NOTICE TO CHILD OF APPLICATION FOR A CHILD ASSESSMENT ORDER SECTION 55 OF THE CHILDREN (SCOTLAND) ACT 1995

CASE NUMBER

Dear [insert name by which child is known]

I am writing to tell you that because there are worries about the way you are being treated the sheriff [the person who has to decide is being asked to make a "Child Assessment Order" to make sure that you are being treated properly.

The application to the sheriff has been made by [insert in simple language the person making the application, the reason for making it and the order(s) sought]. The sheriff would like to hear your views about what you would like to happen before making a decision.

Changes to legislation: There are outstanding changes not yet made by the legislation.gov.uk editorial team to Act of Sederunt (Child Care and Maintenance Rules) 1997. Any changes that have already been made by the team appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details) View outstanding changes

You can tell the sheriff what you think by:

Going to see the Sheriff

The sheriff will consider what to do next on [insert date, time and place of hearing].

You can take someone like a friend, parent, teacher or a social worker with you to see the sheriff to support you; or

You can ask a lawyer to come with you and tell the sheriff your views.

If you think you would like to go to see the sheriff it is usually best to talk it over with a lawyer.

Not going to see the Sheriff

You can fill in the attached form or write down your views on a separate sheet of paper and send them back in the enclosed stamped addressed envelope before the date on which the sheriff is to hear the application, which is at the end of this letter.

REMEMBER

That someone like a friend or teacher can help you to fill in the form or write down your views.

•If you return the form it will be given to the sheriff and, if he needs more information, he will ask the Sheriff Clerk who works with him to contact you about this.

IMPORTANT NOTE—You do not have to do any of these things if you would prefer not to; however, it is very important for you to understand that, if you do not do anything, the sheriff might make an order without knowing what your views are.

If you are unsure about what to do you can get free legal advice from a Lawyer or Local Advice Agency or Law Centre about the application and about legal aid. The Scottish Child Law Centre can refer you to specially trained lawyers who can help you. They give advice on their free phone no (0800 317 500) any time between 9.00 am and 5.00 pm on Monday to Friday.

The hearing to consider the application will be held on [insert date] at [insert time], in [insert name of court] SHERIFF COURT, [insert address of court].

You will see that, along with this letter, there is a copy of the application to the sheriff and the sheriff's order fixing the hearing. If you decide to get advice, or to be represented, make sure that you give your advisor a copy of the application, and the sheriff's order.

REMEMBER

That someone like a friend or teacher can help you to fill in the form or write down your views.

- If you return the form it will be given to the sheriff, who is the person who decides what will be done in your case, and, if he needs more information, he will ask the Sheriff Clerk who works with him to contact you about this.

IMPORTANT NOTE – You do not have to do any of these things if you would prefer not to; however, it is very important for you to understand that, if you do not do anything, the sheriff might make an order without knowing what your views are.

If you are unsure about what to do you can get free legal advice from a Lawyer or Local Advice Agency or Law Centre. The Scottish Child Law Centre can refer you to specially trained lawyers who can help you. They give advice on their free phone no (0800 317 500) any time between 9.00 am and 5.00 pm Monday to Friday.

The hearing to consider the application will be held on [insert place] at [insert time], in [insert name] SHERIFF COURT, [insert address of Sheriff].

You will see that, along with this letter, there is a copy of the application to the sheriff, and the sheriff's order fixing the hearing. If you decide to get advice, or to ask someone to go to see the sheriff to for you, make sure that you give your advisor a copy of the application, and the sheriff's order.

CITATION OF CHILD IN APPLICATION UNDER SECTION 65 OF THE CHILDREN (SCOTLAND) ACT 1995

Dear [insert name by which child is known]

As you know at the Children’s Hearing (Panel) held on[insert date] not everyone agreed that the information given to you on the form before the hearing was correct. The Sheriff, [the person who has to decide], has been asked to decide whether the information on the form is correct.

Since the information on the form which was given to you before the hearing was not accepted,* [insert who did not accept the grounds] or

Since the hearing were satisfied that you could not / did not* understand the reasons why you were there*

*delete as appropriate

your case has been sent to a sheriff who will decide whether the information is correct.

