of this regulation—

- (a) “associate”, in relation to any person who is a director of the company, means that person’s wife, husband or minor child or step-child, any body corporate of which that person is a director, any person who is an employee or partner of that person and, if that person is a body corporate, any subsidiary of that body corporate and any employee of such a subsidiary;
- (b) “transaction” includes any act; and
- (c) the reference in paragraph (1)(b) above to any limitation on directors’ powers under the company’s constitution shall include any limitation deriving from these Regulations, from SIB regulations or from a resolution of the company in general meeting or of a meeting of any class of shareholders.

Shares

Shares

39.—(1) Without prejudice to the generality of regulation 6(1) above, an investment company with variable capital may issue more than one class of shares.

(2) A shareholder shall have no interest in the scheme property of the company.

(3) The rights that attach to each share of any given class are—

- (a) the right in accordance with the instrument of incorporation to participate in or receive profits or income arising from the acquisition, holding, management or disposal of the scheme property;
- (b) the right in accordance with the instrument of incorporation to vote at any general meeting of the company or at any relevant class meeting; and
- (c) such other rights as may be provided for, in relation to shares of that class, in the instrument of incorporation of the company.

(4) In respect of any class of shares, the rights referred to in paragraph (3) above may, if the company’s instrument of incorporation so provides, be expressed in two denominations; and in the case of any such class, one (the “smaller”) denomination shall be such proportion of the other (the “larger”) denomination as is fixed by the instrument of incorporation.

(5) In respect of any class of shares within paragraph (4) above, any share to which are attached rights expressed in the smaller denomination shall, in these Regulations, be known as a smaller denomination share and any share to which are attached rights expressed in the larger denomination shall, in these Regulations, be known as a larger denomination share.

(6) In respect of any class of shares, the rights that attach to each share of that class shall be—

- (a) except in respect of a class of shares within paragraph (4) above, equal to the rights that attach to each other share of that class; and

(b) in respect of a class of shares within that paragraph, equal to the rights that attach to each other share of that class of the same denomination.

(7) In respect of any class of shares within paragraph (4) above, the rights that attach to any smaller denomination share of that class shall be a proportion of the rights that attach to any larger denomination share of that class and that proportion shall be the same as the proportion referred to in paragraph (4) above.

Share certificates

40.—(1) Subject to regulation 41 below, an investment company with variable capital shall prepare documentary evidence of title to its shares (“share certificates”) as follows—

- (a) in respect of any new shares issued by it;
- (b) where a shareholder has transferred part only of his holding back to the company, in respect of the remainder of that holding;
- (c) where a shareholder has transferred part only of his holding to any person who is designated in the company’s instrument of incorporation for the purposes of paragraph 4 of Schedule 5 to these Regulations, in respect of the remainder of that holding;
- (d) where a company has registered a transfer of shares made to a person other than either the company or a person designated as mentioned in sub-paragraph (c) above—
 - (i) in respect of the shares transferred to the transferee; and
 - (ii) in respect of any shares retained by the transferor which were evidenced by any certificate sent to the company for the purposes of registering the transfer;
- (e) in respect of any holding of bearer shares for which a certificate evidencing title has already been issued but where the certificate has been surrendered to the company for the purpose of being replaced by two or more certificates which between them evidence title to the shares comprising that holding;
- (f) in respect of any shares for which a certificate has already been issued but where it appears to the company that the certificate needs to be replaced as a result of having been lost, stolen or destroyed or having become damaged or worn out.

(2) A company shall exercise due diligence and take all reasonable steps to ensure that certificates prepared in accordance with paragraphs (1) (a) to (e) above are ready for delivery as soon as reasonably practicable.

(3) Certificates need be prepared in the circumstances referred to in paragraphs (1)(e) and (f) above only if the company has received—

- (a) a request for new certificate;
- (b) the old certificate (if there is one);
- (c) such indemnity as the company may require; and
- (d) such reasonable sum as the company may require in respect of the expenses incurred by it in complying with the request.

(4) Each share certificate shall state—

- (b) where the company has more than one class of shares, the class of shares title to which is evidenced by the certificate; and
- (c) except in the case of bearer shares, the name of the holder.

