PART I

Introduction

Citation and commencement

1. These Rules may be cited as the General Osteopathic Council (Application for Registration and Fees) Rules 2000 and shall come into force on 9th May 2000.

Interpretation

2.—(1) In these Rules, unless the context otherwise requires—

“the Act” means the Osteopaths Act 1993;

“applicant” means a person applying to be registered as a registered osteopath;

“bank authority” means any form of authority which a person may give to his bank including a letter of authority, banker’s order, standing order or variable direct debit;

“doctor” means a registered medical practitioner;

“European Economic Area State” means a state which is a contracting party to the European Economic Area Agreement;

“European Economic Area Agreement” means the Agreement on the European Economic Area signed at Oporto on 2nd May 1992 <sup>M3</sup> as adjusted by the Protocol signed at Brussels on 17th March 1993 <sup>M4</sup>;

“relative”, in relation to any person, means any of the following—

(a) his spouse;

(b) any lineal ancestor, lineal descendant, brother, sister, aunt, uncle, nephew, niece or first cousin of his or his spouse;

(c) the spouse of any relative within paragraph (b) above; and for the purposes of deducing any such relationship “spouse” includes a former spouse, a partner to whom the person is not married, and a partner of the same sex; and “relevant qualification” means a recognised qualification or a qualification treated as a recognised qualification by rules made under section 3(6) of the Act.

(2) In these Rules, any reference to the date on which the retention fee is due is a reference to—

(a) where the entry in the register was first made during the transitional period, the first 9th May following the end of that period and 9th May in every subsequent year;

Changes to legislation: There are outstanding changes not yet made by the legislation.gov.uk editorial team to The General Osteopathic Council (Application for Registration and Fees) Rules Order of Council 2000. #### Service of documents

- 3.—(1) In these Rules—
- (a) any reference to the sending of a notice to an applicant or a registered osteopath is a reference to the sending of the notice by registered post service or by a postal service in which delivery or receipt is recorded to the address at which he has his practice or his principal practice or, if he is not practising, the address which he has informed the Registrar in writing is the address to be shown in the register in relation to his name; and
  - (b) where any notice or document is sent to an applicant or a registered osteopath, it shall be treated as having been sent on the day that it was posted.
- (2) The address at which a registered osteopath has his principal practice is the address which he has informed the Registrar is the address to be shown as such in the register in relation to his name.

PART II

Application for Registration

Application for registration as a fully registered osteopath

- 4.—(1) An application for registration as a fully registered osteopath shall be—
- (a) in writing;
  - (b) on the form approved by the General Council for the purpose which shall require the applicant to provide the following information—
    - (i) the applicant's personal details, including his full name, title, sex, age, date of birth, practice or principal practice address or, if not practising, the address to be shown in the register, telephone and fax numbers, details of any criminal convictions and state of health;
    - (ii) the applicant's professional details, including the name and address of the osteopathic institution he attended and the qualification gained, the outcome of

- any civil or negligence claims, membership of any other professional body and the outcome of any disciplinary proceedings; and
- (iii) such other information as the General Council may reasonably require;
- (c) completed and signed by the applicant; and
- (d) given or sent to the Registrar.
- (2) The applicant shall provide in connection with the application for registration—
- (a) a character reference, that is a reference as to the good character of the applicant given on the form specified in Part I of the Schedule by a person who—
- (i) is not a relative of the applicant;
- (ii) is a person of standing in the community which includes a registered osteopath, solicitor, accountant, bank manager, Justice of the Peace, principal of the institution which granted the applicant a relevant qualification or a person authorised by the principal of that institution, Minister of the Church, Rabbi, Imam or other religious official acceptable to the Registrar; and
- (iii) has known the applicant for a period of at least four years;
- (b) subject to paragraph (3), a health reference, that is a reference as to the physical and mental health of the applicant given on the form specified in Part II of the Schedule by the applicant's doctor provided—
- (i) he is not a relative of the applicant, and
- (ii) he has known the applicant for a period of at least four years;
- (c) the document conferring or evidencing the possession by the applicant of a relevant qualification; and
- (d) such other information and documents as the Registrar may reasonably require for the purpose of determining the application.
- (3) Where the Registrar is satisfied that the applicant cannot provide a health reference in the terms provided by paragraph (2)(b) for whatever reason, the Registrar may satisfy himself as to the physical and mental health of the applicant in any of the following ways—
- (a) by a reference given by a doctor who, in giving the reference, relies on the medical records of the applicant made by a doctor of whom the applicant was a patient for a period of at least four years or the records of a doctor who has practised in partnership with such a doctor;
- (b) by an examination by a doctor nominated by the Registrar; or
- (c) by such other manner as the Registrar considers appropriate in a particular case.