The sheriff will listen to the evidence in your case, and will make a decision. This decision is very important for you, and it is necessary for you to attend to tell the sheriff about anything to do with you; although you may not be asked any questions.

A sheriff assists for lots of different reasons, this time the purpose is to help the Children’s Hearing. If the sheriff decides that the worries about you are justified the case will go back to the children’s hearing who will decide what is to happen in your case.

Remember that the date, time and place of the hearing are given on the attached page.

Changes to legislation: There are outstanding changes not yet made by the legislation.gov.uk editorial team to Act of Sederunt (Child Care and Maintenance Rules) 1997. FORM 50

NOTICE OF CHILD PROTECTION ORDER TO CHILD IN TERMS OF SECTION 57 OF THE CHILDREN (SCOTLAND) ACT 1995.

ARRANGEMENTS TO KEEP YOU SAFE

Dear [insert name by which child is known]

I am writing to tell you that because there were worries about your safety the court was asked to sort out some practical arrangements to make sure you are kept safe.

After hearing about your situation the court made an order, called a "Child Protection Order". That means that the court gave permission to [insert in simple language the order(s) and any directions granted and their effect on the child]

If you are unhappy with this order or any directions you can ask the court to change it. For example, you might want to ask the court to allow you [insert an example e.g. to allow more contact with certain members of the family etc.]

Any change must be requested without delay

If you want to do this you can ask the court which made the order to listen to you. You will need a lawyer to help you.

Remember that if you do not agree with the order or any directions you must get advice IMMEDIATELY.

In the meantime you must do what the order says.

If you are unsure about what to do you can get free legal advice from a Lawyer or Local Advice Agency or Law Centre about the application and about legal aid. The Scottish Child Law Centre can refer you to specially trained lawyers who can help you. They give advice on their free phone no (0800 317 500) any time between 9.00 am and 5.00 pm Monday to Friday.

You will see that, along with this letter, there is a copy of the application which was made to the court, and the order the court has made which affects you. If you decide to get advice, or to ask someone to go to court for you, make sure that you give your advisor a copy of the application, and the court's order.

INTIMATION TO CHILD IN APPLICATION UNDER SECTION 51 OF THE CHILDREN (SCOTLAND) ACT 1995

Dear [insert name by which child is known]

As you know at the Children's Hearing (Panel) held on[insert date] not everyone agreed with the decision that was reached. The Sheriff, who is the person who decides has been asked to decide whether the information on the form is correct.

Since the decision of the hearing to[insert details of decision being appealed] was not accepted by [insert who did not accept the decision] your case has been sent to a sheriff who will decide whether the decision should be changed.

The sheriff will listen to the evidence in your case, and will make a decision. This decision is very important for you, and it is necessary for you to attend to tell the sheriff about anything to do with you; although you may not be asked any questions.

A sheriff assists for lots of different reasons, this time the purpose is to help the Children's Hearing. If the sheriff decides that the decision should be reconsidered the case may go back to the children's hearing to think again what is to happen in your case.

Remember that the date, time and place of the court hearing are given on the attached page.

Changes to legislation: There are outstanding changes not yet made by the legislation.gov.uk editorial team to Act of Sederunt (Child Care and Maintenance Rules) 1997. Any changes that have already been made by the team appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details) View outstanding changes

IMPORTANT NOTE: IT IS VERY IMPORTANT THAT YOU ATTEND COURT on the date and time given. If an emergency arises and you cannot attend you must contact the Sheriff Clerk or the Reporter because it is possible, if you do not attend, you may be detained and kept in a safe place until the sheriff can hear the case at a later date.

If you are unsure about what to do you can get free legal advice from a Lawyer or Local Advice Agency or Law Centre about the application and about legal aid. The Scottish Child Law Centre can refer you to specially trained lawyers who can help you. They give advice on their free phone no (0800 317 500) any time between 9.00 am and 5.00 pm Monday to Friday.

You will see that, along with this letter, there is a copy of the application to the sheriff, and the sheriff's order fixing the hearing. If you decide to get advice, or to be represented, make sure that you give your advisor a copy of the application, and the sheriff's order.