(5) Where, in respect of any class of shares, the rights that attach to shares of that class are expressed in two denominations, the reference in paragraph (4)(a) above (as it applies to shares of that class) to the number of shares is a reference to the total of—

$$N + \frac{n}{p}$$

(6) In paragraph (5) above—

- (a) N is the relevant number of the larger denomination shares of the class in question;
- (b) n is the relevant number of the smaller denomination shares of that class; and
- (c) p is the number of smaller denomination shares of that class that are equivalent to one larger denomination share of that class.

(7) Nothing in these Regulations shall be taken as preventing the total arrived at under paragraph (5) above being expressed on the certificate as a single entry representing the result derived from the formula set out in that paragraph.

(8) In England and Wales, a share certificate specifying any shares held by any person which is—

- (a) under the common seal of the company; or
- (b) authenticated in accordance with regulation 53 below; is prima facie evidence of that person's title to the shares.

- (a) under the common seal of the company; or
- (b) subscribed by the company in accordance with the Requirements of Writing (Scotland) Act 1995(18);

Exceptions from regulation 40

41.—(1) An investment company with variable capital which is a participating issuer shall not prepare share certificates in respect of any share in the company which is an uncertificated unit of a security.

(2) Nothing in regulation 40 above requires a company to prepare share certificates in Cases 1 to 4 set out below.

(2) An application under this regulation may be made by the person aggrieved, by any shareholder of the company or by the company itself.

(3) The court may either refuse the application or may order rectification of the register of shareholders and payment by the company of any damages sustained by any party aggrieved.

(4) On such an application the court may decide any question necessary or expedient to be decided for rectification of the register of shareholders including, in particular, any question relating to the right of a person who is a party to the application to have his name entered in or omitted from the register (whether the question arises as between shareholders and alleged shareholders or as between shareholders or alleged shareholders on the one hand and the company on the other hand).

Exemptions from liability to be void

56.—(1) This regulation applies to any provision, whether contained in the instrument of incorporation of an investment company with variable capital or in any contract with the company or otherwise—

- (a) which exempts any officer of the company or any person (whether or not an officer of the company) employed by the company as auditor from, or indemnifies him against, any liability which by virtue of any rule of law would otherwise attach to him in respect of any negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust of which he may be guilty in relation to the company; or
- (b) which exempts the depositary of the company from, or indemnifies him against, any liability for any failure to exercise due care and diligence in the discharge of his functions in respect of the company.

(2) Except as provided by the following paragraph, any such provision is void.

- (a) from purchasing and maintaining for any such officer, auditor or depositary insurance against any such liability; or
- (b) from indemnifying any such officer, auditor or depositary against any liability incurred by him—
 - (i) in defending any proceedings (whether civil or criminal) in which judgment is given in his favour or he is acquitted; or

- (2) If in any proceedings to which this regulation applies it appears to the court hearing the case—
- (a) that the officer, auditor or depositary is or may be liable in respect of the cause of action in question;
 - (b) that, nevertheless, he has acted honestly and reasonably; and
 - (c) that having regard to all the circumstances of the case (including those connected with his appointment) he ought fairly to be excused from the liability sought to be enforced against him;

the court may relieve him, either wholly or partly, from his liability on such terms as it may think fit.

(3) If any such officer, auditor or depositary has reason to apprehend that any claim will or might be made against him in proceedings to which this regulation applies, he may apply to the court for relief.

(4) The court, on an application under paragraph (3) above, has the same power to relieve the applicant as under this regulation it would have had if it had been a court before which the relevant proceedings against the applicant had been brought.

(5) Where a case to which paragraph (2) above applies is being tried by a judge with a jury, the judge, after hearing the evidence, may, if he is satisfied that the defendant or defender ought in pursuance of that paragraph to be relieved either in whole or in part from the liability sought to be enforced against him, withdraw the case in whole or in part from the jury and forthwith direct judgment to be entered for the defendant or defender on such terms as to costs or otherwise as the judge may think proper.