Other conditions of registration

5.—(1) For the purpose of satisfying himself as to the good character of the applicant, the Registrar shall have regard to—

- (a) the character reference referred to in rule 4(2)(a);
- (b) any criminal offence which the applicant has been convicted of;
- (c) such other matters as appear to him to be relevant;

and for this purpose the Registrar may seek information additional to that provided with the application for registration from both the applicant and from any other person or source.

(2) For the purpose of satisfying himself as to the physical and mental health of the applicant, the Registrar shall have regard to—

Changes to legislation: There are outstanding changes not yet made by the legislation.gov.uk editorial team to The General Osteopathic Council (Application for Registration and Fees) Rules Order of Council 2000. - (a) the health reference referred to in rule 4(2)(b);
- (b) such other matters as appear to him to be relevant;

and for this purpose the Registrar may seek information additional to that provided with the application for registration from both the applicant and from any other person or source and may require the applicant to be examined by a doctor nominated by the Registrar.

PART III

Fees

Entry fee

6.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2), the fee to be charged for making an entry in the register (“the entry fee”) in respect of a person who—

- (a) has made an application for registration as a registered osteopath after the end of the transitional period shall be £750 or, where the fee is to be paid by instalments, £795;
- (b) has made such an application during the transitional period but whose name has not been entered in the register when that period comes to an end shall be £1750 or, where the fee is to be paid by instalments, £1855.

(2) Where one or more of the following circumstances apply—

- (a) the applicant does not intend to practise for at least three months during the twelve month period beginning with the date on which he either—
  - (i) delivers the entry fee to the Registrar personally, or
  - (ii) sends the entry fee by registered post service or by a postal service in which delivery or receipt is recorded to the Registrar at the address of any office of the General Council;
- (b) the applicant resides outside the United Kingdom or other European Economic Area State, or the Channel Islands or the Isle of Man;
- (c) the application for registration is the first successful application made by the applicant;

the entry fee shall be £375 or, where the fee is to be paid by instalments, £397.

(3) The entry fee may only be paid by instalments with the agreement of both the applicant and the Registrar and where the Registrar has sent the applicant a notice in writing specifying the date by which each instalment is to be paid to the Registrar and the amount thereof.

(4) Where it has been agreed in accordance with paragraph (3) that the entry fee shall be paid by instalments, the Registrar shall not enter the applicant’s name in the register until the first instalment has been paid.

Registrar’s authority in relation to entry fees

7.—(1) Where it has been agreed in accordance with rule 6(3) that the entry fee shall be paid by instalments and the osteopath concerned fails to pay an instalment on the date on which it is due, the Registrar shall send the osteopath a notice in writing stating that, if the instalment is not paid within the period of 28 days beginning with the date on which the notice is sent, the Registrar will remove the osteopath’s entry from the register unless the osteopath satisfies him that removal from the register would cause him undue hardship.

Changes to legislation: There are outstanding changes not yet made by the legislation.gov.uk editorial team to The General Osteopathic Council (Application for Registration and Fees) Rules Order of Council 2000. Any changes that have already been made by the team appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details) View outstanding changes

(2) If the instalment is not paid within the period referred to in paragraph (1), the Registrar shall remove the osteopath's entry from the register unless he is satisfied that removal would cause the osteopath concerned undue hardship.

