INCOME TAX

The Insurance Companies (Overseas Life Assurance Business) (Compliance) (Amendment) Regulations 1999

Made - - - -	18th October 1999
Laid before the House of Commons	18th October 1999
Coming into force	8th November 1999

The Commissioners of Inland Revenue, in exercise of the powers conferred on them by section 431E of the Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1988(a), hereby make the following Regulations:

Citation, commencement and effect

1.—(1) These Regulations may be cited as the Insurance Companies (Overseas Life Assurance Business) (Compliance) (Amendment) Regulations 1999 and shall come into force on 8th November 1999.

(2) The repeal by regulation 4 of regulations 17 and 20 of the principal Regulations shall not have effect in relation to specified events occurring before 8th November 1999.

(3) Regulations 5, 9 and 21 shall have effect in relation to—

(a) accounting periods ending on or after 31st December 1999, or

(b) where an insurance company so elects by written notice given to an officer of the Board on or before 31st December 1999, the first accounting period beginning on or after 1st October 1999 and ending after 31st December 1999 and subsequent accounting periods.

(4) Regulations 6, 7, 10, 11, 13(4), 14(5), 15, 16(2), 17(3) and 18 shall have effect in relation to policies or contracts made by or, as the case may be, transferred to, an insurance company on or after 8th November 1999.

(5) Regulations 8 and 12 shall have effect in any case where the date on which—

(a) the insurance company comes to be in possession of information making it reasonable for the company to assume that there has been a change in the identity of the policy holder, or

(b) the policy holder ceased to be beneficially entitled to the rights conferred by the policy or contract, falls after 8th November 1999.

(a) 1988 c. 1; section 431E was inserted by paragraph 2 of Schedule 8 to the Finance Act 1995 (c. 4).

Interpretation

2. In these Regulations—

“the Board” means the Commissioners of Inland Revenue;

“the principal Regulations” means the Insurance Companies (Overseas Life Assurance Business) (Compliance) Regulations 1995^(a);

“regulation” means a regulation of the principal Regulations;

“specified event” has the meaning given by regulation 3 of the principal Regulations.

Amendments to the principal Regulations

3.—(1) Regulation 2(1) shall be amended as follows.

(2) After the definition of “branch” there shall be inserted the following definitions—

““company tax return” has the meaning given by paragraph 3 of Schedule 18 to the Finance Act 1998;^(b)

“the first long term insurance Directive” means Council Directive 79/267 of 5th March 1979;”^(c)

(3) In the definition of “relevant policy” at the end there shall be added “, or any policy or contract for business to which regulation 5(3) applies;”.

(4) After the definition of “settlor” there shall be inserted the following definitions—

““term assurance business” means life assurance business in relation to which the policy or contract, or the underlying policy, has no surrender value, or a surrender value the amount of which does not exceed the amount of the premiums paid, throughout its term;

“the third long term insurance Directive” means Council Directive 92/96 of 10th November 1992;”^(d)

4. Regulations 3, 17 and 20 shall be omitted.

5.—(1) Regulation 5 shall be amended as follows.

(2) In paragraph (1)—

(a) the word “and” immediately following sub-paragraph (c) shall be omitted;

(b) after sub-paragraph (d) there shall be added “and

(e) to the best of the company’s knowledge and belief the policy or contract is not one to which section 431D(2) or (4)^(e) applies.”

(3) After paragraph (1) there shall be inserted—

“(1A) This regulation also applies in circumstances where—

(a) on or after 8th November 1999 business is transferred to an insurance company in accordance with an authorisation granted outside the United Kingdom for the purposes of—

(i) Article 31a.2^(f) of the first long term insurance Directive, or

(ii) Article 11 of the third long term insurance Directive,

(b) that business is with a policy holder not residing in the United Kingdom,

(c) that business is, immediately after the transfer, carried on by an insurance company resident in the United Kingdom at or through a branch outside the United Kingdom, and

(d) to the best of the company’s knowledge and belief the policy or contract for that business is not one to which section 431D(2) or (4) applies.”

(4) For paragraphs (2) to (4) there shall be substituted—

“(2) Except in relation to business to which paragraph (3) below applies, the business referred to in paragraphs (1) and (1A) above shall be overseas life assurance business.

(3) This paragraph applies to business—

(a) S.I. 1995/3237, amended by S.I. 1997/481 and 1998/1872.

(b) 1998 c. 36.

(c) O.J. 1979, L63/1, amended by O.J. 1992, L360/1 and O.J. 1995, L168/7.

(d) O.J. 1992, L360/1.