Punishment for fraudulent trading

58.—(1) If any business of an investment company with variable capital is carried on with intent to defraud creditors of the company or creditors of any other person, or for any fraudulent purpose, every person who was knowingly a party to the carrying on of the business in that manner is guilty of an offence and liable—

(3) The power which a company may exercise by virtue of paragraph (1) above shall only be exercised by the company if sanctioned—

- (a) in a case not falling within sub-paragraph (b) or (c) below, by a resolution of the company in general meeting;
- (b) if so authorised by the instrument of incorporation—
 - (i) in the case of a company that has only one director, by a resolution of that director; and
 - (ii) in any other case, by such resolution of directors as is required by SIB regulations; or

This paragraph applies to a shadow director of an investment company with variable capital as it applies to a director of such a company.

(2) Where an offence under these Regulations committed by any body corporate other than an investment company with variable capital is proved to have been committed with the consent or connivance of, or to be attributable to any neglect on the part of, a director, manager, secretary or other similar officer of the body, or a person purporting to act in any such capacity, he, as well as the body corporate, is guilty of the offence and liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

(3) Where the affairs of any body corporate other than an investment company with variable capital are managed by its members, paragraph (2) above applies in relation to the acts and defaults of a member in connection with his functions of management as it applies in relation to the acts and defaults of a director of a body corporate.

Time limits for prosecution of offences

69.—(1) Any information relating to an offence under these Regulations which is triable by a magistrates' court in England and Wales may be so tried on an information laid at any time within 12 months after the date on which evidence sufficient in the opinion of the relevant authority to justify the proceedings comes to its knowledge.

(2) Proceedings in Scotland for an offence triable only summarily which is alleged to have been committed under these Regulations may be commenced at any time within 12 months after the date on which evidence sufficient in the Lord Advocate's opinion to justify the proceedings came to his knowledge or, where such evidence was reported to him by the Secretary of State or SIB, within 12 months after the date on which it came to the knowledge of the Secretary of State or SIB (as the case may be).

For the purposes of this paragraph proceedings shall be deemed to be commenced on the date on which a warrant to apprehend or to cite the accused is granted, if the warrant is executed without undue delay.

(3) Paragraph (1) above does not authorise the trial of an information laid, and paragraph (2) does not authorise the commencement of proceedings, more than three years after the commission of the offence.

(4) For the purposes of these Regulations a certificate by the relevant authority or the Lord Advocate as to the date on which such evidence as is referred to above came to its or his knowledge is conclusive evidence of that fact.

70.—(1) Summary proceedings for an offence under these Regulations may, without prejudice to any jurisdiction exercisable apart from this regulation, be taken against an investment company with variable capital or other body corporate, or an unincorporated association, at any place at which it has a place of business and against an individual at any place where he is for the time being.

(2) Proceedings for an offence alleged to have been committed under these Regulations by an unincorporated association shall be brought in the name of the association (and not in that of any of its members), and for the purposes of any such proceedings any rules of court relating to the service of documents apply as in relation to a body corporate.

(3) Section 33 of the Criminal Justice Act 1925⁽²⁴⁾ and Schedule 3 to the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980⁽²⁵⁾ (procedure on charge of offence against a corporation) apply in a case in which an unincorporated association is charged in England and Wales with an offence under these Regulations as they apply in the case of a corporation.

9. The register of shareholders of a company shall be kept at its head office, except that—
- (a) if the work of making it up is done at another office of the company, it may be kept there; and

Transfer of registered shares

- 4.—(1) Where a transfer of shares is made by the person (if any) who is designated in the company's instrument of incorporation for the purposes of this paragraph, the company may not register the transfer unless such evidence as the company may require to prove that the transfer has taken place has been delivered to the company.
- (2) Where for any reason a person ceases to be designated for the purposes of this paragraph—
 - (a) any shares held by that person which are not disposed of on or before his ceasing to be so designated shall be deemed to be the subject of a new transfer to him which takes effect immediately after he ceases to be so designated; and
 - (b) the company shall make such adjustments to the register as are necessary to reflect his change of circumstances.
- 5.—(1) Except in the case of any transfer of shares referred to in paragraph 4 above, the company may not register any transfer unless the transfer documents relating to that transfer have been delivered to the company.
- (2) No share certificate shall be required to be delivered by virtue of sub-paragraph (1) above in any case where shares are transferred by a nominee of a recognised investment exchange who is designated for the purposes of regulation 41(6) above in the rules of the investment exchange in question.

