The Driving Licences (Community Driving Licence) Regulations 1998

Amendment of the Road Traffic Act 1988

12. In section 117A (LGV Community licences and PCV Community licences: disqualification etc.)(1), for subsection (3) substitute—

“(3) Where, in pursuance of subsection (1) or (2) above, the Secretary of State orders a Community licence holder to be disqualified the Secretary of State must, on receipt of the Community licence and its counterpart (if any), grant to the Community licence holder, free of charge, a licence authorising the driving of the classes of vehicle which are unaffected by the disqualification.

(3A) The Secretary of State may require a person to provide—

- (a) evidence of his name, address, sex and date and place of birth, and
- (b) a photograph which is a current likeness of him, before issuing a licence to him under subsection (3) above.”.

(1) Section 117A was inserted by the 1996 Regulations.
