Auctioneer's Shot Gun Permit

Notes

- 1 Under section 3(2) of the Firearms Act 1968 it is an offence for a person to sell or transfer to any person in the United Kingdom, other than a registered firearms dealer, any shot gun to which this permit relates, unless that other person produces a shot gun certificate, or shows that he is by virtue of the Firearms Acts entitled to possess it without holding a certificate.
- 2 Under section 52 of the Firearms (Amendment) Act 1997 where a person sells, lets on hire, lends for more than 72 hours or gives a shot gun to another person who is not a registered firearms dealer or a person who is entitled to purchase or acquire the shot gun without holding a certificate -
 - i) the person receiving the shot gun must produce the certificate or permit entitling him/her to purchase or acquire the shot gun being transferred;
 - ii) the person selling, letting on hire, lending or giving the shot gun must comply with any instructions in the certificate or permit produced; and
 - iii) the final hand over of the shot gun must take place in person.

It is an offence for a person to fail to comply with these requirements.