(3) In these Regulations “transfer documents”, in relation to any transfer of registered shares, means—

- (a) a stock transfer within the meaning of the Stock Transfer Act 1963⁽³⁴⁾ which complies with the requirements of that Act as to the execution and contents of a stock transfer or such other instrument of transfer as is authorised by, and completed and executed in accordance with any requirements in, the company’s instrument of incorporation;
- (b) except in a case falling within paragraph (3) or (4) of regulation 41 above, a share certificate relating to the shares in question;
- (c) in a case falling within paragraph (3) of that regulation above, such other evidence of title to those shares as is required by the instrument of incorporation of the company; and
- (d) such other evidence (if any) as the company may require to prove the right of the transferor to transfer the shares in question.

6. In the case of any transfer of shares which meets the requirements of paragraph 4 or 5 above, the company shall—

- (a) register the transfer; and
- (b) where the name of the transferee is not already entered on the register, enter that name on the register.

7.—(1) A company may, before the end of the period of 21 days commencing with the date of receipt of the transfer documents relating to any transfer of shares, refuse to register the transfer if—

- (a) there exists a minimum requirement as to the number or value of shares that must be held by any shareholder of the company and the transfer would result in either the transferor or transferee holding less than the required minimum; or
- (b) the transfer would result in a contravention of any provision of the company’s instrument of incorporation or would produce a result inconsistent with any provision of the company’s prospectus.

(2) A company shall give the transferee written notice of any refusal to register a transfer of shares.

(3) Nothing in these Regulations shall require a company to register a transfer or give notice to any person of a refusal to register a transfer where registering the transfer or giving the notice would result in a contravention of any provision of law (including any law that is for the time being in force in a country or territory outside the United Kingdom).

8.—(1) Where, in respect of any transfer of shares, the company certifies that it has received the transfer documents referred to in paragraph 5(3)(b) or (c) above (as the case may be), that certification shall be taken as a representation by the company to any person acting on the faith of the certification that there has been produced to the company such evidence as on its face shows a prima facie title to the shares in the transferor named in the instrument of transfer.

(2) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (1) above, a certification is made by a company if the instrument of transfer—

- (a) bears the words “certificate lodged”(or words to the like effect); and
- (b) is signed by a person acting under authority (whether express or implied) given by the company to issue and sign such certifications.

(3) A certification under sub-paragraph (1) above shall not be taken as a representation that the transferor has any title to the shares in question.

(34) 1963 c. 18.

(4) Where a person acts on the faith of a false certification by a company which is made negligently or fraudulently, the company shall be liable to pay to that person any damages sustained by him.

Transfer of bearer shares

9. A transfer of title to any bearer share in a company is effected by the transfer from one person to another of the instrument mentioned in regulation 42 above which relates to that share.

10. Where the holder of bearer shares proposes to transfer to another person a number of shares which is less than the number specified in the instrument relating to those shares, he may only do so if he surrenders the instrument to the company and obtains a new instrument specifying the number of shares to be transferred.

Miscellaneous

11. Nothing in the preceding provisions of this Schedule shall prejudice any power of the company to register as shareholder any person to whom the right to any shares in the company has been transmitted by operation of law.

12. A transfer of registered shares that are held by a deceased person at the time of his death which is made by his personal representative is as valid as if the personal representative had been the holder of the shares at the time of the execution of the instrument of transfer.

13. On the death of any one of the joint holders of any shares, the survivor or survivors shall be the only persons recognised by the company as having any title to or any interest in those shares.

(5) If a copy of any such representations is not sent out as required because they were received too late or because of the company's default or if, for either of those reasons, any steps required by sub-paragraph (4)(c) or (d) above are not taken, the auditor may (without prejudice to his right to be heard orally) require that the representations be read out at the meeting.

