SUGAR

The Sugar Beet (Research and Education) Order 1996

Made - - - - 16th February 1996

Laid before Parliament 11th March 1996

Coming into force - - 1st April 1996

Whereas in accordance with subsection (1) of section 68 of the Food Act 1984⁽¹⁾ the Minister of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food and the Secretary of State, acting jointly, after consultation with the processors and such bodies as in their opinion are substantially representative of growers of home-grown beet, have prepared for the year 1996–97 the programme for carrying out research and education in matters affecting the growing of home-grown beet;

Now, therefore, the Minister of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food and the Secretary of State, acting jointly, in exercise of the powers conferred on them by the said section and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, hereby make the following Order:

Title, commencement and interpretation

1.—(1) This Order, which extends to England and Wales only, may be cited as the Sugar Beet (Research and Education) Order 1996 and shall come into force on 1st April 1996.

(2) In this Order—

“adjusted beet tonne” has the same meaning as in the interprofessional agreement made on 3rd October 1983, as re-issued (with amendments) in June 1995, between British Sugar p.l.c. of the one part and the National Farmers' Union of the other part;

“the Ministers” means the Minister of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food and the Secretary of State, acting jointly;

“processor” means a processor of home-grown beet;

“the programme” means the programme set out in the Schedule to this Order; and

“the year 1996–97” means the year beginning 1st April 1996.

Carrying into effect of the programme of research and education for 1996–97

2. For the purposes of carrying the programme into effect, contributions towards defraying the amount of expenditure, estimated in the programme to be incurred in carrying it out, to be made by every processor and by every grower of home-grown beet who delivers beet to a processor in the year 1996–97, shall be assessed and shall be collected and recovered as respectively provided in articles 3 and 4 below.

(1) 1984 c. 30; section 68 was amended by the Food Safety Act 1990 (c. 16), section 52 and Schedule 2, paragraph 13.

Assessment of contributions

3. The contributions from every processor and from every grower of home-grown beet who delivers beet to a processor during the year 1996–97, towards defraying the expenditure to be incurred in carrying out the programme for that year, shall be assessed as follows:—

- (a) in the case of any grower of home-grown beet, the contribution shall be at the rate of 11.0p for every adjusted beet tonne of home-grown beet sold by him for delivery to a processor in that year;
- (b) in the case of any processor, the contribution shall be at the rate of 11.0p for every adjusted beet tonne of home-grown beet purchased by the processor in that year.

Collection and recovery of contributions

4.—(1) All contracts made between any processor and any grower for the sale of home-grown beet for delivery to the processor during the year 1996–97 shall provide that the amount of the grower’s contribution assessed in accordance with paragraph (a) of article 3 of this Order shall be payable by the grower to the processor out of any sums standing to the credit of that grower in account with the processor and be deducted by the processor from the amount payable to the grower.

(2) The processor shall pay the proceeds, together with the amount of the processor’s contribution assessed in accordance with paragraph (b) of article 3 of this Order, to the Ministers on or before 30th April 1997.

(3) The amount of any contribution which has not been paid to the Ministers by the date on which it has become due for payment shall be recoverable by them.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order provides for the carrying into effect for the year 1996–97 of the programme, as set out in the Schedule, of research and education in matters affecting the growing of home-grown beet.

It also provides for the assessment of contributions towards the expenditure on this programme and for their collection from the processors and growers of sugar beet in England and Wales. The rates of contributions at 11.0p per adjusted beet tonne are unchanged from the contributions in the Sugar Beet (Research and Education) Order 1995 (S.I.1995/612).

“Adjusted beet tonne” is defined by reference to the interprofessional agreement of 3rd October 1983, as re-issued (with amendments) in June 1995, made between British Sugar p.l.c. and the National Farmers' Union. A copy of the re-issued agreement may be inspected during usual office hours at the offices of British Sugar p.l.c., Oundle Road, Peterborough PE2 9QU, the National Farmers' Union, 22 Long Acre, London WC2E 9LY or the Ministry of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food, Main Library, Whitehall Place, London SW1A 2HH.

A Compliance Cost Assessment has been prepared and a copy has been placed in the libraries of both Houses of Parliament. Copies of the Compliance Cost Assessment can be obtained from the Sugar, Tobacco, Oilseeds and Protein Division of the Ministry of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food, Whitehall Place (East Block), Whitehall, London SW1A 2HH.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.