(3) In this rule, a reference to the date on which an instalment is due is a reference to a date which, in accordance with rule 6(3), the Registrar has notified the applicant is a date by which an instalment of the entry fee is payable.

Retention fee

8.—(1) Subject to paragraphs (2), (3) and (4), the fee to be charged in respect of the retention in the register of any entry in any year following the year in which the entry was first made ("the retention fee") shall be £750 or, where the fee is to be paid by instalments, £795.

(2) Where—

- (a) the osteopath is not, on the date on which the retention fee is due, practising as an osteopath and does not intend to practise as an osteopath for at least three months during the twelve month period beginning with the date on which the retention fee is due; or
- (b) the osteopath resides outside the United Kingdom or other European Economic Area State, the Channel Islands or the Isle of Man;

the retention fee shall be £375 or, where the fee is to be paid by instalments, £395.

(3) Where an osteopath satisfies the following conditions—

- (a) the osteopath is paying a retention fee for the first time;
- (b) he has been granted a qualification in osteopathy, whether or not it is a relevant qualification, during the period of one year immediately preceding the date on which he was first registered; and
- (c) he has not been practising as an osteopath for longer than a period of eighteen months ending with the date on which he was first registered, the retention fee shall be £500 or, where the fee is to be paid by instalments, £530.

(4) Where paragraphs (2) and (3) apply, the retention fee shall be £250 or, where the fee is to be paid by instalments, £275.

(5) The retention fee may only be paid by instalments with the agreement of both the osteopath and the Registrar and where the Registrar has sent the osteopath a notice in writing specifying the date by which each instalment is to be paid to the Registrar and the amount thereof.

Registrar's authority in relation to retention fees

9.—(1) Except where it has been agreed that the retention fee shall be paid by instalments, the Registrar shall remove from the register any entry relating to a registered osteopath who, after the appropriate notices specified in either paragraph (2) or (3) have been sent, fails to pay the retention fee unless he is satisfied that the removal would cause the osteopath undue hardship.

(2) Where a registered osteopath has not given the Registrar a bank authority, the Registrar shall—

- (a) send the osteopath a notice in writing not less than 28 days before the date on which the retention fee is due which states that the retention fee is due and the date on which it is due; and
- (b) if the retention fee has not been paid by the date on which it is due, send a further notice ("the second notice") in writing stating that if the retention fee is not paid within the period of 14 days beginning with the day on which the second notice is sent the Registrar will remove the osteopath's entry from the register unless the osteopath satisfies him that removal from the register would cause him undue hardship.

Changes to legislation: There are outstanding changes not yet made by the legislation.gov.uk editorial team to The General Osteopathic Council (Application for Registration and Fees) Rules Order of Council 2000. Any changes that have already been made by the team appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details) View outstanding changes

(3) Where a registered osteopath has given the Registrar a bank authority and the retention fee has not been paid in accordance with that authority by the date on which that fee is due, the Registrar shall send the osteopath a notice in writing stating that, if the retention fee is not paid within the period of 28 days beginning with the day on which the notice is sent, the Registrar will remove the osteopath's entry from the register unless the osteopath satisfies him that removal from the register would cause him undue hardship.

(4) Where it has been agreed in accordance with rule 8(5) that the retention fee shall be paid by instalments and the osteopath has failed to pay an instalment on the date when it is due, the Registrar shall send the osteopath a notice in writing stating that, if the instalment is not paid within the period of 14 days beginning with the day on which the notice is sent, the Registrar will remove the osteopath's entry from the register unless the osteopath satisfies him that removal from the register would cause him undue hardship.

(5) If the instalment is not paid within the period referred to in paragraph (4), the Registrar shall remove the osteopath's entry from the register unless he is satisfied that the removal would cause the osteopath concerned undue hardship.