(e) Section 431D was inserted by paragraph 2 of Schedule 8 to the Finance Act 1995.

(f) Article 31a was inserted by O.J. 1992, L360/1, Article 49.

- (a) which is not term assurance business, and
 - (b) for which the policy or contract is one—
 - (i) in respect of which the insurance company completes the certificate prescribed in paragraph (4) below, or
 - (ii) which falls within a class of policies or contracts in respect of which the company completes the certificate prescribed in paragraph (4A) below.
 - (4) The certificate prescribed is a certificate—

 - (c) a personal representative in whom those rights have been vested by operation of law”.

15. After regulation 14 there shall be inserted—

“Business other than reinsurance business effected either by a company resident in the United Kingdom otherwise than outside the United Kingdom or by an overseas life insurance company—policy holder not within regulation 7

14A.—(1) This regulation applies in circumstances where—

- (a) an insurance company has entered into relevant business which is not reinsurance business,
- (b) that business is with a policy holder not residing in the United Kingdom who either—
 - (i) is not an individual, or
 - (ii) if an individual, is not one falling within regulation 7(1)(b)(i) or (ii),
- (c) the policy or contract for that business was effected either by an insurance company resident in the United Kingdom otherwise than at or through a branch outside the United Kingdom, or by an overseas life insurance company, and
- (d) the policy or contract was made on or after 8th November 1999.

(2) This regulation also applies where—

- (a) on or after 8th November 1999 relevant business which is not reinsurance business is transferred to an insurance company in accordance with an authorisation granted outside the United Kingdom for the purposes of—
 - (i) Article 31a.2 of the first long term insurance Directive, or
 - (ii) Article 11 of the third long term insurance Directive,

- (b) that business has not been treated by the transferor as relating to overseas life assurance business,
- (c) that business is with a policy holder not residing in the United Kingdom who either—
 - (i) is not an individual, or
 - (ii) if an individual, is not one falling within regulation 7(1)(b)(i) or (ii), and
- (d) that business is, immediately after the transfer, carried on by an insurance company resident in the United Kingdom otherwise than at or through a branch outside the United Kingdom, or by an overseas life insurance company.

(3) Subject to paragraph (4) below, the territory in which the policy holder was residing at the time the policy or contract was made or, where paragraph (2) above applies, transferred shall be the territory specified in the certificate prescribed in paragraph (4) of regulation 7A or, as the case may be, paragraph (5) of that regulation.

(4) Where, at the time the policy or contract was made or transferred or at any time within eighteen months thereafter, the company was in possession of information making it reasonable for the company to assume that the policy holder was residing in the United Kingdom at the time the policy or contract was made or transferred or at any time within twelve months thereafter, the territory in which the policy holder was residing at the time the policy or contract was made or transferred shall be the United Kingdom.

(5) Where, pursuant to paragraph (3) or (4) above, a policy holder has been treated as residing in a particular territory at the time the policy or contract was made or transferred, the territory in which the policy holder is residing at any time thereafter shall, subject to paragraph (6) below, be that same territory.

(6) Subject to paragraph (4) above, where at any time after the policy or contract was made or transferred the company comes to be in possession of information making it reasonable for the company to assume that the policy holder, being neither—

- (a) the person with whom the policy or contract was originally effected, nor
- (b) a person to whom the rights conferred by the policy or contract have been assigned in circumstances where the assignment did not constitute a chargeable event within the meaning of section 540, 542 or 545, nor
- (c) a personal representative in whom those rights have been vested by operation of law, was residing in the United Kingdom at the time he became the policy holder or at any time thereafter, the territory in which the policy holder is residing shall, from the date on which it is reasonable for the company so to assume, be the United Kingdom.”

16.—(1) Regulation 15 shall be amended as follows.

(2) In paragraph (3)—

- (a) for the word “twelve“ there shall be substituted “eighteen”;
- (b) for the word “six” there shall be substituted “twelve”.

(3) In paragraph (5) for the words “not being” to “originally effected” there shall be substituted “being neither—

- (a) the person with whom the policy or contract was originally effected, nor

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations amend the Insurance Companies (Overseas Life Assurance Business) (Compliance) Regulations 1995 (“the principal Regulations”).

Regulation 1 provides for citation, commencement and effect, and regulation 2 for interpretation.

Regulation 3 inserts various definitions in regulation 2 of the principal Regulations.

Regulation 4 repeals regulations 3, 17 and 20 of the principal Regulations.