(6) Copies of the representations need not be sent out, the steps required by sub-paragraph (4)(c) or (d) above need not be taken and the representations need not be read out at the meeting if, on the application of the company or any other person claiming to be aggrieved, the court is satisfied that the rights conferred by this paragraph are being abused to secure needless publicity for defamatory matter; and the court may order the costs of the company on such an application to be paid in whole or in part by the auditor, notwithstanding that he is not a party to the application.

14.—(1) An auditor who has been removed from office has, notwithstanding his removal, the rights conferred by paragraph 9 above in relation to any general meeting of the company at which his term of office would otherwise have expired or at which it is proposed to fill the vacancy caused by his removal.

(7) Copies of a statement need not be sent out or provided and the statement need not be read out at the meeting if, on the application of the company or any other person claiming to be aggrieved, the court is satisfied that the rights conferred by this paragraph are being abused to secure needless publicity for defamatory matter; and the court may order the costs of the company on such an application to be paid in whole or in part by the auditor, notwithstanding that he is not a party to the application.

18.—(1) Where an auditor ceases for any reason to hold office, he shall deposit at the head office of the company a statement of any circumstances connected with his ceasing to hold office which he considers should be brought to the attention of the shareholders or creditors of the company or, if he considers that there are no such circumstances, a statement that there are none.

- (a) send a copy of the statement to each of the shareholders whose name appears on the register of shareholders (other than the person who is designated in the company's instrument of incorporation for the purposes of paragraph 4 of Schedule 5 to these Regulations) and take such steps as SIB regulations may require for the purpose of bringing the fact that the statement has been made to the attention of the holders of any bearer shares; or
- (b) apply to the court;

and, where an application is made under paragraph (b) above, the company shall notify the auditor.

(4) Unless the auditor receives notice of an application to the court before the end of the period of 21 days beginning with the day on which he deposited the statement, he shall not later than seven days after the end of that period send a copy of the statement to each of the registrar of companies and SIB.

(5) If the court is satisfied that the auditor is using the statement to secure needless publicity for defamatory matter—

- (a) it shall direct that copies of the statement need not be sent out and that the steps required by SIB regulations need not be taken; and
- (b) it may further order the company's costs on the application to be paid in whole or in part by the auditor notwithstanding that he is not a party to the application; and the company shall not later than 14 days after the court's decision take such steps in relation to a statement setting out the effect of the order as are required by sub-paragraph (3)(a) above in relation to the statement deposited under sub-paragraph (1) above.

(6) If the court is not so satisfied, the company shall not later than 14 days after the court's decision send to each of the shareholders a copy of the auditor's statement and notify the auditor of the court's decision.

(2) In proceedings for an offence under sub-paragraph (1) above, it is a defence for the person charged to show that he took all reasonable steps and exercised all due diligence to avoid the commission of the offence.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

The Regulations make provision for the formation in Great Britain of a class of body corporate referred to in the Regulations as an investment company with variable capital. The Regulations also make provision for the authorisation of investment companies with variable capital and for their subsequent supervision.

(48) There are amendments that are not relevant to these Regulations.

An investment company with variable capital formed under the Regulations will be a collective investment scheme within the meaning of section 75 of the Financial Services Act 1986 (c. 60) the object of which is investment in a limited class of investments (referred to in the Regulations as “transferable securities”). It will also be an open-ended investment company within the meaning of section 75(8) of that Act. In addition an investment company with variable capital will be an undertaking for collective investment in transferable securities to which Council Directive 85/611/EEC on the coordination of laws, regulations and administrative provisions relating to undertakings for collective investment in transferable securities (“the UCITS Directive”) applies. As such, it will be able to take advantage of the rights which that Directive confers in relation to the undertakings to which it applies to market their shares in other States of the European Economic Area. At present, the only undertakings formed in Great Britain which are able to take advantage of the rights conferred by the UCITS Directive are authorised unit trust schemes the object of which is investment in transferable securities.

Part I of the Regulations is general and contains definitions of certain of the terms used in the Regulations.