(6) In this rule, a reference to the date on which an instalment of a retention fee is due is a reference to a date which the Registrar has notified the osteopath concerned under rule 8(5) is a date on which an instalment is payable.

Restoration fee

10.—(1) Subject to paragraphs (2) and (3), the fee to be charged for restoring an entry in the register ("the restoration fee") shall be £750.

(2) Where—

- (a) the person applying for restoration to the register does not intend to practise for at least three months during the twelve month period beginning with the date on which he either—
  - (i) delivers the restoration fee to the Registrar, or
  - (ii) sends the restoration fee by registered post service or by a postal service in which delivery or receipt is recorded to the Registrar at the address of any office of the General Council; or
- (b) the osteopath resides outside the United Kingdom or other European Economic Area State, the Channel Islands or the Isle of Man;

the restoration fee shall be £375.

(3) Where the osteopath applying for restoration to the register has never paid a retention fee, the restoration fee shall be £500.

Entry in the register, and payment of fees

11. The Registrar shall refuse to make an entry in the register in respect of a person who has made an application for registration as a registered osteopath unless the fees specified in rules 6 and 8 have been paid and shall refuse to restore an entry to the register unless the fee specified in rule 10 has been paid.

Changes to legislation: There are outstanding changes not yet made by the legislation.gov.uk editorial team to The General Osteopathic Council (Application for Registration and Fees) Rules Order of Council 2000. ### Form For Good Character Reference

REFERENCES

PART I	Rule 4(2)(a)
Form For Good Character Reference
Osteopaths Act 1993	Ref:
Provision of a Character Reference

The Osteopaths Act 1993 requires that an applicant for registration under the Act must satisfy the Registrar that he/she is of good character before he/she can be registered to practise osteopathy. A reference as to the applicant's character is to be provided on this form by a person of professional standing in the community and includes a registered osteopath, solicitor, accountant, bank manager, Justice of the Peace, principal of the institution which granted the applicant a relevant qualification or a person authorised by the principal of that institution, Minister of the Church, Rabbi, Imam or other religious official acceptable to the Registrar, who is not a relative (either directly, or related by marriage which includes partners) and who has known the applicant for at least four years.

The Registrar may make further inquiries of the applicant and/or referees if it is deemed necessary to verify or clarify any part of this reference.

I have known the above named person for ... years and I know of no reason why he/she should not practise osteopathy with honesty and integrity.

PART II

Form for Health Reference

Form for Health Reference

Osteopaths Act 1993

Ref:

The Osteopaths Act 1993 requires that an applicant for registration under the Act must satisfy the Registrar that he/she is in good health, both physically and mentally, before he/she can be registered to practise osteopathy. A reference as to the applicant's health is to be provided, as a matter of first recourse, on this form by a registered medical practitioner who has been either the applicant's doctor for the past four years or who has examined the applicant's medical records made by a general medical practitioner who has known the applicant for the requisite period.

The Registrar may make further inquiries of the applicant and/or referees if it is deemed necessary to verify or clarify any part of these references.

Please tick where applicable

I have known the above named person for ... years and am satisfied he/she is of good health both physically and mentally. I am not aware of any circumstances which would affect the capacity of the applicant to practise as a registered osteopath.

Only a registered medical practitioner may supply such a health reference

I have examined the medical records of the above named person made by a registered medical practitioner who knew him/her for the last four years, or by a registered medical practitioner who practised in partnership with that practitioner and am satisfied that there appears to be no medical reason which would affect the capacity of him/her to practise as a registered osteopath.

Any additional information:

A registered medical practitioner may provide a reference based on his/her personal knowledge at the time the application is made without carrying out a formal health examination before signing the reference form.

Name (please print):

The Registrar may however, request such an examination if he/she deems it necessary in order to provide satisfactory evidence of good mental and/or physical health. The applicant shall be personally responsible for any health examination fees.