Regulation 5 amends regulation 5 of the principal Regulations (overseas branch business) so as to make provision for transfers of insurance business from non-UK insurance companies to UK insurance companies and also to provide that overseas branch business, not being term assurance business, is overseas life assurance business unless the insurance company completes a prescribed certificate.

Regulation 6 amends regulation 7 of the principal Regulations (overseas direct services business) so as to cater for transfers of insurance business from non-UK insurance companies and also to limit the scope of the regulation to business, not being term assurance business, with a policy holder not residing in the United Kingdom who is a British citizen, or in respect of whose business the insurance company has treated the amended regulation 7 as applying.

Regulation 7 inserts a new regulation (regulation 7A) in the principal Regulations which caters for overseas direct services business of an insurance company where the business, not being reinsurance business or term assurance business, is with a policy holder who is not an individual within the amended regulation 7 of the principal Regulations.

Regulation 8 amends regulation 8 of the principal Regulations (overseas direct services business where the insurance company comes into possession of additional information) so as to cater for transfers of insurance business from non-UK insurance companies and also to limit the scope of the regulation to business which is not term assurance business and which is with a policy holder within the amended regulation 7 of the principal Regulations.

Regulation 9 amends regulation 9 of the principal Regulations (reinsurance of overseas branch business) so as to provide that the certificate prescribed in that regulation is that the underlying policy is one which has been treated as relating to overseas life assurance business.

Regulation 10 amends regulation 10 of the principal regulations (reinsurance of overseas direct services business) so as to limit the scope of the regulation to business which is not term assurance business and which is with a policy holder falling within the amended regulation 7 of the principal Regulations.

Regulation 11 inserts a new regulation (regulation 10A) in the principal Regulations which caters for reinsurance of overseas direct services business where the business is not term assurance business and is with a policy holder who is not an individual within the amended regulation 7 of the principal Regulations.

Regulation 12 amends regulation 11 of the principal Regulations (reinsurance of overseas direct services business where the insurance company comes into possession of additional information) so as to limit the scope of the regulation to business which is not term assurance business and which is with a policy holder within the amended regulation 7 of the principal Regulations.

Regulation 13 amends regulation 13 of the principal Regulations (territory in which policy holder residing in the case of overseas branch business) so as to cater for transfers of insurance business from non-UK insurance companies and also to extend the time limits relating to the insurance company receiving information that the policy holder is residing in the United Kingdom.

Regulation 14 amends regulation 14 of the principal Regulations (territory in which policy holder residing in the case of overseas direct business) so as to make similar provision to the amendment made by regulation 13 of these Regulations in relation to a policy holder falling within the amended regulation 7 of the principal Regulations.

Regulation 15 inserts a new regulation (regulation 14A) in the principal Regulations so as to make provision for the territory in which the policy holder is residing in the case of overseas direct business with a policy holder who is not an individual within the amended regulation 7 of the principal Regulations.

Regulation 16 amends regulation 15 of the principal Regulations (territory in which policy holder residing in the case of reinsurance of overseas branch business) so as to extend the time limits relating to the insurance company receiving information that the policy holder is residing in the United Kingdom.

Regulation 17 amends regulation 16 of the principal Regulations (territory in which policy holder residing in the case of reinsurance of overseas direct business) so as to extend the time limits relating to the insurance company receiving information that the policy holder is residing in the United Kingdom where the policy holder is an individual falling within the amended regulation 7 of the principal Regulations.

Regulation 18 inserts a new regulation (regulation 16A) in the principal Regulations so as to make provision for the territory in which the policy holder is residing in the case of reinsurance of overseas direct business with a policy holder who is not an individual within the amended regulation 7 of the principal Regulations.

Regulations 19 and 21 make amendments to regulations 18 and 19 of the principal Regulations (reclassification of policy or contract from date when or after it was effected) which are consequential on the amendments made by preceding regulations of these Regulations. Regulation 21 also amends regulation 19 of the principal Regulations so as to provide that a policy or contract whose business was overseas life assurance business when the policy or contract was made is not required to be reclassified as relating to basic life assurance business on a subsequent failure to meet the "relevant overseas employees" test in section 431D(7) of the Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1988, provided that the number of non resident overseas employees who stand to benefit under the policy or contract does not exceed 20 per cent. of the total number of persons who stand to benefit.

Regulation 20 inserts a new regulation (regulation 18A) in the principal Regulations so as to provide that, where the requirements of regulation 5 of the principal Regulations (as amended by regulation 5 of these Regulations) have not been observed, a policy or contract shall be treated as relating to overseas life assurance business from the date on which it was made or transferred.