Part II of, and Schedules 1 to 3 to, the Regulations are concerned with the formation and the subsequent control and supervision of an investment company with variable capital. Regulations 3 and 4 and Schedule 1 concern the formation of a company and the registration of certain details relating to it with the registrar of companies. Regulation 5 and Schedule 2 are concerned with the custody of the company’s property and with the company’s depository who is the person to whom the property will be entrusted for safekeeping. Regulation 6 extends certain legislative powers under the Financial Services Act 1986 so as to be exercisable in relation to investment companies with variable capital. The powers are vested in the Securities and Investments Board (“SIB”). (Regulation 73 makes provision as to SIB’s functions under the Regulations.)

Regulations 7 to 12 of the Regulations contain provisions as to the authorisation by SIB of an investment company with variable capital. Schedule 3 contains provisions concerning the contents of a company’s instrument of incorporation.

An application for authorisation will be required and SIB must be satisfied that the company will, if formed and authorised, meet certain criteria (set out in regulation 10). There is provision for representations to be made against any refusal to authorise a company and there is also provision for a company to be issued with a certificate which is a necessary prerequisite to it being able to enjoy the rights conferred by the UCITS Directive. Regulations 13 and 14 contain provisions relating to the name which may be used by an investment company with variable capital and regulation 15 contains provisions requiring a company to seek prior approval from SIB for certain changes, including changes to the company’s instrument of incorporation. Regulations 16 to 20 confer powers on SIB to intervene in the affairs of a company once it has been authorised. The powers in question are powers to revoke authorisation, to give directions and to make applications to the court. Regulations 21 to 24 confer concurrent powers on the Secretary of State and SIB to appoint inspectors to investigate the affairs of an investment company with variable capital. Regulations 25 to 27 contain provisions as to the winding up and dissolution of an investment company with variable capital.

Part III of, and Schedules 4 to 7 to, the Regulations set out the corporate framework within which an investment company with variable capital will operate. This framework will be supplemented by regulations made by SIB under the provisions of regulation 6 of the Regulations. Regulations 28 to 30 contain provisions concerning the directors of an investment company with variable capital and the inspection of their service contracts. Regulation 31 makes provisions as to general meetings of the company and regulations 32 to 38 make provision as to the capacity of a company and the validity of certain transactions involving its directors. Regulations 39 to 46 contain provision about the nature of the shares that an investment company with variable capital may issue, about share certificates and (together with Schedule 5 to the Regulations) share transfers and about the maintenance, closure and rectification of a register of shareholders which an investment company with variable capital will be required to keep in accordance with Schedule 4. By virtue of regulation 42, an investment company with variable capital will be able to issue bearer shares. Regulations 47 to 59 contain various provisions that are relevant to the operation of an investment company with variable capital. The provisions in question are ones about the powers which a company enjoys incidental to the carrying on of its business (regulation 47), the details which must be included in its correspondence (regulations 48 and 49), the execution and authentication of documents (regulations 50 to 54), liability and exemptions from liability (regulations 55 to 57), fraudulent trading (regulation 58) and the powers which the company has to make provision for its employees on the cessation or transfer of its business (regulation 59). Regulations 60 to 63 and Schedule 6 make provision as to reports containing accounts which must be prepared by an investment company with variable capital, as to the audit of the reports and as to auditors. Regulation 64 of, and Schedule 7 to, the Regulations contain provisions concerning the merger and division of investment companies with variable capital.

Part IV of the Regulations contains miscellaneous provisions, including provisions about notifications to the registrar of companies, prosecutions and service of documents. Part IV (regulation 74) also contains provisions extending the powers that SIB has under the Financial Services Act 1986 to raise fees in relation to the authorisation and supervision of authorised unit trust schemes so as to be exercisable for like purposes in relation to the authorisation and supervision of investment companies with variable capital. In addition, Part IV of and Schedule 8 to the Regulations make various minor and consequential amendments to other enactments including an amendment which has the effect that an investment company with variable capital will be an authorised person under the Financial Services Act 1986 (paragraph 11 of Schedule 8) and an amendment which excludes such a company from the provisions of section 716 of the Companies Act 1985 (paragraph 8 of Schedule 8).
